J. Robbins is '59 May Queen
Court Committee are Picked

The annual May Day Pageant, to be held on May 9 this year, will feature the election of the May Queen and her attendants. The Pageant, which is one of the most anticipated events of the year, is organized by the campus-wide Student Volunteer Movement. The election of the May Queen and her court is a significant event that marks the celebration of spring and the transition of leadership within the student body.

Juniors who wish to try out for any dance may do so on Monday, April 10, in the new gym. There will be opportunities for girls, boys, and couples. The eligibility requirements include being a junior or senior, and the dance team is open to all students.

Juniors to Present Prom

On April 15 at Sunnyside Hall, Ursinus will present its first formal for the year. With the aid of a theme committee headed by Pauline Bower and Cindy Buchholz, the class chose an oriental theme, using elaborate bamboo and bamboo plants, bamboo sculptures, and bamboo lamps for the atmosphere. The student body is invited to attend this event.

‘59 Marked the 90th Anniversary of Its Charter

Annually, Ursinus marks the 90th anniversary of its charter. This year, the celebration of Ursinus's history will take place on February 19. As a part of the festivities, the college will host a special lecture and presentation to honor the contributions of the founders and early leaders of the institution.

Campus Chest Opens Annual Charity Drive

Goal Set for $16,000 This Year: Four Charities Are Represented; Dorm Representatives Appointed

From March 9 until March 20, the annual campus charity drive will be conducted. The drive is open to all members of the campus community, and it aims to raise funds for four worthy charities chosen. The organization's goal is to raise $16,000 this year. The participating charities are the Student Volunteer Movement, YM-YWCA, the Varsity Club, and the Student Volunteer Movement-Inter and Inter-Sober Councils, and the men and women day students.

Dr. Helen Cam Should Apply for Forum

Men of the Junior Class who wish to be considered for membership in the Cabinet and key society 'tapping' which will take place May 9, are asked to submit their names by April 10. In addition, a note must be presented to the Dean of Men's Office by May 9.

MANAGER

Ursinus is most fortunate in having as its guest this Wednesday morning, Dr. Helen Cam, an authority on the history of the Ursinus Forum. She will address the Ursinus Forum on Women at Work at 8 p.m. in Bomberger. Dr. Cam is a dynamic person who combines great historical interest in the medieval period and the Renaissance and the analytical aspects of that time. She has done extensive research on the guilds and the role of women in these organizations for scholarly publications.

Religion in Life Week Presented

The Student Worship Commission of the YM-YWCA sponsored Religion in Life Week from Feb. 23 to 29. The theme of this week was "A Method (Discourse) for Finding Truth."

Various speakers highlighted the week, among which activities were a faculty debate, a lecture on scientific advancement, and informal student discussions. Participating in the faculty debate on Feb. 23, Dr. Ayer, Dr. Wagner, and Dr. Stahl considered the relationship of science and religion. Dr. Caspar acted as moderator of the debate.

On Feb. 24, Dr. Theodore B. Heterich lectured on the questions presented by student advancement. Dr. Heterich is chairman of the Department of Engineering at Haverford College.

Group discussions led by students culminated the activities on Feb. 23. Science students, Jerry Malik, Ted Clair, Carolyn Carpenter and Phyllis Lomonte, were aided in these discussions by outside resource persons who were experienced in the various areas of science.

Students began each morning of Religion in Life Week with a Morning Watch program. The topic of these morning programs was Prayer.

The Blue Jays began to play but had at the second half of the game from the lay off. But couldn't be bought. John Schumacher changed tactics and started to fast according to the white and the sudden change, the Blue Jays were nipped by 5 and beyond. The Bears now called time to try to organize the defense, yet couldn't meet the high scorers. Although Ursinus was defeated this time through the efforts of Wern­ton's forward climbing, there was no chance whatsoever for a win. In the first half play, Ursinus is the sound of the final buzzer, Wern­ton, which finally all the scoring, checking in 14 percent out of the point spread. Soon after Dewster blasted the net with a book shot, the game, the name scored, 82-60.
