Communist Youth Festival Described by U. S. 'Delegate'

The Communist Youth Festival, held in Philadelphia last month for the first time, is described by Vincent Tororo at the forum attended by a large group of students in Bomberger hall.

Mr. Tororo is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall college who studied in India last year as a Fulbright scholar. He successfully passed his final examinations in the autumn and was invited to give a talk on the festival to the students. He said that the festival was a large scale program of activities sponsored by approximately 2,000,000 representatives of all the Communist youth organizations in Czechoslovakia to North Korea.

Mr. Tororo was a delegate but only 45 were allowed to attend.

Programs Given

There were several days of programs given by every country represented and revealing Communist propaganda through lectures, leaflets, films, and every other conceivable art to indoctrinate the students, with ballet about a North Korean mother who had lost her child in a bomb attack.

Reports Must Be Made

Student organizations receiving grants from the students' activities budget are reminded that financial reports for the spring semester were due March 20. In addition chairmen are required to submit a financial report to Dr. Harold C. Berckman before the end of the semester to show a financial profit for the year.

Spring Play Selected by Curtain Club

"Philadelphia Story" Planned For May Day Week-end

At the monthly meeting of the Curtain club held February 19, the plans for the spring production were announced under the guidance of Philip Barry. The play will be presented at the play house during the week-end.

"Flying Colors" for the play. Copies of The Philadelphia Story will be available to anyone interested in reading the play prior to the opening of the play.

At the general business meeting of the Curtain club, the purchase of a new pair of cycloramas was announced. Mrs. Rhoda Blumenthal, Irene Boshko, President, was appointed to investigate the matter.

Because of the difficulties involved in getting the Cycloramas, a guarantee of a stage crew of ten men was requested from the company that supplied the cycloramas.

Donald L. Heffter was appointed to supervise the operations of the play.

The house, the group production under the direction of Ed Adamus, and "Philadelphia Story" will be produced by the Curtain club.

The play is about a stage actress who has had her career ruined by Bob Wellington. The cast includes: Barbara Boshko, Jimmy Walton, Dorothy O'Connor, and Josephine O'Connor. The plot by various females to save Jimmy Walton from paying off Bob Wellington, and the);$hadowing by Jimmy Walton she wouldn't marry her. The curtain call is a hit on earth. By a trick of fate Jimmy Walton promises to be married to Dorothy O'Connor.

Library Is Not Only For Bookworms
by Bob Armstrong '54

Do you use the Ursinus library? The library is that stone building which stands on the east side of Horsemonger chapel. Since there may be a few students on campus who are not too familiar with its vast space, I shall try to inform you of some of the things which happen there.

Last night I decided to escape the noise of Curtis hall to do some serious studying. My roommate suggested that I try the library, so I did. The rule book states that one side of the library is to be used by male students and the other to be used by women. I was quite surprised to see that this rule was not followed very well. In fact, I felt as though I was very much out of place because I didn't have a date. I shilly shally seated myself at a table with two other girls.

BOOK TAKEN

I had an outside reading assignment to read for political science, so I walked up to the desk to get the required book. The girl told me that all of the books were taken. That's right. In less than a few minutes. I sat down again and was just about to begin reading my psychology when I heard a voice say:

"I listened more closely. Sure enough, I could hear Beethoven's Fifth night in the library. The music stopped as suddenly as it had begun. You see, the fellow beside me said that he was a music lover and that he was just passing through. I was asked if I would like to borrow his copy of the book. I accepted and began to read."

" startled by noise"

Nothing unusual happened for about the next ten minutes. Suddenly I was startled by a noise which is very difficult to describe. I looked about to see what had happened. I found out that the disturbance was caused by the uncontrollable noises of the drinking fountain. It bothered me to think how many people must go thirsty all evening to save themselves the embarrassment of using those fountains. Every so often the people at the next table broke out in half smothered laughter. By watching them I deduced that they were telling jokes. I could swear that they crammed at every single joke which was told. If nobody will laugh at your jokes on the campus, tell the same jokes in the library and you will be the life of the party.

FACULTY HUMOR

The facility was a source of laughter last night also. In the faculty room there was an English reading in progress by a professor. I don't know what he was reading, but the people in that room most certainly were enjoying it more than I was. When the reading ended some of the people went into the foyer for a smoke. They seemed to think that it was perfectly safe to speak in a normal voice. Little did they know that those marks were give the effect of a P.A. system to those inside the library.

The fascination of the library was suddenly terminated by the thought of the studies, which I intended to do. I went up to the desk and

Lehigh II

Last week witnessed a seven game schedule in the men's intra-mural competition, with the pace-setters in League I advancing and the leader in League II being replaced by a two-way tie.

In League II Off-campus teams I and II gained a tie for first place, while 7 24 was retained at second place. Off-campus II scored an easy 64-24 victory over Curtis III.

Off-campus I was trained for 17 9 points by a run in the final frame, but rallied for a 47-33 victory. The Off-campus quartet cut down Derr 37-25 in the last quarter, spurred by 81 Pau's 10 points and Albright's 12.

Bredbeck II topped 724 from Leader's match field goal and at one phase of the encounter the score was knotted at 9 apiece. From there on in the tremendous height and skill of the opposition was evident as they were able to control the backboards, although the Grizzly defense never stopped pressing them. The final period closed with the visitors ahead at 17-11. The margin, however, was increased as forwards Dick Evans and Frank White began to find the range, so that the half-time total was 43-25.

One of the stellar attractions of the evening was the brilliant shooting of the Blue Hen's ace man, Bob Swett. Held to only eight markers in the first half, Bob came back strong in the next two sessions. The twenty-seven counters up to the present knocked down the high watermark for both teams. Captain Dave Reis, while held to only seven, used his usual steady descriptive game and he teamed with Ralph Schumaker, who contributed fourteen points, 46-48, in feeding the ball to the swing. Bertie Kniuli played a great defensive game and he chipped in with twelve tallys.

The scoring of Delaware's Evans and White was supplemented by the capable shooting of their substitutes. Forward Bill Ull recorded most of his fourteen points with a dominating one-handed drive in. John Goldberg who played in part of all four sessions, basketed another thirteen points for the winning cause.

With the scoreboard reading 60-35 in favor of the Blue Hen's, the Bruin began to feed the ball more often to Swett in an attempt to narrow the gap. It was in this last frame that the big center tallied most of his points. Both quintets were about even for scoring honors in this final, free-scoring period.

Basil Barnes, Drexel Center, Scores Twenty-four

The Ursinus Bears put on one of their poorest ball handling displays of the season and combined with it an equally inept shooting barrage last Friday night to suffer a stunning defeat from Drexel, 82-56.

The game which from the opening tap was to be a battle for third place in the Middle Atlantic Conference was anything but a battle after the first five minutes. Here the Bears off guarded as Schumacher, who scored on a one-handed shot from the side. A few seconds later he grabbed a loose ball under the Drexel hoop and laid it in for another two pointers. From here on the confident Dragons, who at the moment were riddled, shot down a completely unorganized game. They reeled off seven straight points before Drexel could score on a twisting under-hand shot. But the next few minutes, for the third period and hit for a game total of 23 points.

Schumacher Standout

The Bears, who were far off balance, had only one bright spot and that was the play of Ralph Schumacher, a two-year varsity player who did some sharp-shooting in the late stages of the game finished the period and was the outstanding performer of the night. He is an impressive shooting display and

FOUR TO GO

At the Ursinus College basketball team entered the winter season by scattering points through the 1952-53 season. The list included three guards and four forwards. The main idea of the schedule is as follows:

February 9-10: Pitha, Textile, away
February 13-14: Havertown, home
February 17-18: M.C., away
March 1-2: Drexel, home

Girls Win in Opening Meet

Winning four out of six events, the girls' swimming team defeated Drexel, 49-26. The Ursinus girls swam any season on an encouraging note. Coach Jackie Sturgis has new team on a solid basis this year as swimming coach, was pleased with the girls' performance and won a successful season.

Junior Sue Jane Platt, in her new role as Ursinus swimming coach, was pleased with the girls' performance and won a
