Kappa Delta Rho and Delta Sigma Phi in a first year meeting. These sororities are the oldest in the University of Pennsylvania and are the only ones that have chapters on campus. The meeting was hosted by the President of Kappa Delta Rho, Linda Anderson, and the President of Delta Sigma Phi, Nancy Day. The meeting began with an introduction by the President of the Interfraternity Council, Matthew Silva, who discussed the benefits of being a member of a sorority and the importance of career development.

Ursinus was eventually convinced to submission by a highly touted Wagner eleven, yet, before the former was over, the Grizzlies had knocked the overconfident Wagner team askew and almost flat before the disastrous final minutes when Wagner poured through 24 points.

The question running through many minds is why did Coach Whaley put in the second squad on the kickoff when the Bears came so close to a smashing victory over a demoralized Wagner squad when the Bears drew within Henry. The call was a costly tactical error, to moan about the play defense a demoralized Wagner squad when the Bears drew within Henry.
