10-15-1956

The Ursinus Weekly, October 15, 1956

Lawrence C. Foard
Ursinus College

Joseph W. Atkins Jr.
Ursinus College

Barbara Althouse
Ursinus College

Ismar Schorsch
Ursinus College

Philip Sterling Rowe
Ursinus College

See next page for additional authors

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly

Part of the Cultural History Commons, Higher Education Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
Foard, Lawrence C.; Atkins, Joseph W. Jr.; Althouse, Barbara; Schorsch, Ismar; Rowe, Philip Sterling; Matusow, Allen; and MacGregor, Bruce, “The Ursinus Weekly, October 15, 1956” (1956). Ursinus Weekly Newspaper. 412.
https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly/412
On store, conducting another ping-

Campus Campaign

Editorial

Reading and Responsibility

It is not uncommon in certain circles to hear the suggestion that the nation is not in serious danger because the nation is not in a war. This is a false idea that must be rejected. The situation in the Middle East is serious and requires serious attention from all citizens. We must not allow ourselves to be lulled into a false sense of security.

The nation is at risk, and we must take action to ensure its safety.

The Direction of Emphasis

We must focus on education and development to ensure the continued growth of our nation. This is the key to our success and prosperity.

N E E D  M O N E Y ?

C O L L E G E  M E N

The work you do today will influence the world you live in tomorrow. Let's work together to make a positive difference.

The Ursinus Weekly

October 15, 1966

Packard Democratic
by Ping Pong Wise
The Elephants, the Donkeys have been at it again this week. It seems that they are unable to agree on anything.

Elections

by R. B. Smith
A political campaign has been under way for some time. The candidates are working hard to win over the voters.

The Campus

by Ted Williams
A student-sponsored election campaign on the Ursinus campus has been underway. The candidates are making their final push to win the vote.

The Editorial Board

The editorial board is calling for a peaceful resolution to the current conflict. We believe that violence is not the answer and that both sides must work together to find a solution.

SPECKS

by Sam Smith
A new speck has been discovered in the sky. This could have implications for our understanding of the universe.

The College Diner

Come join us for a delicious meal at the College Diner. We serve a variety of dishes to满足 your needs.

Coca-Cola

Coca-Cola does something for you, doesn't it?

Collegeville Car Wash & Polishers

De Pont Spay, Clare

The stick of the agglomerates in the area of the college is the key to our success.

THE PHILADELPHIA COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

One Zephyr Drive, Philadelphia, PA 19154

Onwards and upwards!
Bruin Gridders Take First Victory; Trample Wilkes, 20-6

Bears Edged by Drexel as 2nd Half Drive Falls Short

Bear Booters Drop Two to Drexel, M'berg

Arger, Padula and Rohm Spark Ursinus Attack

Belles Bump Over Gettysburg, 6-0

Frank Jones The Complete Sporting Goods Store

Tryin' Made Jockeys of all Glands

Have a Real Cigarette...have a Camel!
Draft

(Continued from page 2.)

1. The Pigskin Promenade, sponsored by Omega Chi Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, in the Union, Thursday, Oct. 6, was a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

You Can Win a Cash Award—and Scholarship Money for Your College in Reader's Digest Contest

There is a contest open to all college students. Faculty, too! Nothing to buy—nothing to write ... and you may find you know more about people than you think!

How well do you know human nature? Can you tell what subjects interest people most? Here is a chance to test your judgment—show how good an editor you are—and you may win $5,000 for yourself, plus $5,000 in scholarship funds for your college.

It's fun to try. Maybe you can top other students in colleges across the country ... and you may catch wits with the editors of Reader's Digest.

Why do more college graduates read Reader's Digest than any other magazine? What is that which makes the Digest the most widely read magazine in the world—with 11 million copies bought each month in the United States, plus 9 million abroad? Why is it read each month by at least 60 million people, in 12 languages—Arabic, Danish, English, Finnish, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Norwegian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish?

Can you spot a typical issue of Reader's Digest the universal human values that link scholars, scientists, writers, historians, editors, and librarians? What is that which makes the Digest so popular with college students?

You may find ... you know more about people than you think!

Here's all you do. Study the descriptions (at the right) of the articles that appear in October Reader's Digest—or, better, read the whole contents page. Then select the six that you think most readers will like best.

EASY RULES FOR ENTRY

1. Read the descriptions in this advertisement of the articles that appear in October Reader's Digest. Or, better, read the whole contents page. Then select the six that you think most readers will like best.

2. On the entry blank at left, write the number of each article you select. List them in what you think is the order of popularity, from your own point of view. Your selections will be judged individually and in groups, so make your grade of popularity as objective as you can. On the line provided return a completed ballot to Reader's Digest, to keep us supreme in the sky.

3. Postmarked on or before October 31, 1956.

4. Only one entry per person.

5. In case of ties, entries postmarked simultaneously will be given preference.

6. No purchase necessary. Contest is open only to college students and faculty members in the United States, including employees of Reader's Digest, its advertising agencies, and their families. It is subject to all federal, state and local laws and regulations.

Dorms-O Chi Hold Fete

The Pigskin Promenade, sponsored by Omega Chi Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, in the Union, Thursday, Oct. 6, was a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

Dr.

(Continued from page 2.)

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.

The Pigskin Promenade started out on a high note in the union, Thursday evening, Oct. 6, with a great success. The table decorations consisted of autumn leaves, pumpkins, corn and gourds. Refreshments included assorted sandwiches, pretzels, and potato chips.