"Destruction"

Over the past week Ursinus has been hit with an epidemic of "destructiveness." Right at the beginning of last week someone broke into Bobbemore, took the choir gowns, and promptly hung them from the flagpole. This little bit of humor will cost the College at least one hundred dollars. Some joke! In addition to this "mild vandalism" another and more serious event occurred this weekend. Someone had broken into malice house or had his senses blunted by liquor, drove over the muddy football field and track, causing as yet unknown (but very expensive) damage. In the case of some of the faculty and students who have seen the damage it will cost a "pretty penny.

As of yet it is not known what these acts were committed by an Ursinus student or someone not in the College Community. It is quite possible that the football field incident is not due to some campus student but is breaking into Bobbemore and the subsequent damage can more easily be traced to a campus prankster.

What can possess people to go on a no respect for the property of others? In the past Bobbemore has been broken into, but no real damage insured. In fact some of the incidents were, to say the least, funny. But this last case is an entirely different story. Someone, or a number of someone, let their prank go to far. Dear Editor,

Considering recent events, it is important that we consider the women of our college. Many women students want special consideration. They simply want to be treated as equals in the classroom and in all aspects of campus life. We must strive to make our campus a place where women can feel comfortable and welcome.

Sincerely,
