Oliver St John Gogarty, the greatest living Irish poet and foremost modern poet of the English-speaking world, will visit Ursinus on Sunday, December 6. As a part of the day he will spend in the English Office where students and faculty will have the opportunity and the privilege to study, to talk, to eat. In the evening, at 8:30 p.m., in Hagerman Hall, he will give a talk and reading from his works in the presence of students, friends, the faculty and other guests. There will be no tickets or cards of admission required—no restricted places. Miss Gogarty is also an eminent oculist, physicion and surgeon. Her specialty is the eye, and she is one of the few Irish Free State. Once he was the eye of the Irish Free State, and carried off to a deserted house on the banks of the River Liffey. He captors, supponed that he had captured his captors amid a hail of revolver bullets, plunged into the icy water, and was saved. He was saved and thereupon was able to give a talk and a reading from his works in the presence of students, friends, the faculty and other guests. There will be no tickets or cards of admission required—no restricted places.

Behind the Sport Scenes

by Dick Bowman '55

Chapin Against Juniata Walker averaged 4.4 yards per carry and showed efficiency at half-back, although he was hampered by a leg injury and a bad cold. Hoyt, my personal choice as the best lineman on the team, has been aptly described as "the only guy that could qualify for Lineman of the Year without getting Lineman of the Week." This is how steady and sure the Reading bulwark plays offensively and defensively.

Belles Belan Penn

Rockville, the Belles vastly downed Penn 2-0 and tied Deer-3-2, while the Jaycettes edged the Red and Blue juniors 1-0 and amassed the Chestnut Hill varsity 4-1. The DC third team tied the Chestnut Hill gals' junior varsity 1-1.

Bakemans Trip F & M

On the other hand, the Bakemans climaxed their best season in years by buzzing the Franklin and Marshall Diplomats 5-1 Friday and the Drexel Dragons 3-2 Tuesday. Against F & M Larry Zartman and Ed Dawson showed scoring form; in the Drexel game Zartman notched two goals while Dawks dominated one corner. An election held by the 1956 soccer seniors named LARRY ZARTMAN Most Valuable Player and WAYNE ENGLE and CHARLIE PRICECO co-captains for the 1956 season.

Walker, Hoyt, Stars of the Week

Due to a shortage of space this week, the column "Behind the Sport Scenes" is being used as a grab-bag for all sports events. This week there will be no Stars of the Week column, but recommendations go to Back of the Week KEN WALKER and Linebeam of the Week DICK HOYDT. Kenny, team captain and star backfield has come within an eyelash of getting the nod on several occasions, and the same goes for sophomore guard Dick Hoyt. Therefore, we of the sports committee have decided to bestow the honor this week on these consistent and hard-plugging ball players, despite other noteworthy performances by John Conti and Nick Moran.
