B. Famous Signs Reds Pro. Baseball Contract

Bears Football, Baseball Star
Icks Cinco Bonus for “About $25,000"

Bob Famous, who has had major league baseball scouts on his trail for six years, has cast his lot with the Cincinnati Reds' organization.

Famous, a former star athlete at Stroudsburg High who has been active in both baseball and football and baseball scouts identified Famous as a possible candidate for a major league contract during the winter meetings. The Cincinnati club has made an offer of $25,000 on May 27. Famous, who has been skimming on the college level for two years, will graduate with his class this month.

The contract is with the Stadila franchise of the Southern Association and the young infielder will report to Albuquerque.

Cindermen Show Improvement Despite Injuries

The 1958 Stakem (3-5) was the first since 1942 and only the third since 1948 to win three meets in one season. The victories, gained in the last half of the season, came against Washington, Mahwahen, and Lebanon Valley, while the losses were suffered at the hands of Haverford, Franklin and Marshall, Swarthmore, Dickinson and Bucknell in a triangular meet.

A big disappointment of the season was the fact that Captain Ken Bugger was unable to continue his perfect record. Ken, who was away from school for the term of 1958-59, had Bob Famous, Jackson Preston, and John Wenzlau for his team. Bob Famous, Jackson Preston, and John Wenzlau were all at their best in Ken's absence and the team was able to maintain a winning record with Bob Famous, Jackson Preston, and John Wenzlau for their team. In the final meet of the season, Bob Famous, Jackson Preston, and John Wenzlau were all at their best in Ken's absence and the team was able to maintain a winning record with Bob Famous, Jackson Preston, and John Wenzlau for their team.
