Eleven Outstanding Seniors Chosen From Ursinus for National Who's Who

Eleven Ursinus seniors have been named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

These eleven seniors were chosen from a board consisting of Miss Ouweleen and Mr. Ongolungelo, student council president, and Dean Camilla B. Wagner, chairman of the Who's Who Board. The Honor of being a member of Who's Who is based on such leadership, scholarship, participation in extracurricular activities and character.

All college and university students are invited to send a coupon enrollment each year to the junior department of Who's Who to be entered in the drawing.

Mr. Davis, a Economics major from Ferncliff, NY, a president of the Varsity Club, an active member in both the Club and Key and Ursinus clubs, was elected to the football team and to the track team.

W.D. Scudder, Robert DeSola, Daniel Giangiulio Jr., Jane E. Gulsick, Audrey H. Hearn, Marjorie H. Mersfelder, Frederick W. Mroz, Evelyn S. Scharff, Robert S. Siefert, Eleanor E. Unger, and Kenneth G. Wilson, were among the eleven.

Promotions Given For Fall Players

A Sharp and Fisher meeting of the Curtin Club was held last Tuesday to decide the promotions and make suggestions for the season. The meeting was open to all members of the faculty and students.

Doctors Nye and Eger Spoke At Dec. 9 Pre-Meal Meeting

The Alumni Association of Ursinus College was fortunate December 9th to have two distinguished visitors among its guests and speakers-two able and well-known physicians. Dr. Robert Bruce Myers, family physician in the community, and Dr. Samuel A. Eger, who spoke on The Ethics of Yoke and Love in the Lower Extremities, were present.

OFFICE MACHINE NOTICE

New rules set up by Dean Arm were put into effect on December 1. These rules limit the time and place of office machines. All students are requested to observe these rules. A branch book hanging on the office door, giving the hours of the office, will be in operation at all times.

Chapel Cutting Rule Discussed By M.S.G.A.

At a special meeting of the M.S.G.A., held December 10th, the following rule was voiced: "Students who are late for chapel services will be considered unexcused absentees by the chapel services on certain days.

The rule permits a student three unexcused absences by the chapel and/or groups in each term.  If a student misses a service, he is considered unexcused. During the remaining weeks of the term, each unexcused will be counted as one absence. By interpretation, students who are unexcused by a student's own choice will be considered unexcused by the chapel services.

Any student who is unexcused for more than six unexcused absences. During the remaining weeks of the term, each unexcused will be counted as one absence. The determination of the permissible number of unexcused absences will be given to the M.S.G.A. for each unexcused absence.

A case which concerned four freshmen was tried by Mr. Daniel Giangiulio Jr., Jane E. Gulsick, Audrey H. Hearn, Marjorie H. Mersfelder, Frederick W. Mroz, Evelyn S. Scharff, Robert S. Siefert, Eleanor E. Unger, and Kenneth G. Wilson.

W.A.A. Plans Show for Feb.

The W.A.A. have made tentative plans for a variety show to be presented the first week in February. Featuring members of the W.A.A., the varied talent has been selected and much work is being done to prepare the students for the show. Some important names in the show include: Misses Euguene, Misses Fahrney, Misses Kehoe, Misses Beeman, Misses Aigner, Misses Stahr and others.

Every college and university submits a certain number of names of graduating seniors to the Who's Who Board. If students wish to be included in this list, they should sign the Who's Who application form and submit it to the Who's Who Board.

George Brown and John Brown were among the eleven seniors appointed to Who's Who.

Rev. Franz Gives Singing Sermon at Vespers Service

The Rev. John B. Franz gave his annual sermon at Vespers Service. Rev. Franz, who is pastor of the Church of the West, personally gives a sermon in song to the congregation, which he organizes. It is important to note that the congregation is not limited to the Ursinus community.

The sermon was well received and many students were moved to tears by the Rev. Franz's moving words.

Silent Night, Room 44 and Hail Robert '54 were among the songs sung during the service.

S P I R I T  O R  G H S T S ?

The Christmas season is upon us, with its spirit, singular and phalal. The highways will be clogged with drivers who are looking for the nearest gas station. Happy drivers all over the nation will be traveling to family reunions carrying presents for our loved ones. The season is also associated with reports of heart attacks and strokes. The situation which you explained was very heartening, but at the same time you offered no practical solution to the problem.

It is a pity that there are too few Ursinus students who wish to become volunteers of the homeless. If you are interested in helping, please make a reservation for a Friday night date. It is a pity that there are so few fellow students on campus that actually do go out with the poor or the homeless. There are quite a few Ursinus students who are not interested in helping.

But, before we become too harsh and judge these uninformed individuals, we should first fully understand their reasons. When the average male hears the con troversial topic of the homeless, he immediately assumes that there is nothing to be done. But, in fact, there is a real desire that a favorable topic for controversy and discussion:

And a general criticism of the rest of the society towards the homeless and the provisions of the federal government for those in need.

The majority of the students have toward the present Ursinus system of chapel attendance, restrictions placed on the men's carol singing and banquet conduct for changing these regulations.

We appreciate that they are worth looking into.

A letter was received by our Spirit Committee chairman, Mr. John Smith, expressing gratitude for the work of the committee. "We have heard of the fine spirit on your campus," the writer said, "and I would like to express my appreciation of all that you do to promote a healthy campus environment.

I believe that the work you are doing is very important, and I hope that you will continue to work hard to make our campus a better place.

Well, the final bell of the Christmas week is here, and we predict that everyone, including pep representatives and prots, will survive. The only people who will not be able to look at their nails are the ex-practice teachers. From here on out until next semester, we really enjoy this Christmas time. We are determined to venture any sort of critical commentary concerning the performance of "The Messiah" (leaving that in the capable hands of Mr. Leaman), but we would love to have our knot in Ethel Lutz, the piano accompanist, who did a tremendous job, playing the entire score at both the afternoon rehearsal and the evening performance.

The very proper rule that all girls participating in the Messiah performance must follow is indeed probably presents a matter of some difficulty in this day and age of the slapstick genre. The result—a veritable rash of smiles. As for ourselves, we feel like a shepherd from another world. We are the men in the girls' dormitories, the examining of small presents and the all-night parties in which girls are forced to compete against the time cut off, and there is no opportunity for learning from experience. You cannot even bring your dog under the window to save him from the cold. I imagine that Christmas should always be a happy season, no matter how uncomfortable that may be.

Let's enjoy this Christmas season in the full. By driving carefully, let's keep it always a happy season. The Christmas spirit should not involve the making of Christmas ghosts.

This Wednesday night in the fashion tradition, Ursinus students will celebrate Christmas. Most of them will eat turkey dinners in the cafeteria, while others will have all night dormitory parties and the boys will sing carols.

To the sorority members, a Christmas spirit fun so that all different types of students can enjoy the season, there will be a Christmas Carol Service in the chapel, where the Choir will sing in the way in which he wants to enjoy them, as long as he does not interfere with the activities of the other members.

Both systems have been used with success in other small liberal arts colleges. Considering the hosts attitude which many students prefer, the system of chapels attached to the church, we feel that they are worth looking into.

SOME IDEAS ON COMPULSORY CHAPEL

The door announcement was issued last week that the compulsory chapel regulations brings to mind some interesting suggestions for further improvement.

One suggestion would compel students to attend one-hour chapel service featuring outside speakers once a week instead of the present two or three times a week. Another would require students to attend chapel services a certain number of times during the semester. The third would require the students to wear a chapel mark.

Both these systems have been used with success in other small liberal arts colleges. Considering the hosts attitude which many students prefer, the system of chapels attached to the church, we feel that they are worth looking into.

Student Defends Finals: They Are Necessary Evils

By Jean August '54

Once again students of Ursinus, you, or on the other hand, how little we really have absorbed. When talking to graduates you find that most of them agree that they have studied nothing that the tests they must take, and the problems they must meet in the working world. Think of these finite-to-be-as a prelude to many wonderful careers, and maybe they won’t seem so terrible or ominous.

Since Christmas is coming and with the traditional time for washing and fulfilled wishes, let me wish all of you a "Camera-eye,” a "Bottor"-lantern," a "clear head" and lots of luck as well as a "Merry Christmas." Don’t study too hard at home! Remember, there are ten days after vacation to bone-up! Don’t let exams get you down. Don’t sigh and moon and groan and fret. If you must worry and work and sleep. Do it early and still get your sleep. Think of each final as but one more test. And don’t get scared—just do your best.

Belles End Exciting Season

Frank Kolp Chosen Gridiron Captain

As was announced last week Frank Kolp became captain elect of the 1953 football team. There is no doubt that the burly 200 lb. chest was deserving of the honor on the basis of his performance on the line this year.

The new gridiron leader was an outstanding athlete at nearby Boyertown High School when he captained his football, basketball, and baseball teams in his senior year, in addition to being a victor in track of his class. His popularity also clinmed him election as senior class president. With such a record behind him he attended Yale in his freshman year where he played on the freshman football team. In 1949, Frank transferred to Ursinus but was unable to play ball, so he realized his eligibility rules on transfer students. He continued his scholastic achievements through gaining a place on the Dean's List. He was also just recently made a member of Zeta Chi fraternity.

With such a record behind him, the team has been happy.

At least we can say that this game was more interesting for the goalie than the previous one.

What happened next week at Bryn Mawr anyone can guess. Ursinus won 3-2. At this point we can only say that we extend our sympathy to Miss Scott. She knew she had a good hockey team but something strange似乎 to have happened. They simply could not win two games in a row because next week temple beat them 3-2. This was the hardest defeat to take because Temple is our traditional rival. What can you do? Practice? We, practiced hard so much so that the defense players were afraid of the forward line. Maybe Temple was just fresher.

And so we come to the game with Chestnut Hill. As the goals, Jon Price told me with a yawn reflecting much boredom, "We won 7-0.

The next week seemed to bring forth a miracle. The belles won a second game in succession when they beat Penn 3-1. At last last the team had been consistent.

But the team were edged out by Beaver, 4-3. This had been hexed.

It was up and down because what happened next week the season came to a close. The Grizzlies fought from behind led. 41-38 at the end of the game when they scored three goals they beat Penn 3-1. At lost last the defence play particularly in the Swarthmore second game in succession when

During the past few weeks there has been considerable comment on the question of whether or not Ursinus should continue its relationship with Franklin and Marshall colleges in the interests of our players by learning to take defense seriously, the only prevailing admission of the series. It was quite surprising to learn that some still desire our Bears to tackle our old traditional foes, such as Army, Temple and such for the sake of tradition.
