Quartets to Hold Program Friday, Nov. 6

On Friday evening, November 6, the Spirit Committee will sponsor a "Friday in Harmony" in the T-G Gymnasium. The program will consist of entertainment by several Mid-Atlantic competition finalists and a male chorus of approximately fifty voices. They are the same group which sang at Ursinus last spring. They were formerly "The Pennsylvanias," the mixed quartet of the Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America at the University of Pennsylvania. The Philadelphia Chapter Chorus will be under the direction of James Moore.

The program will be as follows:

The admission will be fifty cents for students, faculty, and all other employees of the college; outsiders will be charged one dollar. An economy ticket will be used to help pay for the new band uniforms which will be worn for the first time at the F. and M. home game, Saturday, November 21.

The high quality of this program will be on par with barber shop quartet harmonies. It will be heartily enjoyed by people of all ages. The program will open to the public.

Wagner to Speak On Founders' Day

Dr. James Edwin Wagner, President of the Wesley College, will be guest speaker at the Annual Founder's Day at Ursinus. The program will be held Tuesday afternoon, November 10, at 3:00. The former members of the Philadelphia Alumni will be guests at the event.

Degrees will be awarded to the fall graduates of 1957. More than 100 seniors have completed their requirements for completion of their degrees. These seniors are: Jason McAdoo, Robert C. Marlow, Joan D. Marlow, and Jennifer Soper.

The other colleges present were: Franklin and Marshall, Millersville State, and Swarthmore.

BLOOD MOBILE WILL BE AT URNISUS, Nov. 3

Your blood is needed! The Red Cross needs at least 250 units of blood this fall to fill their inventory in Collegeville Tuesday, November 3. At this time, all donors are needed and fraternalists and sorority members are urged to sign up for the blood drive. Other student is urged to support this drive. Only 500 units of blood can be collected this year. Let's make this year a big success, and let's make sure that we have enough for the people who are over 18 voluntary to be a blood donor. Let's support our friends and family and his parents or guardians written consent.

If you have not yet signed up to give blood, see Eugene Eleazer or Bill hutlin before it is too late. Don't forget this Tuesday at Trin­

RUSHING CAN BE IMPROVED

Each semester the sorority rush week brings a period of great excitement among the girls on campus. With the exception of a few independent-minded ones, all are either hoping for a certain bid or are intent upon getting certain girls into their sorority. It is a period of intense friendship toward those the sorority is bidding and, occasionally, of severe or exaggerated condemnation of other sororities.

We are aware of the fact that there are always those who are not satisfied or whose feelings have been hurt in some way during the rush week. We might have accepted a bid only because the sorority of their choice did not bid them. Many may not have received bids at all. This is the greatest pitfall that rushers may fall into by their proportion among us that they are entitled to a certain level of culture at Ursinus. These students, we would like to point out, are not the all-powerful organization that rule campus affairs at some schools. But in many cases, most girls do look forward to becoming a member of one of our courts.

The ruling which was up for discussion before the Inter-Sorority Council last Thursday was an attempt to prevent the use of the phone by our rushers to secure the names of the other fraternity students on campus. It was a meeting of time of contention among the women teams on campus. But this spirit, like anything else, has a price tag on it.

Infuriation has raised the price of things. Every item, every event, every news story, even the-toothpaste is raising the price of something. Much more than it cost you to be here this semester. Here is an itemized expense account:

Band Uniforms .................. $500
New Flannel Jacket .............. 135
Crepe Paper ...................... 25
Crayons ................................
Poster board ..................... 50
Tissue paper for small items in numerous lists, such as tags, carry bags, gum, etc. (also at a price)
Where does this money come from?

It comes from your sorority activities, for go to dances, buy pep tags, and other similar activities.

You must be getting your money worth or you won't continue to help out. There will be just one more rush week in the fall term, so this time you will definitely re- ceive your money's worth. It's too bad that one last way is by comparison. It's just too bad that you have to be here this money Friday night in the gym. Every cent will help.

Thinking Out Loud

by Bob Armstrong '54

"NEEDED" ... CASH!

Yes, we really have campus spirt. It's a capital one, and we can work our way through. We can stick our chest out when the university students ask us what it's like to be East. Not only do we have spirt, but we have whoopee and we have whoopee. We have teams on campus. But this spirit, like anything else, has a price tag on it.

The phenomenon of the Umbrella Man dates from the time when we want to see a film. It's strange how the gleaming eyes of happy children have the power to infect those around them with the very same gleam.

Junior Preceptress Tells Woes and Worries of Job

"Five girls—five freshmenn girls," I thought. No matter how much job they arrived I said a glowering prayer in hopes of getting really big. The big day arrived, when all surprise was over. It would be the most mixed up day, but after ushering out teary parents and averting them that the girls would be Ursinus and be well taken care the world. I surveyed my charges. I found (or rather I thought) that I had really hit the jackpot. I had five good-looking, sweet, intelligent girls. I knew they were right, and wouldn't take advantage of a good thing.

Those thoughts were the ones which I had six long ago. There is never a dull minute at Berk's. We have lots of talent here from phonem poets to opera stars.

One bright cheery morning at 6:30 o'clock, I walked into the bathroom, looked into the mirror and found a poem staring me. The poem was meant for the general girl being that their preceptresses is mean. One evening, I presented them with a song telling me to "Love thy neighbor, down Bob." Then, there are times when they try to get away with murder, but usually occur when I'm studying. "Bub's, we can do it. We just made up our minds. We can beat you. We just made us. Hope you like it. Come on Jan." I stand sturdy and staunch singing, "Mom, bum bum...over and over again, while Nuns are doing a Hawaiian melody with all the muscle.

Stadler, Dawkins Score as Belles Top Swarthmore 4-1

Typical hockey weather certainly wasn't available Tuesday when Swarthmore played Swarthmore. However, the varsity played excellent hockey in subzero temperatures.

The Ursinus junior varsity hockey team met their third test of the season Tuesday when they defeated Swarthmore, 1-0. The Belles now have a record of two wins and one defeat.

The first half of the contest between these two evenly matched teams ended with no score for either side and with both teams playing a wide open game. There was a great deal of cross-ice play, but neither team had trouble getting the puck through the Belles' first line. Taking the ball up the field, she lost her stick and recovered it in time to keep possession of the ball.

Stadler Scores
Phyl's first goal did not come because of a rule infraction which had occurred previous to her shot. However, she quickly tried another stick and scored a nifty defensive goal. After many saves by the goalie, the boys came in the rain as fast as it had started. The Ursinus lineup consisted of Captain Mario Merrifield, left wing, Phyl Blatter, right wing, Mel Aden, center, and Bob Lang, right back.

Ursinus College won its fourth game in five starts this season by defeating a very stubborn and determined Wagner team 14-6, before an overseeing Homecoming Day crowd of about 4000 people. In winning, the Herrin handed Wagner its first home game

At the beginning of the second
