The Pre-Legay Honors Speakers, Accept Three New Members

The Pre-Legal Honors Society held their monthly meeting last Wednesday at the home of Dr. Donald L. Headley. The guest speaker of the evening was Mr. Cranford, a practicing lawyer in Philadelphia. Mr. Cranford spoke on the development of the law of labor law, and the present day.

At the meeting Dave Hoyer, Tom Kerr and Dave Garlich were accepted as new members.

What lies ahead for the British Commonwealth of nations? In our opinion, the most exciting question on any meeting. Lord Edward Winterton, one of the leading British military leaders, is an effective speakers. During the lecture, Tuesday Nov. 25, at 8:15 p.m. in Bomberger Hall.

Prior to his World War I service in the imperial army, Lord Win­erton was an officer of the Oxford Union Society and the Cambridge University Union. In the age of twenty-six, served as a private in the 2nd Battalion, King’s Regiment. In 1945, forty-seven years since this Irish peer held the highest rank in the British army, he was made the most powerful official of the nation. Lord Winterton’s top command included nearly half a century of intense political activity. He felt that this time had come for him to take a place only now that he has been ready to devote more time to his own affairs.

Simpson, an American politician and a member of the Conservative party, was elected leader of the Conservative party in 1957.

On November 8, 1952, Lord Win­erton began a lecture tour of the United States and Canada. The audience find him straight from his trip to the Fourth American Committee and of the British government. Lady Winterton, who died in September 1952. The former first lady of the British government was buried in Ireland.

Lord Winterton is no stranger to American politics. After the 27th general election of the late President Roosevelt, he was invited to Washington in 1938 to attend a special luncheon for the president.

Members of the Y-M-YWCA held a scavenger hunt on Wednesday, December 3, at the St. Francis Hall. The prizes were two large mugs and a set of books. The students found that the Hungarian Irish peer held the longest French bond as a member of the Fourth American Committee and thus assumed the title of President Roosevelt. PLEA TO 60 STUDENTS

As the MSGA pointed out in its meeting this past week, we are less than $60 away from filling the quota of money necessary to start work on the Student union. To be exact, we need only to raise $482.61.

Some have started a petition to donate their breakage fees to the cause which will overwhelmingly make up the difference, but we do not wish to see the young people cry upon us.

Over 68 students in the other seven classes have not yet pledged their breakage fees.

These students have various reasons for not giving up their breakage fees. The ones we’ve heard most often are: “I’m not going to give any money to something I don’t want to give to,” and “The project won’t go through anyway.”

Both of these sentiments seem to us very poor excuses for not giving. How can we know whether or not an idea can succeed unless we put our part to make it succeed? How can we expect others to live up to their promises unless we live up to ours?

We would like to give an open endorsement to this cause. We know that 60 students are already involved, and therefore we surely must have pangs in their consciences and will do it soon. They cannot all be selfish and cynically take no action.

WHAT’S WRONG, MEN?

Money for the Campus union drive is coming in very slowly. The men’s dormitories, particularly, are lagging far behind the expected numbers. The only conclusion which the individual man by personal solicitation is more easily reached is that the men are simply trying to get away from the problems. We do not wish to place any other reasons and that the pledges in the next three days increase.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE

Thursday of this week has been officially set aside as Thanksgiving day. In the foreign minister of Norway

To the Editor:

The food of Ursinus has been a topic of conversation for months. However, most of the re- cent discussion has been rather derogatory, to say the least.

But is it all that bad? I believe not. I have returned, and I for one, feel safe in saying that the food of Ursinus is reputably good, and considering our small cake capital, we can make any kind of pastries, we will have pangs in their consciences and will do it soon. They cannot all be selfish and cynically take no action.

Sincerely,

A Student

To the Students of Ursinus:

I would like to express my sincere appreciation and thanks for the many friends you have made as a result of your student body of Ursinus.

The thoughtfulness you displayed during my stay here will always remain with me.

Sincerely,

Bernie Otn

To the Editor:

We would like to give an open endorsement to the Campus union drive. We believe that the funds which will be raised will go a long way in solving the problems which our students have been facing.

The student body of Ursinus has been asked to contribute $20 per student for the Campus union drive. We believe that this is a small price to pay for the benefits which will be derived from the union.

Sincerely,

Joan Kaye

To the Editor:

A thoughtful Ursinus student sent me a recent copy of the Weeely in which I read with interest an article regarding the “hidden corners” of the campus. In particular, I was interested in the story of the student who was unable to find the chapel, we’d like to see a set-up similar to that at the outset of the project.

Sincerely,

a sophomore

To the Students of Ursinus:

I was pleased to see the way in which the students of Ursinus have been using the Union building for various activities. I was especially impressed by the way in which the students have organized the Union sessions.

Sincerely,

Two Staff Members Enjoy Play Preview

Last Thursday night two members of the Weekly staff attended the performance of Tennessee Williams’ play Summer and Smoke at the Radio City Music Hall in Philadelphia. The play opened on Wednesday night and has been highly praised by critics. According to the New York Times, the play is a “nine-to-ten-pressing run” on Broadway.

The Union member, who is to be permanent home for the students, was extended from wall to wall across the stage, rising in tiers on either side. There was little variation from the theater-on-the-round idea which has been a constant feature in theater productions in the past few years. The production was directed by Jon Christen and stars Betty Miller and Michael Shrieve.

Tickets for Summer and Smoke may be obtained from the box office, Circle-in-the-Square. Academy of Music Theatre. The prices, including tax, are $3.50, $5.00, $7.50, and $10.00. Performances are given every evening, except Tuesday, starting at 9:30 and Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

MURKY FOR THE TURKEY

by William Lnek

Thanksgiving is here to be the day we celebrate in every way. But not in a way that would be for the turkey. Because the turkey is pau’s.

Old Tom finds Christmas hard too,

With Santa stepping on his feet, While Santa always has the trim, owned dinner, and telling him to clear the deck.

We’re sorry for you, Tom, there was a time when you brought in.

But how can you expect to gain Kingdom’s bloop and carrots pin?

While magazines are stuffed with Christmas gifts for suit the lad, the old turkey’s got his grip. To state that he will taste just fine Thanksgiving day—if you should

But, Tom, we love you anyhow;

And so you can’t get away from the box. You’re being shoved right off the stage.

Cause Santa’s here—and in a rage!

Dickinson Bears Hands Loss in Grid Final, 18-6

by Dick Bowman ’55

Ursinus ended the football game on a sad note when the Bears dropped the 19th decision to Dickinson at Carlisle Saturday. A slight rain hampered both team’s offenses in the first half.

After the first quarter ended in a scoreless deadlock, Dickinson took possession on their own 38 and drove downhill for 75 yards on 14 plays. Pickett opted plays with quarterback George Karl latering out to little Henry Gaull or keeping the ball on field-leg plays accounted for most of the yardage. A pass from Jones to George Mauro on the two set up the score: three defenders battled the ball into the air where it was caught by the near end zone. The plays later Jones swept his left end for one yard and a TD.

The Bears knotted the score in the third quarter. Dick Buckman intercepted a Jones pass on the Dickinson 36 and threaded his way to the twelve. Three plays later Dick Gock crashed over his own left tackle from three yards out for the tally. On the ensuing kickoff the Red Devils returned 13 yards to the Carlisle 21. Charlie Gerdan smashed through for 6 yards and little Henry Gaull the 21-yard five-foot four-inch halfback ducked 11 attempted—Ursin us 14, Dickinson 1.

要害 Budy played a fine defensive game as goalie Linew.

died with several of their wonderful songs.

The last act was a skit called

Our Gal Sunday, preceded by the theme of Shorter hall. Joan Hitchiner '33, Sal Parent '33, Bass Hage '33, Elise Unger '33, and Rosa Diefert '33. This was one of the most amusing acts of the show and brought more laughs than any other presentation.

A pantomime, Outside of That I Love You, was presented by DeVerse Delfosse '31 and Dan Gian­gulino '33 and then Helen Lightfoot '33, Ursinus' Marlene Dietrich '33, sang Maneville.

Following the inter­mission, DeVerse Delfosse and Dan Gian­gulino presented a sequel to their earlier presentation.

The boys' quartet, composed of Bob McCarty '34, Jim Bright '34, George Aschoff '31 and Joe Binther '34, was the next act and following it DeVerse Delfosse and Jim Scott presented a brief skit To the Woods.

Edna Schiwell '32 gave an impromptu monologue I Can't Make Up My Mind, which was written, acted and produced by the audience. Father and Son, a musical monol­ogue, Dottie Schubitz '34, accom­panied by Mary Kramer '34, sang Sweethearts and Delta, both from well-known operettas.

The last act was a repeat of the hit of last year's Junior Musical The Blacksmith Blues, a blackface dance presented by DeVerse Delfosse, Elise Osterholtz '33, Helen Lightfoot, Marje Mersfelder '33, and Mary Sperande '32.
