Politics and Humor Mix At First Ursinus Forum

The first forum of the season was held in Bomberger Chapel on Monday, Oct. 15. This forum took the form of a debate between students from the French and English departments. The topic of the debate was: "Resolved: France has made great progress over the years in the struggle against communism."

Dr. Calvin D. Roberts, advisor to the French Club, presided at the forum. He emphasized the importance of understanding political and cultural differences between nations.

Dr. Garrett told the audience that his talks with the common man have convinced him of the need for theories to happen in the international situation.

"Political Situation in France." Topic at French Club Meeting

"Political Situation in France" was discussed by John Rosenkrantz, a student member of the French Club at its first meeting of the year. He presented an overview of the political situation in France, focusing on the recent elections and the role of the new government.

MSGA Holds Open Meeting

The first open MSGA meeting, held Oct. 11, could be termed only a qualified success. Although 103 students attended, only 57 of these were members of the organization. The meeting was dominated by the regular business meeting, followed by a discussion of the referenda vote.

Newly elected MSGA president, N. R. Woods, told the assembled members that his main goal for the year was to improve the organization's visibility and to increase student participation. He also announced that the upcoming MSGA events would be held at 8:00 p.m. every two weeks.

The next article in the series will be published in the Ursinus Weekly on Tuesday, Oct. 12. The article will be written by a student who is participating in the rush process.

How I See It...
by George W. Paff '55

CHEERS FOR THE SUBSTUTUTES! Have you ever watched the players on the bench? You have probably seen the coach, at one time or another, call out a name and as you watched, a player jumped to his feet and rushed into the game. A few minutes later, his message delivered, he returned to the bench. These are the boys who ride the bench; the ones who aren't quite good enough to make the varsity, but sometimes their services are more valuable than those performed by the varsity.

How many times have you watched a substitute halfback score a winning touchdown? How many times have you seen a substitute forward score a winning field goal in the last few seconds? Granted there are a few such instances but these are a few in number. The substitute rarely gets a chance to play a minus role in a game. They are a life of hard work with little glory. Their practice is rarely required by the coach. Their only chance is to prove with little or no warm-up, therefore risking the possibility of serious injury. One mistake on their part brings the wrath of both the varsity and the coach down upon them. Yet they keep trying, hoping for that one big chance.

Lantern Adds 13 Members

The primary objective of the office of the Lantern for the academic year 1954-55 will be to stimulate interest. During the college year 1953-54, intellectual and moral progress was made by this, the college's literary publication in the Atlantic States. Its merit depends upon your recognition and support of the editorial staff and General Managers. Charter amendment adopted, re-registration of the 1953-54 officers, urged to become general members.

To the new Associate Editors: Mildred Mistovich '55, Tommy Thompson '56, Larry Fuord '57, Ben Weinberg '57, Peter Canarino '56, Rosemarie Pulso '56, Adele Schoenmacher '56, and Henry Berman '58. The new general staff members are Fred Norton '57, Christian de la Roche '55, Art Mucklow '58, Janet Goldberg '57, and Margaret Shaba '58.

The business staff has not had any additions as yet. But Bill Hoot '55 is the head of the department. Anyone interested in membership on this staff and the office of Business Manager for the 1954-55 year is urged to contact the Editor-in-Chief.

It is not an easy job to select the right people for the right jobs. Those who have been chosen express interest in creative writing, all demands on us in the judgment of creative writing. Membership on the general staff is open to those interested, and posts can be applied for during the whole academic year.

The hope of the Lantern staff is the production of a really outstanding magazine. Therefore, if you have writing talent now is the time to enter our group. All contributions for the Fall, 1954, issue must be submitted by October 29 and placed in the Lantern box in the library or handed to a member of the Lantern staff.

ABSTRACTLY SPEAKING
by David Garlich '55

This is obliquely a column. Don't misunderstand me. It's not about your reaction. It's not about your reaction. It's not about your reaction. If you don't like it it won't happen. But this is abstraction - taking the right hand to the subject matter at hand. Left or right: as you prefer. This is an honest attempt (honesty being a virtue) to bring in a little more to our magazine. The goal is to bring about a little more to our magazine. The goal is to bring about a little more to our magazine. The goal is to bring about a little more to our magazine. There is no plan. There is no plan. There is no plan.

No. 1: Are you interested or are you not interested? Those who are not interested can be herded into a psychology class or into the office of the Lantern. Those who are interested can be herded into a psychology class or into the office of the Lantern. Those who are interested can be herded into a psychology class or into the office of the Lantern.

Belles Blank Garnet by 3-0

The Belles evaded up their season's record at one win and one out. The host Tartans fell Tuesday by defeating Swarthmore 3-0 at Swarthmore College. Due to the intense heat, the halves were shortened to twenty minute periods.

The first goal of the game wasn’t scored until near the end of the first half when the Belles pushed a beautiful shot into the goal. Martha Davenport, center forward, was in the second goal after an intense struggle over the public address system was to the advantage of the Belles. Her extra point attempt was low, and Ursinus took 0-6.

Weekly Sponsors Music Poll

During the coming week the Ursinus Weekly will conduct a poll to determine the five-star athletes. Daily announcees over the public address system are to be in favor of the Belles. Poll and tabulation are to be in the hands of the same passing attack. Ursinus lost its second goal on a penalty kick in the half. Dick had a strong first half and was in the second goal. Curtiss’ title was a consistent one. The first star of the series, Curtiss, was chosen Star of the Week. The story of the week centered around the forward play of the Belles. Curtiss, a popular student, had an outstanding week, taking all the honors for the Belles. His extra point attempt was low, and Ursinus took 0-6.

In the second game, the Belles were able to get ahead of the Swarthmore Bears in the first goal. Curtiss, a popular student, had an outstanding week, taking all the honors for the Belles. His extra point attempt was low, and Ursinus took 0-6.

Walker’s Spectacular 82-yard Return Highlights Bears’ Second Victory

by Ted Sholl ’56

Ursinus’ once-beaten Bears fell all in the second goal of the season on Saturday, with a 12-0 conquest of Haverford at the latter’s Walden Field.

Although the score was not especially impressive, the Fords were forced to relinquish all their yardage in the second game. Haverford, which was playing consistently better, allowed the Ursinus front and rear to dominate the game. The Bears were forced to punt, and walked their offense in the second game. The Fords were forced to punt again. The Bears’ lead was 0-3, and Curtis added another point on a penalty kick in the second goal. Curtiss Captures Title

Supply Store Reveals Policy
by Ann Wrege '56
One of the liveliest and busiest places on the Ursinus campus, most people would agree, is the Ursinus College supply store. Situated at the "entrance of the Campus," the store is popular with both students and faculty. The store, now under the new management of Mr. William K. Friedeborn '53, welcomes the Class of '56 to Ursinus. As in previous years the store's policy is to serve administration, faculty and students cheerfully and to operate on a basis whereby it can sell goods at prices as reasonable as possible.

The year's innovations have been added. Each week the store will advertise a Supply Store special in the Weekly—some article which will sell at a special price for that week. The store will try to include articles in these specials which are especially popular with the students.

The faculty will be especially interested in knowing that the store this year is trying to maintain a low-cost policy. Therefore all new books not sold will be returned to the publishers.

The store's hours for this semester are:
5:30-11:30 a.m., Mon. thru Fri.;
12:30-4:00 p.m., Mon. thru Fri.;
5:00-7:00 p.m., Mon. thru Thu.
No evening hours.

B. A. Admission Tests
Candidates from our Class or other institutions are invited to take the Admissions Test for Graduate Study in Business. Since many business schools select their entering classes in the spring preceding their entrance, candidates for admission to the 1955 classes are advised to offer the February test, if possible. Applications and fees must be filed with the Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business, Educational Testing Service, 25 Nassau Street, Princeton, New Jersey, at least two weeks before the testing date desired in order to allow the necessary testing arrangements to be completed.
