COLLEGE TALK:

Mr. Symons, well known local attorney, attended the "off-the-wall" confer­ ence, "Tea Leaves: Quarterly Review," which was mentioned to one of the local students who he could make a go of his new farm. Pity is eternal.

Mr. Minnich, chairman of the College of Education, has this week received his tenure check from National Headquar­t ers for his slogan "I’m madly in love with the land." As the leading of the boys, Seattle, campus fashion plate, Mr. Minnich is a promon­ tory member of the faculty and can be regularly seen swimming the pool.

Last week the rugged "technology of the automobile" was reported to have modernized a beautiful pale green classic car that has been purchased by the college, in which case it may be assumed that the college is quite behind the race. Although he (under serial) it may have been recorded incorrectly under which circumstances the rules would have listed the third toe of the right foot of Leo, or considering the reversal of form, the left foot. At any rate, it follows that the entire incident was nothing (also ending.

Ursinus Seniors Meet Business Leaders at Dinner

A number of Ursinus seniors attended a reception for the Competitive Enterprise System, Inc. last Monday night, Oct. 22 at a dinner held in the Hearth House.

The "Americans for the Competitiveness Enhancement Act" (ACES) is a non-profit, non-partisan organization which is dedicated to demonstrating the superiority of free enterprise, competition, and open markets over any form of collectivism, socialism, or communism.

Guests at the event included the members of the organization, who represent management, labor, educators, and students. They also took part in a panel discussion moderated by the Executive Director of the Philadelphia branch of ACES. The panel members were: Robert Titus, president of the Syndicate Corporation; James Horner, executive director of Techneval, Inc.; Donald W. Kowal, co-founder of ACES; and John Scofield, president of Sigma Rho Lambda.

Mr. Scofield is business manager of the '57 Ruby, vice-president of the YMCAs, and a member of Sigma Rho Lambda. He has served as the head of the Spokesman Committee and is a co-editor of the 75 Ruby, Vice-President of the ASU, and a member of Beta Chi fraternity. Mr. Scofield is business manager of the 75 Ruby and president of Big Rho.

Four men and six women are on ballot for lord and lady of the senior ball to be held at Sunnybrook Ballroom, Friday, November 23. Winners are announced for lord and lady as follows: Joe Donia, Karl Herwig, and Bonnie Weiler have been nominated for the position of lord. Joan Clement, Connie Cross, and Marge Bruch and Bonnie Weiler have been nominated for the position of lady. The results of the vote will be printed in the daily and the winners will be announced the following week.

Plans for the prom are well underway under chair classes at the meeting held last week. The committee will handle publicity, decisions on entertainment, budget planning, and Dick Weiler will be in charge of programs.

Football Homecoming

Monday at 7:30 pm, the dean of the college, has announced that the homecoming football game will be played against Juniata College. The football game will be played at 7:30 pm, and dinner and worship will also be available.

Twenty-one students were in attendance Wednesday, November 23, at a dinner held in the Alumni House for the election of officers of the Student Government Association. The guests were introduced to the President Ralph Weiler and the Rev. Edward H. Stueve, Dean of Juniata College, who were members of the executive board.

The YWCA also presented a series of programs for the evening, including a talk by Mr. Weiler on "The Americans for the Competitiveness Enhancement Act" and a panel discussion on "The Future of America." The programs were well received by the audience, and the evening was concluded with a reception for the guests.

Last Wednesday the annual intramural football program began. Both the men and women's teams, under the guidance of Mr. W.H. Yost, the head coach, began to press. It took only minutes before the score was tied at 1-1. Ken Grundy had to break through the Middle Atlantic Collegiate League defense to score the first Garnet goal on Marge Dawkins-center Janie Dunn-left halfback, and Alice Irwin. Ursinus scoring: Donnelly Alice Irwin, Lynn Cooper, Mary Dawkins, and Bill Patula. These rewards should suffice for a successful intramural program.

The girls playing for Ursinus also competed in such a notable manner. We will all be routing them on a reverse for a Bruin first down. Late in the second period, with the Bear booters receiving a cross in front of the goal, the Bear booters都能够 break through to score a decisive 5-2 victory. The match opened with the Bears meeting the kick-off. It looked like another bad day at Famous added the point. At this point the Bears led by a 16-0 score. The game was over in the last period, with less than two minutes to go. Walter Turner connected with John Manganite for a 33 yard touchdown pass. The Bears took the extra point. The final score ended with Ursinus in command by a 19-12 lead.

The two teams battled through a soggy, muddy field, second half, both teams reeling on the kicking games but unable to score, serious threat in scoring. One outstanding play did occur, in the first period when Raffie Bongiorno connected with Bob Famus on a reverse for a 28 yard run.

College Library Installs New Lighting System

One of the major improvements at Ursinus during the past year has been the replacement of all the lighting in the reading room in the Ausable Library. The installation was made so that the old system made clear reading of the materials impossible.

Besides the old lights, there are many new, large fluorescent lamps placed in the ceiling. Each lamp is curved to cast a square light onto an old one so that each table receives equal illumination and has plenty of light for reading.

The library, under the head of the college librarian, has made a major improvement in the output of the library's lighting system. The improvements have been made with a special care for students and faculty.

Chemical Society Views

The U.S. Civil Service Commission has just published Federal Career Directory College Students. This publication describes the wide variety of career type positions in government and the qualifications of students might help with their future planning.

According to the officers of the chemical society, the opportunity to work for the government is very promising.

Veterans Certifications Due

According to Mr. J. A. Minch, the veterans' counselor at Ursinus, students at Ursinus should report to the Director of Veterans' Affairs as soon as possible. The certification for the month of October must be completed by the last Thursday of the month. No checks are to be issued.
