 Rather more restrictive than Ursinus College's policy, but is a come-and-get-it-when-you-see-the-slogan on display in the new gym. The real would-be totalitarians are the ones who have rule in public but if this group thinks that having two women students as business managers beinng women students, and that naturally, in a election of any kind usually were made, with the specification made that one manager should be a male and one a female.

With one announcement of the election made, the election was held the very next day.

The result of the second election do not concern us. What does interest us, however, is this: by what stretch of the imagination did the minority group think that it could change the original election? Certainly there are no ethical grounds for it, unless there are no legal grounds, since there are not rules stated anywhere (for Ruby business managers) for this action.

We agree that there should be no dissolution on a class project but if this group thinks that having two women students as business managers would create dissension, why didn't they make their stipulation before the first election? And since when does the minority rule? Or is this one of those situations where there was none mentioned in this one (an election of any kind usually)

SITUATION

The Senior class has a problem. As is the custom, they plan to give a gift to the college that will be a perpetual one. The question is, what? What does the Senior class want for themselves in this respect? We have discovered some things it would like to own. It has a sundial, right in front of the old quadrangle. It also has a trophy case, which is a little large for its cost. It has four trophy cases in the basement where it doesn't belong! There is no need to clock in the employees! And what's more, the class can't find anything that all members of the Senior class will want, except to present to Ursinus college. Just for fun, it is sending up a list of the suggestions that were forwarded on the positive side, by all of the students. Everyone in the library, student scholarship fund, lab, cafeteria, for new student aid, for Ruby women's dorms could be built first, and the students feel that the same, at the same time, a recording station. The students are also asking for classes, debating, dramatics, and radio station. These were a few of the things that the Senior class thought about. Do you think about them? Any suggestions?

AMIDST THE MADDING CROWD

People turn into pieces of wood then get in front of a camera. A whole generation of men and women has been the most depressing sight. "Smile!" the examiner says. What happens? So many hideous faces, so many eyes gazing into the distance. Only a kind of backward scolding. A plea for a world without us. A final We'd better get it over with before we are 60. This year, one hour spent in front of the camera is all we'll have.

The winter concert on Thursday night is a great success. We wish it could have been a more interesting one. We wish we've had a full audience. But it was all very nice. Two TV stars, Tony Christie and Ramon Novarro, were present. The program was good, and the audience was so good that they gave an encore at the end of the program by closing with "We'll Meet Again." The audience was at home in June.

The Three Year Program

Students attend English University for only three years, entering their junior and senior years in college while still the same age as their classmates. For example, a student doing history this year will receive her degree in June. She will have spent her junior and senior years in college while still the same age as her classmate.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Noll, Silver Spring, announce the engagement of their daughter, Polly, to Franklin G. Geiger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Geiger of New York City.

Miss Noll attended Ursinus college where she was a member of Pi Gamma Mu, and is a member of Demus fraternity. Mr. Geiger graduated from Ursinus college in June, 2001, where he was a member of Pi Theta Kappa and Phi Alpha Delta. He is presently employed by Frito-Lay, Inc., Waco, Texas.

We are seniors, and therefore interested in finding gifts for ourselves. In case you want a job with a future, you may want to go into photography. In the world of photography, it is a job for which you can work, and you can earn a living.

Chess Provides Ground for Exercise Of Mind's Calm, Logic, Memory
by David Hallstrom '32

Concerning chess, people often say it's very fascinating. It's very entertaining. But are they really telling the truth? Have you ever heard anyone say that you could have a bit of fun playing chess? Well, let me explain to you how it is different from other games. First, a word about those two players before making any decision. Don't be fooled. Beneath those staid, solemn, thoughtfully pondering, as the players silently duel, using all the faculties of the mind, logic, memory, concentration, reasoning, calculation and imagination--in the effort to crush, eliminate and defeat the thoroughly hateful opponent. Chess is really warfare in its utmost form. It offers to all a way to express those feelings that the ordinary duel urges to pin back someone's ears.

Chess has many attractions beside the excitement of a contest, and a form of an ancient Greek proverb ed it as-infinite, eternal and age-

Boobies Run Acoustics in Bomberger
Under the proper conditions, various pests are apt to go into action. The right conditions for Bomberger to hatch its kind of Boobies consist of a forum, music, canteen or any other assembly of people. Marguerite Spencer is Chosen Captain

Of 1952 Girls' Basketball Squad

Last Friday the Ursinus Girls' Basketball squad honored Marguerite Spencer for her outstanding work last season. Spencer, who is entering her senior year as one of the best hurlers on the basketball competition, will be able to contribute much to her team, not only in leadership, but also in valuable playing experience.

High scoring forward, she adeptly handles the ball, pulling in bad passes and controlling the back­boards. Spencer has gained much of this talent through many after­noons spent in backyard basket­ball with her older brothers.

This last match evened the ledger at eleven apiece. However, the Leopards continued their name and took the next two bouts on decision. Jim Althouse compiled a 6-0 to top Tap Webb in the 171 pound group while lightweight John Lilli­cote bested Bob Davis, 4-0, in a grueling battle.

On checking into the old record books we find that we are lacking in a concise history of our basketball progress from the days of the old streetball to our triumphs in our other major sports.

One of the first trophies that should be put into the case is a footbal trophy presented by Mr. R. E. Kellogg to the Old Farmers. It was donated in 1895.

used by teachers to make lessons more nearly real to the student. Mr. Rohrbach emphasized the fact that the visual aid to be used must fit in with the lesson and that the teacher, to derive full benefit from it, must have prepared himself at the aid before presenting it to his class.

Mr. Rohrbach met with the help of some of his high school students in demonstrating various projectors and sound recorders for the FTA. He concluded by listing some sources of material for visual education and by pointing the student to examine more closely the aids which were on display.

MSGA to Enforce

At the same meeting of the council, plans for the Loyalty dance were discussed. The council is in charge of selecting the orchestra, the women’s student council, decorations and chaperones; Inter-sorority council, tickets; and Inter-fraternity council, programs.

It was also announced that the Women’s Student Government associations will purchase a 45 R.P.M. record player to be used for school dances. This will be paid for by dance admissions charged by organizations using the record player. The money will then be turned over to the MSGA to pay off the record player and to build up a collection of records.

A complaint was heard from the day student representative who pointed out that day students have no way of hearing the announcements made at meal-times in the dining hall. Since many of these announcements are notices of organization meetings, day students cannot take part in these activities.
