Three Professors Up for Tenure

The word is thrown around on college campuses but few students know the definition of tenure and its involvement in the process.

Tenure is a long-term commitment by the college to academic excellence and freedom. The student handbook describes tenure this way:

"As a result of its commitment to academic freedom, the Board of Trustees of the College has granted for the granting of tenure to faculty who meet the ethical standards of the college, that the institution of academic tenure protects."

The atmosphere of free inquiry provided for the granting of tenure ensures the free exchange of ideas. Tenure ensures the free dissemination of knowledge without fear that their findings, or intellectual fashions. Both the process.

Students can submit letters to be shared with the Promotion and Tenure committee and the faculty member.

The following year, the following members of the faculty are being reviewed for tenure:

Dr. Beth Bailey, Biology
Dr. Lyndsey Edwards, Communication Studies and Theatre
Dr. Thomas Rutledge, Chemistry

Student letters should be sent to Dean Judith Levy, Office of the Dean by October 1, 2002.

New Meninitis Vaccine Law in PA

We’ve all noticed that super long line at the pharmacy, that wasn’t there last year but do you know why it’s such a big deal at Ursinus? There is a new Pennsylvania Law that requires all college students in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to obtain the meningitis vaccine.

The letter you received over the summer states that you must either prove that you’ve had the shot, or waiver your option to get it. That’s because the law now requires that all students either have the vaccine, or sign a waiver stating that they wouldn’t have to get the immunization.

The fact is this is a law that was in the making quite a few years ago when it was noticed that college freshmen are six times more likely to contract meningitis. Although not very much is known about meningitis it is known that the ages 14-25 are at the highest risk for the disease and that coughing, sneezing, and intimate kissing can transmit the disease.

It is also believed that the college atmosphere, of communal living, smoking, and irregular sleep patterns can increase the likelihood of the disease being spread. The only prevention from this fast acting disease is awareness of the symptoms and vaccination!

Phi Kappa Sigma: Leaders Comended for Talents

For Ursinus students, technology is valuable at the touch of a button. They can easily check in with parents and friends, instant message, or check the weather or news in seconds. Few students can imagine their lives without easy access to the world.

This year, the following Phi Kappa Sigma Brothers Greg Striano, and Geoffrey Bredice have both been awarded scholarships in the amount $3,000.

These prestigious Phi Kappa Sigma scholarships have been awarded through the Education Fund Scholarship of Phi Kappa Sigma to Ursinus students.

Phi Kappa Sigma has been an international Fraternity. The scholarship was founded to reward brothers who are academically strong, active on their campuses, and whom assume leadership roles in their communities and chapters.

The men are members of the newly formed Delta Delta chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma, one of the national fraternities chartered at Ursinus last year.

Senior Geoff Bredice was surprised and delighted to win the scholarship.

"Thank you!" he said. "We paid $180 for initiation and we got $300. It seems like a deal to me."

Truthfully, it’s nice to win and Geoff and I are both thrilled," Bruce said.

Both brothers stress the importance of friends while pursuing their passions. "Think about it," he said. "We honor brothers who are academically strong, active on their campuses, and whom assume leadership roles in their communities and chapters."

New Hours For the Fitness Center Spell Big Problems for Students

Carisa Stewart

Have you attempted to go to the fitness center and no piece of exercise equipment was available to use? Me too. So what do you do? The logical solution, as well as what I try to do, is to pick a different time to go when the crowds aren’t as bad, and also at a time that conveniently fits into my schedule. Unfortunately that time happens to fall in the window when the fitness center is closed in the morning, which is the time I am able to go, kind of everyone else hops on and you’re once again stuck waiting. So possibly the best thing to do, if you want to exercise around the new hours that were presented this year, is to pick a different time to go, kind of like everyone else. So either you maneuver around people walk over to the cardio area, or you’re disappointed to find that all the machines are occupied.

As soon as someone is finished, four people run over at the same time of all who are interested in the same machine. After everyone offers each other their turn, someone else hops on and you’re once again stuck waiting. So possibly for lifting, join in on the installing racket. I’m sure if you have a group of people working out, or get fed up and leave. To some this may sound a bit exaggerated or extreme, but it may also sound really familiar. Perhaps the crowds will die down when the work load for school begins to pick up, I don’t know, that would be nice, but the fitness center also has to accommodate for a larger freshman class as well. Once again, the comment that I think has to be made is that we certainly pay a lot of money in general to attend Ursinus College, and we do in fact have an awesome facility that was built for our use.

I cannot say that I am angry about the new schedule, but rather disappointed. I am disappointed that not only are these probable students that are willing to fill the hours needed to keep the fitness center open in the morning, which would financially help some seniors, but also that the needs and desires of others appear not to be taken in consideration.

Labels are killing Internet music.

When interviewed recently by Newark, independent Web broadcaster Jam, Armstrong estimated it to be about $10,000. Oct 20, he expects pay by $17,000 for the next seven years. The record companies have brought the Internet to court and succeeded in blocking the file-sharing program to its knees, much to the disappointment of music fans everywhere. But Internet music may become its own Internet by using streaming technology that can’t be used, making it impossible for the radio to listen to in the car everyday.

Radio Slips Pittsburgh — Radio stations are monitoring revenues from Internet radio revenues per listener per song. They are threatened by Internet radio, which is a big place with lots of music fans, and that seems multiple copys. The result is that vastly each station’s annual income. And since the bill has been introduced to 1998, they will also have no pay for everything they’ve broadcasted for the last four years.

All Buses are available in the Student Activities Office.
At the summer movie season comes to a close, it's time to plan out what's in store for your friday night. With all the new fictional characters and storylines, it's sure to be a fun time for all.

One of the biggest movies of the summer is the highly anticipated
"The Lord of the Rings: The Two Towers." This sequel to the first installment is expected to be even better than the first film. Once again, Elijah Wood, Ian McKellen, Viggo Mortensen, Sean Akins, and Orlando Bloom will star. The movie will follow the adventures of the Fellowship of the Ring as they travel across Middle Earth to defeat the evil Lord Sauron.

Another highly anticipated movie is "The Da Vinci Code," directed by Ron Howard and starring Tom Hanks and Audrey Tautou. The movie is based on the best-selling novel by Dan Brown and follows Robert Langdon as he uncovers the secrets of the Church in order to expose a crime that goes back to the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

In the world of animation, two ewly released films are sure to please audiences of all ages:
"Finding Nemo," directed by Andrew Stanton, and "Beauty and the Beast," directed by Gary Oxford. "Finding Nemo" is about a young fish named Marlin who loses his father, and "Beauty and the Beast" is a classic tale of love between a poor girl and a Beast.

For those who love
"American Pie" films, "American Reunion" is set to hit theaters this spring. The film follows the remaining members of the Stifler brothers as they navigate their way through college.

In the action
department, "The Bourne Supremacy," directed by Paul Greengrass, stars Matt Damon as Jason Bourne, who is on a mission to uncover the truth about his past.

Finally, for those who enjoy comedy, "The 40-Year-Old Virgin," directed by Judd Apatow, stars Steve Carell as a virgin who is on a mission to lose his virginity.

So whether you're a fan of action, comedy, or adventure, there's something for everyone this summer.

Tired of your boring dorm room? Think it could use a little redecorating?! Then SWAPPIN' SUITES is just the contest for you!

Swappin' Suites is a contest that The Grizzly is holding, with help from businesses and other organizations, like RHA. This contest is for you so that you can make your humble abode a little more welcoming!

The contest begins now with the application. Fill it out with your roommates and another set of roommates that want their room redone too and turn it in!

We will publish the applicants and the student body will get to vote on who gets to have their room redone!

Once the contestants, carpenters, and designers are picked we will publish the results in preparation for the big SWAP!

Over Fall Break, the roommates will switch rooms and decorate their hearts out!

The end results will then be published for all the campus to see!

Look for our other contests that we will be holding throughout the year and be sure to get your applications in for SWAPPIN' SUITES!

In 50 words or less, tell us why you want to participate in Swappin' Suites!

SWAPPIN' SUITES APPLICATION - Carpenter or Designer Application

Which position are you interested in?

What experience do you have?

SWAPPIN' SUITES APPLICATION - Room Application

Rules and Regulations will be given to those who apply and will also be published in a future issue of The Grizzly!

You must apply to be picked, and you must read in order to vote for the rooms you want to be swapped and redecorated over Fall break!

So get involved and get that application in today!

Say goodbye to boring, empty walls and unorganized closets!

SWAPSUITES TODAY:

Applications must include 2 teams.

Teams, designers and the carpenter must be on campus for Fall Break

All participants must be willing to be interviewed and photographed by The Grizzly staff during the contest.

Submit these applications to The Grizzly by 9/20/02!

You can drop them in Dr. Edwards office or in the box in Wismer Lobby!
