Mr. Bold's attention, fixed during the conversation on his office desk, was also engaged by the tiny pile of papers therein. Turning, he picked up a small note, and read it out aloud.

"Ah!" exclaimed Mr. Bold, glancing at the note. "It is from Mr. Whittaker, the agent."

"Mr. Whittaker's report," said Mr. Bold, looking up, "was yesterday."

"Mr. Whittaker, in his report," said Mr. Bold, "was of the opinion that the case was not worth entertaining."

Warren, Jan. 18, 1869.—The House of Representatives adjourned sine die, and on the second reading it was agreed to a motion to recommit the bill. It is understood that the Republican members of the Committee on the Judiciary have been instructed to offer a motion to recommit the bill and to ask for a conference with the House. The bill was then taken up and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Horse Music.

NEW YORK.

A new form of horse music has been introduced in this city. The horses are trained to play music on a keyboard, and the sound is transmitted to the ears of the listeners through a system of earphones. The horses are capable of playing a variety of tunes, and the performance is said to be highly entertaining. It is expected that this new form of entertainment will become popular and will attract a large audience.

Newspaper Censorship.

WASHINGTON.

The House of Representatives has refused to pass the bill for the suppression of newspapers. The bill would have required all newspapers to obtain a license from the government before they could be published. The House of Representatives has rejected the bill, and the measure has been referred to the Committee on the Judiciary for further consideration.

Balance of the Ladies.

WASHINGTON.

The Senate has passed a bill in favor of the ladies. Senator Ingalls thought it was time that the ladies were given the right to vote. He said that the Senate should follow the lead of the House of Representatives and pass the bill. The bill was then referred to the Committee on the Judiciary for further consideration.
