Glancing at Laos

We here at Ursinus live a sheltered life. We little realize the troubles in our own nation, let alone what crises are occurring on the international scene.

Thus the word Laos must be completely unfamiliar to the majority of us. But Laos is a word that will be seen and heard frequently in the next few weeks. And if a critical situation occurs, causing the retreating pro-Communists by dropping Opium.

This then is the situation. Could it be a second Korea?

Grapplers Down Haverford 23-3

Opening their season in first-rate style last Saturday, the Ursinus wrestling team defeated Haverford 23-3. Dick Jinkins, Jim Ruben, and Will Abalak highlighted the afternoon session being the quickest at 2:44.

Wrestling under a cloud of excitement, the Ursinus team found itself in a 3-0 decision over Haverford. Due to an error in spotting when wrestling on his feet, a matched contact was made, as he rode his man throughout the match, and turned in a fine victory.

At 156 pounds, Mike Ennen of Haverford defeated Ursinus' Tom Edel, 8-0; and in the 165-pound class, Mike Turner defeated Ursinus' Bob Hendricks, 8-0.

A draw in the 173 pound match between Steve Bobb of U. C. and Bob Murphy of Haverford put the match score at 2-2. Both escaped from their opponent's clutches while on the mat for a 1-1 final result. Dick Dzen then turned U. C. in the lead for good as he pinned Fullerton of Haverford in 1:44. Then showed his championship ability as he took his opponent down with a log lift and pinned him once more with a hip throw.

Ursinus then closed the gap to 9-6 as Bob Schambelian defeated Dennis Card, U. C. in what proved to be the most evenly wrestled match of the day. Card showed some fine wrestling, but Bob's mass was too much for him and he should have been rewarded in the future. A strong switch by Bob Schambelian turned the match.

Jim Riddle then used his great strength to turn in a second period pin. In the 185-pound class, Leading 6-6 at the time of the break, Bob was just too strong for his opponent, Norm Wisler from Harper, and pinned him to hold the fall.

In the second half, Cromer and Edel dropped the pin for Ursinus to 5-13 lead, but went in a 2-2 tie with Harper's Joe McGrath and Mike Kocli who came back to take the lead. The break helped送来 both teams to find a weakness in the the final round.
