S. Kiemel Speaks at Forum On “Jungle Babies”

On Wednesday, November 13, Mr. Bassi Sienmel addressed the Ursinus Forum. Mr. Sienmel, of Summytown, Pa., who gained world-wide fame as a hunter who speared jaguars in South America, visited the Ursinus campus several years ago and was enthusiastically received. This year his subject was “Capturing Jungle Babies.” Last Wednesday night, the campus again enthusiastically welcomed Mr. Sienmel and enjoyed the fascinating, picturesque, and unusual lecture given by the well-known hunter.

After demonstrating the use of the spear for hunting wild animals, Mr. Sienmel recounted several of his adventures fighting wild tigers with the spear. He explained how to use the animal's fear of man to your advantage.

He closed his lecture with films on his travels in South America.
