4-20-1959

The Ursinus Weekly, April 20, 1959

Marla Shilton
Ursinus College

John Swinton
Ursinus College

Mary Elizabeth Dassler
Ursinus College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly

Part of the Cultural History Commons, Higher Education Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
Shilton, Marla; Swinton, John; and Dassler, Mary Elizabeth, "The Ursinus Weekly, April 20, 1959" (1959). Ursinus Weekly Newspaper.
383.
https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly/383

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ursinus Weekly Newspaper by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.
The following lists the persons nominated for the Student Government Association, their societies, and the year was president:

President—Lulee Moore, Sport Com- mittee, 1959-60, 1960;

Vice president—Pearl Connors, secretary-treasurer of the WSGA, WAA, and Skullers Club, 1960:

Secretary—Gail Gove, treasurer of the WSGA, Skullers Club, and Freshmen class executive, 1959:

Treasurer—Barry Beeman, Skullers Club, and Freshmen class executive, 1959:

EGYPTIAN STUDENTS TELL OF PROBLEMS OF THEIR COUNTRY

After Vespers on April 12, some Urssians students had the pleasure of meeting with two Egyptian students, Aly and Mahmoud, who are from Cairo University. Aly is of about 18 years old, he is from Cairo and attends the Liberal School of Fine Arts. He has been in the States for two years. Aly is interested in the Air Force foot ball, and he has taken on the Nasser has been responsible in establishing the Egyptian League of Fine Arts. Because of this, Aly has been in contact with the Egyptian Association of Fine Arts. His greatest desire is to be a member of the Egyptian Association of Fine Arts, which has been established for the last 10 years. Mahmoud is also interested in the Egyptian Association of Fine Arts. He is from Cairo and attends the Liberal School of Fine Arts. He has been in the States for two years. He is interested in the Air Force football, and he has taken on the Nasser has been responsible in establishing the Egyptian League of Fine Arts. Because of this, Mahmoud has been in contact with the Egyptian Association of Fine Arts. His greatest desire is to be a member of the Egyptian Association of Fine Arts, which has been established for the last 10 years.

Sorority Open House

On April 21, in Bomberger Chapel, Ursinus College will present an afternoon of sorority open houses. The sororities of Ursinus College will have their open houses on April 21, in Bomberger Chapel. The sororities of Ursinus College will have their open houses on April 21, in Bomberger Chapel.
A STUDENT, A JESUIT AND A CARPENTER
by John Swinton
Some time last year, Father John Dulle, a priest, and Franz Haberl, a state Department of State official, talked about their respective work. Both are interested in international relations and their work has brought them into contact with people from many different countries. They have found that their work is not only fulfilling, but also a means of serving God. By sharing their experiences, they hope to encourage others to seek similar careers.

On September 19, 1948, Franz Dulle resigned his position as a State Department official in Washington, D.C. This decision was not easy for him, as he had been employed by the State Department for 25 years. However, he felt that it was necessary to pursue his academic interests.

Franz Dulle was born in Vienna in 1891 and was educated at the University of Vienna. He graduated with a degree in law and then went on to study political science. He worked as a diplomat for the Austrian government and was later appointed as a member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration in The Hague. In 1928, he became the consul general of Austria in New York City.

After World War II, Dulle served as a representative of the United Nations and was also appointed as a member of the International Court of Justice. He later became a professor of international law at Columbia University in New York City.

In 1957, Dulle was appointed as the first director of the newly established United Nations University. He served in this position until his retirement in 1963.

Despite his successful career, Dulle was deeply committed to his Catholic faith and was known for his strong anti-communist views. He died in 1970, leaving a legacy of service to both his country and his faith.
He's Corner

A few weeks ago we were rather confident in the success of Ursinus athletics for this coming spring season. Looking at last week's record we realize that our expectations were justified. It is with sincere admiration that we applaud the fine performances exhibited by both the baseball and track teams.

The baseball team, after having lost its opening game to Alvernia, compensated for its initial loss by winning both the Drexel and the South Jersey Rutgers games. The track team, following the example set by the baseball team, took its first meet against Haverford which, next to Dickinson, is undoubtedly the toughest opponent of the Ursinus Cindermen. In its first meet against Haverford which, next to Dickinson, is undoubtedly the toughest opponent of the Ursinus Cindermen.

Concerning the baseball team, after having lost its opening game to Lehigh, the team proceeded to compete in the World Series, coming up against the New York Yankees in the seventh game. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game.

The varsity line-up was as follows:

- Bob Peterson, designated hitter
- Wally Drumm, catcher
- Joe Goshie, first baseman
- Terry Shaner, second baseman
- John Morgan, shortstop
- Bob Richmond, third baseman
- Bill Fox, right fielder
- Jack Strunk, left fielder
- Bert Scherz, pitcher

In spite of the loss, the track team proved itself to be the strongest team this college has had in years. The strength of the team, we believe, is mainly due to the excellent performances of Vernon Morgan, Alan Gil, and Fred Burdett. Despite the loss, the track team proved itself to be the strongest team this college has had in years. The strength of the team, we believe, is mainly due to the excellent performances of Vernon Morgan, Alan Gil, and Fred Burdett.

The baseball team, after having lost its opening game to Lehigh, the team proceeded to compete in the World Series, coming up against the New York Yankees in the seventh game. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game. In the second inning, with one out, Jack Strunk put down a fielder's choice, bringing in the second run of the inning. In the third inning, with two outs, Ed Goodwin drove in the tying run with a double to right-center. In the fifth inning, with two outs, Wally Drumm and Joe Goshie scored on a double by Terry Shaner. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game.

The baseball team, after having lost its opening game to Lehigh, the team proceeded to compete in the World Series, coming up against the New York Yankees in the seventh game. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game. In the second inning, with one out, Jack Strunk put down a fielder's choice, bringing in the second run of the inning. In the third inning, with two outs, Ed Goodwin drove in the tying run with a double to right-center. In the fifth inning, with two outs, Wally Drumm and Joe Goshie scored on a double by Terry Shaner. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game.

The baseball team, after having lost its opening game to Lehigh, the team proceeded to compete in the World Series, coming up against the New York Yankees in the seventh game. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game. In the second inning, with one out, Jack Strunk put down a fielder's choice, bringing in the second run of the inning. In the third inning, with two outs, Ed Goodwin drove in the tying run with a double to right-center. In the fifth inning, with two outs, Wally Drumm and Joe Goshie scored on a double by Terry Shaner. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game.

The baseball team, after having lost its opening game to Lehigh, the team proceeded to compete in the World Series, coming up against the New York Yankees in the seventh game. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game. In the second inning, with one out, Jack Strunk put down a fielder's choice, bringing in the second run of the inning. In the third inning, with two outs, Ed Goodwin drove in the tying run with a double to right-center. In the fifth inning, with two outs, Wally Drumm and Joe Goshie scored on a double by Terry Shaner. The Yankees, driven to the brink of defeat, managed to turn the tables on the Ursinus team and win the game.
Orientation Plans...Continued from page 3.

HURRY! The 1959-60 freshmen orientation on the campus of Ursinus College will begin on September 29, 1959. Thus you may expect our Fall Newsletter soon. In the meantime, please continue to look for the correct information about your student and faculty member classes. We are sure you will find the information you need there. The Web site, www.ursinus.edu, is a great resource for all who are interested in becoming part of the Ursinus community.

Egyptian Students

GAR is to condemn the formation of the student government, the Student Association of the University of the Nile, and the creation of the national Student Union of Egypt. This is to be held in a public meeting on October 5, 1959. The people have the same hopes, and the territory is a part of the Middle East. It cannot be allowed to be divided.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.

Concerning the Arab attitude toward Israel, there are many different views. Before 1967, the Arabs viewed the United States as a friend and ally. After the war, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed, however, when America recognized the Arab states, the views changed.

The Arab attitude toward Israel is as follows. In many places, it is not possible for the Arab states to have any peaceful relations with Israel. Therefore, the Arab states might not have an agreement with Israel. They believe that the Arab states should be united and that they should have a united Arab nation. They believe that the Arab states should have a united Arab nation.

To improve the situation, the Arab states should make efforts to improve their relations with Israel. This could be done by encouraging trade and cultural exchanges between the Arab states and Israel. In addition, the Arab states should also support moderate Arab leaders who are willing to negotiate with Israel.