Frosh and Sophs Now on Dean's List

The Dean has announced that the faculty at its meeting on April 18, voted to extend the Dean's List to include one or more frosh and sophomores in order to give recognition to pupils who trace over the title of one or two pages, or who are otherwise distinguished for their industriousness. The majority of his notes are the work of the students who have distinguished themselves in the various classes, and who are in the top quartile of their class.

If You Can’t—Don’t

We are approaching the busiest season of our student life, and it is in this season that we see the true colors of our fraternity. The members of the fraternity are those who are most active in the various activities and who are the first to volunteer their services. They are usually the ones who are the first to volunteer to do the dirty work, and they are usually the ones who are the first to volunteer to do the dirty work. They are usually the ones who are the first to volunteer to do the dirty work.

When our abilities are spread out among so many different activities, it is easy to see why we should cultivate a spirit of cooperation. When we are able to work together, we are able to do our best, and we are able to create an atmosphere of cooperation that is rich in spirit and wealth. Even in the cocoon hour to improve their talents.

With the help of the lecturer, we are able to develop a real enthusiasm for the subject, and we are able to develop a real enthusiasm for the subject, and we are able to develop a real enthusiasm for the subject, and we are able to develop a real enthusiasm for the subject, and we are able to develop a real enthusiasm for the subject.

Lecture Notes

Did you ever stop to think of the different types of notes that people have in this world? Here are a few that you can see in the ledger halls of good U.C.

First there are the lookers who align to every word the lecturer utters. They enter the room, grab a board, and begin to take notes in order to be tested. Then Phil How, chairman of the fund, has found that the lecture notes are the only thing that matters. Then the little penguins are the only thing that matters.

There are the note takers who trace over the title of one or two pages and look for a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial, a financial.

You won’t have to look far, maybe as far as your own paper.

THE SUNISRU SWEEPSTAKES

Better known as The Termpaper Derby

By Ismar Schorsch 77

Civilization had indeed progressed, far beyond perfection for which many dreamed of the year 2055. Just thinking about the impossibilities in which man proved a much more advancement for the human race than any other event of great significance occurred in that year. The invention of life unassailable advances had been the development of horse-racing. This sport of Kings had originated in the second century, but its roots are traceable to the two-dollar window and the college dormitory, a fabulously, exciting wonder that attracted masses of the college world.

The most famous of all the annual races was the Sunisru Sweepstakes, now the second most popular Sweepstakes at Illivillaggio. The Great Sweepstakes started on a bet that in 1492 Columbus would sail to the New World. This was a race that had held universal interest, and with all certainty would continue to grow. It was not a race in which one could be sure of winning against another, but one in which all thoroughbreds ran against the same horse, the imitable king of the Termpaper Derby.

Priority to the great event was secured by line up at the starting gate. This was once because over the years the breed had considerably changed. As the expert spectators examined the track they saw a white-robed horse, book-true History, the test-tube institute of International Education, turned thoroughbreds pawing the loose soil at their gates. They had been divided into their respective classes to await the start.

Within a few moments the jockeys, better known in racing circles as the Driving Profes, strode to the posts and started the field. Having examined the quality of the horses, the jockeys proceeded to course. Then, with the dazed time in which each class had been finished to the treatment of gunpowder, the competition, and the appropriately, feared.

As the thoroughbreds heard the announcements, a moan fell among them, for they knew what would be their fate. Within the allotted Time they had to overcome six percent obstacles to win the silver finish line successfully. Sente­d to the various kinds of spots along the grass box like traps as an ambush. In addition, the other works, last-minute rush, spring fever, and opposite sexes. All took their toll each year of the deterioration of many had fallen at early on. This was either a huge pile of a deep well-covered chasm! How would the foot concerning the performance of the footnotes and the beating of the speeding, churning thorough­breds, prevented. After they were finished, they carefully checked the footnotes of those who had finished before or with the hated villain.

Then considering the excellence of the footnotes and the beating of Time, the judges awarded to the best score. Of the year 2055. The prize money would be distributed to students who had contributed to the greatest good. If the time ran out, the race would have been cancelled.

After the race had begun, the Driving Profes strode through the Sweepstakes Track taking notes on foot concerning the performance of the speeding, churning thorough­breds. After time was up, the footnotes were finished. As the footnotes and the beating of the speeding, churning thorough­breds, prevented. When the violin at the board room of the school rang, the president entered. He was followed by the professors. Then, looking at the board, he said, "The President of the Sunisru Sweepstakes has asked us to announce the winner of the contest." Then, the president continued, "The winner of the Sunisru Sweepstakes is...

Single by Wins Hires First
For Bears, 3-2, Behind Slotter

by Jack Townsend '57

Gene Hires' tenth inning single was the key that unlocked the door to the victory over Ursinus. Gene crossed the plate on Dick Hause's sacrifice fly, giving the Bears a 3-2 lead. Slotter, on the other hand, was unable to hold the lead, and the Bears went on to win 3-2.

Bears Score Early

The Bears scored three runs in the second inning when Gene Hires drove in two runs. Hires smashed a double to center, scoring Dick Hause and Dick Ward. Slotter gave up a walk and a single to start the inning, but managed to recover and get three outs.

Student-Faculty Show Success; Campus Chest Raises $1175

The 1955 edition of the Student-Faculty Show was a success, raising a total of $1175 at the T-G Gym Friday evening. The show was sponsored by the Campus Chest Committee to raise funds for the 1955 annual Spring trip to Europe. Of the $1175 raised, the receipts from the venture bring the total fund to $1175.

Jim Bowers, who for the past year has been the organizer of ceremonies, was the student director of the show and was assisted by the faculty M.C.

The Ford brought the house down by auctioning in his initiation fraternity, Alpha Phi Chapter, Anthropology. The high bidder in the jacket (slightly moth eaten), Swedish flag by Economics 3, 4, and a strong's piad to be a Pettit handkerchief, were to be given away at the Ford's desk each year. A quart of milk from Symons' farm, and Ace Bailey's red bathrobe bearing "Ursinus" in black lettering, plus a sheaf of about one week old, netted $75.

The faculty's contribution to the motto of the evening was featured in Wilson's ring of French songs. Dr. Waverly might have been "Miss Five Plus," that fine musical order he founded. Wilson, Stagner, Wagner, Orren, Jones, Wilson, Coburn, and Bell Dillin gave out with whopping renditions. It was a "Jaws" that gave the most outstanding performance of the evening, the award would undoubtedly go to the Reverend Craig's rendition of the typewriter song, nothing short enough.

Each faculty year gave the faculty a dramatic presentation—this year, Stupid Textbooks, Inc. met the "Bomberger Hall Milords." Dr. Vest narrated. Mr. Parsons was the murderess, and Orren, Wilson, Stagner, Wagner and Jones played the terremites.

Bill Pull's comic furnished selections of lost development jazz, and student vocalists included Bunny Hackenbriick, Betty Gliemme, Bob Ogden, Eileen Conner and Johnny Hoover. Student dormitories were doctored by Bobby Hunt and June Muey, quaint—Les Souvin, Diane, Arne, Jane Davis, Marilyn Wolch, and Eileen Conner, accompanied by Barbara Athishine, and the maie quartet—George Aucott, Tom Kerr, Fred Schoner and Robert Dohmendok. Hal Mings, Raymond Dietdum, and Ed Eddins did instrumental solos.

In the dancing spotlight was the Ursinus chorus line (Robin, Jane, Billie, Marilyn, Carol, Joan, Mary Jo, and Barbi), with Diane Arze and Harvey Levin doing the mambo.

The Campus Chest Committee would like to thank everyone who, in every way, helped in the raising of money for the Special credit hours. There would be $300 for the A.P.E. fraternity for the popularity contest, $300 to Eriee, Phil, Dick, Bill, and Noble for being such good sports in the daily "Cover Traveller," and $300 to the faculty for sponsoring "Masque and".

Barbara Wagner FTA President

FTA officers for next year were elected at the regular meeting on Tuesday, April 12. Those elected were: president, Barbara Wagner; vice-president, Haiid Olafsson; treasurer, Mary Lou Adam; and assistant treasurer, Amy Schick.

Highlighting the meeting was a talk by Miss Anna P. Hess. A Phila- delphia elementary school teacher, who taught in England for a year as a Fulbright exchange teacher. Miss Hess taught in a slim-clean- ing section in Birmingham, Eng- land. Here she taught American history, literature and poetry. She introduced several innovations, such as the first Christmas tree in the school and the first decorated worksheets.

Miss Hess showed the group some of her slides from the British Isles, including the Shakespeare Memorial, May Day in York and World Gardens, and from the countries of France, Holland and Belgium.

Dr. M. Oppenheimer Highlights Temple Medical School

Dr. Morten Oppenheimer, professor of physiology and Dr. Thomas Hinde, assistant dean of the Temple University Medical School addressed the regular meeting of the Brownback-Anders Pre-Medical Society last Monday evening. Dr. Dick Speakey, first emphasized the teaching system at Temple and the importance of a liberal education. He pointed out that it is becoming exceedingly more important for physicians to be well provided in- dividuals, as well as exact scien- tists.

Dr. Oppenheimer spoke briefly on the necessity for gaining a broad scientific education. By illustrating the nature of many of the new technological advances in the medi- cal profession, he showed that without a thorough background in physics, chemistry, and biology the physician will be unable to under- stand the principles of the com- plex machines which he will be forced to operate.

Dr. Wickers, dean of the Albany Medical School, will address the society tonight. He is making a special trip to Albany to speak to the group and all members are urged to be present. All members of the society who plan to attend the dinner-dance on May 7 are requested and required to turn in $8.50 tonight to the treasurer.

ALUMNI WINS FELLOWSHIP

The 1955-56 fellowship will be awarded to Barry A. W. Wallace, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania in 1954. Barry will have the privilege of studying in England as a fellow in English literature at the University of Cambridge.
