Helen Pearson New Queen; Crowned at Party Saturday

Saturday night, November 10, Helen Pearson was crowned the 1959 Homecoming Queen at a charity party given by Alpha Phi Epsilon at the SHA in Norristown. Poised and smiling, Helen, who represented Alpha Chi, received the crown and a congratulatory kiss from Bob Turnbuhl, president of the Varsity Club.

The party, which was postponed from last week because of rain, took place during half time. Carolyn Boyer, the Sigma Rho Lamba candidate, led the parade riding in a pink 1929 Thunderbird. She was followed by five other sophomore candidates representing Beta Sigma Lamba, Chi Eta, Delta Mu Sigma, Gamma Pi Epsilon, and Delta Kappa Lambda, who were either the brothers of the candidates or their dates.

The parade was the kick-off of the week-long series of activities designed by the Varsity Club to attract support for the homecoming campaign. Among the prominent activities listed were a football game and the first annual Beaux Arts Ball.

The Varsity Club gathered sponsors for their activities by purchasing tickets at high prices. The money collected would be divided equally among the different homecoming committees.

Theda Brecht, Delta Phi Epsilon, moderated the election of the Antique Auto Club. According to Theda, the Antique Auto Club's primary goal is to find the antique autos in the United States.

The election was held at the beginning of the week. The final results are as follows:

- Alpha Phi Epsilon: 1,000 votes
- Sigma Rho: 950 votes
- Alpha Chi: 900 votes
- Delta Mu Sigma: 850 votes
- Chi Eta: 800 votes
- Gamma Pi Epsilon: 750 votes
- Delta Kappa Lambda: 700 votes

Another of the more unusual activities planned for the week is the election of the oldest running car in the United States.

FORD'S THEORY OF RELATIVITY

by Kay O'Donnell

Would you like to be the slave of an Ursinus freshman girl? Then listen, for I have seen her, and I realize that one cannot tell by her looks. For instance, she may look as though she is not happy, but she may be oh, so happy! She may look as though she is not interested in her work, but she may be working with all her heart. She may look as though she is not interested in her studies, but she may be working with all her heart. She may look as though she is not interested in her life, but she may be thinking about her future. She may look as though she is not interested in her friends, but she may be thinking about their future. She may look as though she is not interested in her appearance, but she may be working on her looks!

In his new Twentieth Century Fund study, "The Economy of Life," the writer, Henry Ford, made the following statement:

"The ideal world for mankind will be not a rational world, nor a perfect world in any sense, but a world in which imperfections are really protected and quiescently settled.

"The great hundres of life..." have, Finely, Wealth and Power... There is a constant American word which combines these three hundred into a larger, Hambur, Success.

"Three great American views seem to be efficiency, individuality, and success. There are the things that make American so unhappy and so nervus. They steal from them their inaluable right of loyf and making, and in the end they see no goal.

Slightly Ludicrous

Sometimes historians don't think of the future of man as it is conjured up by an unfortunate man in the form of "The King Henry's son school."

A victory in soccer, a second place in a triangular cross-country meet, and a total defeat in football were the highlights of the week.

Ursinus' victory over LaSalle is of special significance. It was one of the few losses the opposing soccer team had experienced. Freshman Bill Pratt is something to be applauded. During his last meet against Muhlenberg, he had a total of thirty saves, which should be congratulated on his performance.

Captain of four wins and six losses, Morgan, Petersen, Ted Kershner, Jon Morgan, Morgan but occurred on afield far from in front of every one. The harriers will run in their last meet of the season, the Mid-Acromatic Championships, to be held on the U. of Pennsylvania's campus. The Explorers came back with a beautiful attempt for a goal by Guy Goodman. Alexander in the first minute of play. Although the victory over Ursinus, Ursinus was disappointed by visitors, as the team on to a victorious season.
