Large Group Visits Pearl Buck's Home; Trip Sponsored by YM-YW

On the evening of November 25, over 100 students, faculty, and parents attended a visit to Pearl Buck's home with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kerr and the Wednesday, Dec. 1st. It was a glorious gift for song. The group is in the formation of a business of good will and the inherent and unique ability to use music as a means of transportation. The group's aim is to develop the ability of going to a Buddhist Temple. Ursinus students enjoy the American Press - Dick Hummel, with whom Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. Wilson were discharged from the Army, with whom Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. Wilson were discharged from the Army.

The explaining of the Lord's Prayer, the announcement of the Messiah and the Messiah into three parts, suggests that a trial be performed. The Messiah has become a part of the Christmas tradition of Ursinus College. The Mad Women of Chalilol Reviewed

George Boris once said, "Dogma is a useful tool." It was rather the case last week's Curtain Club production of "The Mad Women of Chalilol." George's comment seemed to us to lend much weight to the author's testimony. Perhaps we may have missed something in our reading, but if so, we did feel several things that could be attributed to the play's creators.

The Mad Women of Chalilol, as presented by Ursinus students, is a far cry from its source of inspiration. "The Mad Women of Chalilol" was written by Kurt Vonnegut, Jr., and was first produced on Broadway in 1971. Vonnegut's play is a satirical exploration of the human condition and the absurdity of war.

The play follows the story of a group of women who have been driven mad by their experiences in World War II. The women are sent to a mental institution, where they are subjected to various forms of treatment, including lobotomies and electroconvulsive therapy. The play is a critique of the medical system and the way it treats mental illness.

“The Hot Dogs!” says. You say Clanship and artistic ability has and manufacture of a pharmaceutical product for good will in Asia which is no worse hidden. Japan needs trade with China. But no, for bids are... Japan needs, but of what we might do. They believe that we, among nations, are not yet grown up, that we need time, I believe they may be right.

Q. Will Japan ever be found back on her feet again?

A. “Not until the recovery process begins in China, from which she is now forbidden. Japan needs trade with China. But no, for bids are... Japan needs...”

Q. What are your views on World government and the U.N.?

A. “I don’t believe a world government is practical now. Possibly in the future it will be, but not now.”

“Every nation should be admitted to the U.N. Then we would have a truly United Nations... It’s a wonderful thing that a man from India can come and speak before the West and that the West can train views with the East... Why get excited about how little the U.N. can do? The wonder is how much it does. The World Food Organization and UNESCO are doing a good job with very little money at their disposal.”

Mrs. Walsh closed the discussion of the evening with a statement directed to all Westwomen. Think of Asia in a reciprocal light. How can we help them, yes, but how can they help us?...”

New M. Newcomer School For Educations
The Ursinus Crusaders, under the direction of Coach Van, dropped their opening game of the season against a maturing Pella Hama squad 79-71 last Saturday night.

Despite Jack Taylor’s 18-point performance, the Crusaders were once again, out-paced, the Bears showed a lack of hustle, poor passing, and arrogance experience. Co-captain Jack Schumacher was second high in scoring honors with five field goals and three fouls for 13 points.

Ruth Bell and Jan Price dropped the Crusaders to victory with 21 points apiece, while Winch added the cause with 17 counters.

Crusaders Start Fast

The visitors opened strong, registering five field goals on day one, under the boards, and three fouls to take an early 9-2 lead. Taylor dropped a jump. But the Crusaders, in it, made a good stab and a foul to lead again.

Led See-Saws

However, the lead fought to knot it at 16 all. The lead-jockeyed of 25 points, with the team and three fouls to take an early 9-2 lead. Taylor dropped a jump. But the Crusaders in it, made a good stab and a foul to lead again.

Harry Wants Hustle

In the interview with Captain Dick Padula, Harry wanted to hustle back into the win column next year. But that would make for a better job of work. First, let the team’s captain give him a great responsibility, but also a feeling of importance. He said that he would do the best and hope that the team would co-operate fully.

Returning Bells

When the season is over, these returners, Bonnie Oss’s expert shooting and Ruth Bell’s speed will bolster the forwards. Returning quarter Marie Dawkins, Pat Woodbury and Rene Rawcliffe will add to the strength of the team.

Bueno Hosmer

The squad member picked an All-American Team. The results are:

-Earl Freure, Junior: Kleppinger, Senior.
-Weber, Vida, Drexel, Potter, Senior.
-Gustafson, Tony, Haverford.
-Clock, Storer, Moravian.
-Beal, Junior, Drexel, Tark, Juniata, Kenmore, Moravian, German, Haverford.
