The Final Challenge

When the scholastic year was on the horizon, the news appeared on bulletin boards around campus, a strange nervous disorder grasped students. The thought of finals was the order of the day; the possibility of the final, the fear of the final, the lull before the storm, the storm itself, the lull after the storm, the storm of the storm. The average of eighty-two is included in the List.

Now finals are a must. We are sure that more people would be interested in school work if it were based on quizzes, surprise tests, classroom work, and the like, than if the marks were based on the above and final exams.

Anyway the problem is looked at, finals are here to stay; so they must be used. Whichever way you look at finals, the exams must be passed and passed with as high a mark as possible. Final exams are not merely given to try to cause the student undue consternation. Passed and passed with as high a mark as possible. Final exams are given to try to determine the student's scholarly ability. Passed and passed with as high a mark as possible.

Finals are a thing which must be met, engaged, and beaten. TheFinal Challenge is one of the things that the student must do to get an A.

A More Inclusive Dean's List

Within a month from the date of this issue, the Dean's office will release the list of students who have fulfilled the qualifications which place them on the Urinsinus equivalent of an honor roll. This honor role is a list which sets the standards of honor roll requirements.

The majority of those included in the list will deserve their position but not merely give to try to cause the student undue consternation. Passed and passed with as high a mark as possible. With its toughest opponent in the board, the Ursinus wrestling team is starting to pick up speed as shown by its completely mortifying 26-7 crucifixion of a supposedly respectable Haverford team Saturday. This contest was expected to be close; I was talking to Haverford's captain Jack Broitbeck (the only Fordian victorious) before the match, and while not expecting a run-away victory for his team, I think the blind heavyweight sincerely expected a close and hard-fought battle. After the meet Broitbeck was completely bewildered.

Ford's Captain Confident

Although he had little hope for defeats against Dawkins and Padula he was confident that he could have kept up until the whistleblowing he gave the 190-pound Padula last year, thought that the 175-pound Cohlill might even put newcomer Don Knauf away early, and was sure that veteran Mandl was little trouble showing. His right to a brighter light. What happened in history has continued to burnish the names of Sangree, 7-1, Knauf, in the thick of the action.

Grizzlies Down Fords in 26-7 Mat Rout

by Dick Bowman '55

Stirring from the humiliation of six straight bouts against the经营管理队, six straight bouts brought the Bruin's 26-7 crucifixion of the celling well-fed Bear. The Bears opened their campaign against Lafayette with a 26-7 victory over co-captain Padula. Dick Foldish, 137, displayed the ceiling structure to a header of 218, while Don Knauf, wrestling the second boat of his career threw the capacity crowd into a frenzy when he dropped over 137-pound challenger Don Cohlill in 2:18. Ford heavyweight Jack Broitbeck placed George Aucoin in 1:38. Bears Rew. Against Lafayette, the Bears overwhelmed and the Panthers cracked, won handily 23-1. Enthusiasm and the CU lightweight made a strong showing in the drive in the 139, 170 and 187 pound weight classes. Don Knauf and Padula decided to give the weight to the localhost. Fifty-pounder English would win after that, three falling into pinning combinations.

Grizzlies Overpowered by Fords, Dragons, Blue Hens

by Ralph Schumacher '55

As the buzzer sounded for the end of the first half a Fords' player heaved a shot from the half court mark to the ball bounded high off the back run, rose almost to the roof, and then needed the help of a few others to get the ball in the net. This left the Bears behind 11 points. The locals were ahead 11-0. The locals cagers played beautifully for the first half of the Delaware battle but fell apart to blow a game that could have been brought the Bruin's -basketball for the season.

Winston: Like a Cigarette Should!

The filter cigarette that really tastes like a cigarette!

No wonder Winston's so popular with college smokers! It's got real flavor—full, rich, and tasty! You'll really enjoy it. Winston filters work so effectively, yet doesn't "thirst" the taste or flatten the flavor. Easy, too—that's why you'll like it and enjoy it. That's why millions of people say that Winston tastes good—like a cigarette should!

Winston tastes good.

How I See It . . .

IS CRAMMING NECESSARY?

Now that the semester’s end is at hand, an exaggerated period of approximately nine days begins. This is the time when Ursinus professors dredge their brains for questions which the students will swear were never covered in class. Yet, the professors mark their incorrect answers accordingly and noted that frequent tests would be given and they are.

On the other hand, we find certain courses in which tests are given nearly every week and then followed by a final at the end of the semester. Students are inclined to protest that this is just a great deal less fast learning is not conducive to lasting memory. Several weeks after final exams, few students remember what material they had studied for their finals, while those who were subjected to frequent tests throughout the semester have little difficulty in remembering the material studied. It seems that the best plan seems to be frequent tests during the semester even though it may mean a little more work on the students’ part. It might be noted that frequent tests would also make studying for finals a great deal less difficult.
