Thinking Out Loud
by Bob Heszenberg '74

NO CHRISTMAS SPIRIT?
Just what is Christmas? Are you going to be one of the many who, even Christ out of Christmas again this year? Christmas is the birthday of Jesus Christ. The most common way in which he is set out of the picture is by those lazy and thoughtless people who write "X-mas" instead of Christmas. For the actual reason, name the name of Christ and replace it with an X. Read the following couplet and see if you dare, and see if the point is not very clear.

Pretend that today is your earthly father's birthday. If this morning you had and "Happy Birthday, Dad!" what do you think he would have thought? When you happy birthday to him today, will you say "X instead of his name? Of course you wouldn't. If you kept this up all through his birthday, don't you think he would look a little strange and at the same time, when it comes to give him his present, he wouldn't be too quick to open it to our friends and give him an X instead of his name? If he's a man, he won't be too quick to open it to our friends and give him an X instead of his name.

If calling your earthly father X is wrong, then can we reason that it is pleasing to do the same thing to Jesus and look on your earthly father's birthday as just another Xmas day also shouldn't we give all the gifts around Christmas? This seems odd to us, doesn't it?

Come on down town and try all a little more to remember what Christmas is all about. If you can't do that, I'll throw all the rest of the Xmas business out of the window and just have the Xmas's that have already been made. And so, at this time, the New Year's resolutions that have already been made. The practice teachers celebrated the completion of all the work for this year. Since this column did not appear in last week's paper, we are to take this opportunity to congratulate the cast of "A Christmas Carol" that is to be presented next weekend. Barbs and Bouquets by Charles Kenny '55 and Marvin Rotman '54

There are always expenses that are incurred during the college year which are presented reasonably and are paid without question. On December 1, there was a notice posted in the dormitory rooms and on the bulletin board of the supply store. On it was stated that all payments on books should be made before December 16, with a penalty of five cents per day, if it was not paid. In preceding years the bills had been sent home and the people financing the student's education set the remittance in the month of December. This year the books have not been sent home and no notification was given to the students.

Perhaps, it would be still possible to pay the bills with only two weeks notice, but if a month is given it would be also the time of purchasing Christmas gifts, which always amounts to a considerable expense. Therefore, some revision of this policy was needed.

After conferring with a responsible party, we have attained the following compromise: The payments on book bills will be postponed to the week after Christmas vacation without any penalty. We believe that this is a more reasonable arrangement. Circumstances beyond the control of the persons managing the supply store, made earlier notification impossible.

The Christmas time is a happy one. Enjoy its full beauty we must be in the proper frame of mind. Bitterness should be replaced by joy, while all things of its will stand aside for the finer qualities of Christmas spirit. And so, at this time, the New Year's resolution is employed to help give way to the Christmas com- patibility. We would like to add our share to the long list of new resolutions that have already been made.

We hereby resolve to forgive those professors who cover the last half of the text book in the last week of school.

We further resolve to refrain from working in those faculty offices when the supply store is closed.

We hereby resolve to make a firm effort to keep away in chapel.

We hereby resolve to end the weekly writing of "Barbs and Bouquets," Bob Heszenberg will not forgive the Editor for all our articles that旃re published.

We resolve to forgive those professors who continue to give us work that is due the last week of school. We hereby resolve to refrain from bitterness when the text book is changed in a course that our roommate has had last year.

We resolve to say nothing but gratitude toward those professors who delight in the presentation of unassuaged exams.

The First Ursinus Christmas "Fun in a Magical Snowfall"

Not very many people know about this Christmas story, but now it shall be told. Once, long ago, when Ursinus was in his great snowstorm, blanketed the town of Collegeville. It was an ordinary snowfall, it was, indicated by the grumpy fog. One who could go in or out of the little town, yet, the people could come about as they pleased within the town’s limits.

At first all the students on campus were miserable. Christmas vacation was only three days away; coming finals. Those惡 monsters were fearsome, as they iced over every inch of the campus. Everyone had made great plans for those two idyllic weeks. But, most important of all, not getting home meant not having an opportunity to study for the coming finals. It was really horrid, how they would pass. The students finally realized their destiny—the next weeks would be horrid.

So came the climax to this winter's fantasy ... the Dean announced a $500 grant for the vacationers from Pennsylvania Announces free winter vacations for the coming year 1954-55. Those eligible were men and women who would bear the degree of bachelor of arts and master of arts. While attending the University of Pennsylvania, Dr. Rice was elected Captain of the Lacrosse Team in 1934 and also became a member of Phi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

World War II interrupted the life of Dr. Rice, and he served for five years with the Army in the European theater where he saw action in North Africa, France, Belgium, Holland and Germany with the Second Armored Division. While in the Army he attained the rank of Captain.

After the war, Mr. Dolman served as Assistant Dean of Admissions at Penn during the summer, and later served as Assistant Registrar. He was succeeded as Assistant Registrar by Mr. William Peltz, who took place in the Dean’s Office. Consequently, there were still two important changes in the Office of the Registrar. Mr. Geoffrey Dolman will move from the post of Assistant Registrar to that of Secretary, and Dr. Allan Lake Rice will become Assistant Registrar.

Dr. Rice has been a familiar figure on the Ursinus scene as an Assistant Professor of English since September, 1949. The designated Registrar was born and raised in Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, and also attended the University of Pennsylvania from which he received the degrees of bachelor of arts and master of arts. Phyl Stadler Is Hockey Captain Phyl Stadler, a sophomore physical education major from Fall Haven, New Jersey, will captain the 1954 hockey team after opening its season next year.

Phyl, who rose to an important position after opening the season as a left-22 inner for the Jayvies, did not play hockey last year because she had broken her leg playing softball. Instead she managed the team.

With several of the mainstays of the forward line lost through graduation, Coach Eleanor Fones brought the speedy inner up to the varsity. There she proved herself with a fine ball-control and scoring power.

An all-around athlete, Phyl is now a second string forward on the basketball team, and when she was a freshman, gained the first base- man on the softball team. She also played javyee tennis.

Sports are her hobby, too. Horseback riding and golf rate high, and in the summer she enjoys boating along the New Jersey shore.

Phyl was graduated from Linden Hall Preparatory School. Here she is secretary-treasurer of the Women's Athletic Association, and is a member of Tau Sigma Gamma sorority.

is the largest-selling cigarette in America's colleges for the FIFTH straight year.

Again, in 1953, they've made a survey audit of actual sales in more than 800 co-ops and campus stores from coast to coast. And again, Chesterfield tops 'em all.

Only Chesterfield gives you proof of highest quality — low nicotine. Proof that comes from actual "tobacco tests" in which all six leading brands were chemically analyzed.
