Water Worries Burst in Reimert

Alexis Watt / Staff Writer

Dr. Deborah Nolan has certainly been a busy woman. Her day started as early as 7 a.m. as she headed to the Wellbuilding for the Friday艾滋病 meeting. She was there from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. and then she went to the Wellness Center for a meeting from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. After that, she attended a meeting from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. and then she went to the Wellness Center for another meeting from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. Finally, she attended the last meeting from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the Wellness Center.

The meetings were back to back and she barely had time to grab a quick meal. She was hungry and tired but she didn’t have time to relax. She had a lot of work to do.

At 3 p.m., she returned to the Wellness Center for a meeting from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. and then she had to go to the Wellness Center for another meeting from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. Finally, she returned to the Wellness Center for the last meeting from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Throughout the day, Dr. Nolan had to deal with some difficult situations. She was trying to make it as smooth as possible for everyone. She was trying to be patient and understanding. She was trying to be a good leader.

At 9 p.m., she finally returned home and she was exhausted. She went to bed at 10 p.m. and she slept for a few hours but she couldn’t sleep well. She had a lot of work to do the next day.

The next day, Dr. Nolan was back in the Wellness Center for another meeting from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and then she went to the Wellness Center for a meeting from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. After that, she attended a meeting from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m. and then she went to the Wellness Center for another meeting from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Finally, she attended the last meeting from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. in the Wellness Center.

It’s the middle of February, but you’re walking around like an acne-embarrassed teen. You look great, but you still can’t see the future. Disappearing acne is a serious threat to the future’s potential. The FDA needs to investigate them further. The pill’s side effects are minor and do not affect your day-to-day life. It’s the best thing you can do to get rid of acne.

Pharmaceuticals and tanning beds: a dangerous combination

While Weevil demonstrated a somewhat adversarial behavior, Zafer and I loved and respected each other. Zafer was a good boy, and we both loved it. It was a good night for both of us. Zafer and I loved it. I thought Zafer was lovely. I started to love Zafer. Zafer’s English was very good and I told Zafer that I really enjoyed his work. Zafer was from Iraq and he understood the world. However, it was impossible for us to go to the United States. Instead, we had a couple of hours, and Zafer gave our Iraqi friends and returned to the U.S. to spend our last night in Egypt.

We spent our last night in Egypt. We were very excited because we had never been there before. We went to the airport and got to know each other. Zafer and I left Egypt, and I was very sad. I could hardly wait for our next time at the airport. We had an amazing experience.

Is Collegeville Boring?

Nickle Beck, Grizzly Staff Writer

Ah... it’s the age-old question of whether or not Little College has anything exciting for its 1400 college students. You know the days where you sit around wondering, “Howly had somewhere to go?” Well, many of you probably did nothing, there was fun and excitement right around the corner. For those of you who choose to look through the yellow pages for over an hour, pulling lists for places that some of your friends mentioned elsewhere.

I have found entertainment that ranges from bowling alleys, top pools, antique stores, to nature calls; you name it I have at least looked it up!

So it’s Thursday night and you’re not going to the party scene, but you still want to go out and hang out with some friends. What do you do?

Well, I have been living here for almost two months down Main Street in Limerick Bowl. We’ll remember the days when we went bowling on Friday nights, because we thought we were cool. Continue to search for another hoot city here at Collegeville. Also, drive across to Phoenixville (273 Schuylkill Rd.) and find Classic Billiards, a place to shoot pool, and hang out for a while. Looking for some nightlife of classic dance and music? Head over The Sandtrap at The Lehigh Valley Country Club, this student dance club, or even Touchable Nightclub on Dahlgren Pike. I’ve seen some names in dancing career.

Alright, so we may not want to forget that Thursday night party scene, what do we do on those Saturdays or Sundays on waking when no sporting event is scheduled, you’ve vacqcupied with all that biology homework, and you need a break from campus? Well, if you will enjoy antique-shopping and take a break from the busy motion, you may spark some interests here at Collegeville.

Looking for something chill, and excitement, minus the drive to Phoenixville? Well! I have found even more places to tame the Tarascon devil in all of us. For some cheap fun, bee-line to Arnold’s Go-Kart Center, located in the same place as Oaks Movie Theatre. There’s where you’re going to find new release in the largest movie theater in the area. Movie of Halo fan? Then Crossfire Paintball sports is the place for you. Located at 566 Schuylkill Road in Phoenixville, you and your friends can have the chance to bring the famed XBox game to life. Give them a call to reserve a day at (610) 955-0951. Another option for thrill seeker is Spring Mountain Ski Resort in Schwenksville. All of the features of the Appalachian Mountains fifteen minutes away. A little trady double black diamonds, that’s right, head over to Center Line, a skating rink on Crown Ave. in Oaks, to test out some figure skating moves. With the few days of nice weather fall left is always nice to get outside and take a break of fresh air. Of some doing of this, if you are not all out of hours, is heading over to the Red Buffalo Ranch (610) 999-9700 in Collegeville, or Three Diamond Stable (610-494-0490) also in Collegeville and watching up on one of their beautiful horses. If you like genuine fields sounds little too dangerous, there is always walking through fields on the Perkiomen Trail. Unknown to many college students the trail can be entered behind North Ave, but there is a path that will take you all the way to Center City. Remember that this is not a walk around the block. Consider riding your bike, arntead of hiking that long a distance. Don’t forget you always have the return trip!

Still not satisfied with the options presented? There is always King of Prussia Mall that can be considered a prize of a workout when power shopping, or the beloved traffics standstill in town, when it is time to Philadelphia. All of the places described are within a 20 minute drive, and should quench your cravings for something to do. If you would like more information on any of the activities mentioned, check the yellow pages (www.youngpapers.com) so you can answer the question is to whether Collegeville is boring.

I would have to say it is what make of it whether or not you will be bonding in a small town, but remember to enjoy life here! Huron, there is plenty of time left to lead a boring life.

Smart Shopping

Marie DiFeliciantonio, Grizzly Staff Writer

Looking for something to snack on during those late night cram sessions or just because you like to snack? I did some comparison shopping at the local upper markets so you could get the best buy on your favorite snacks. I priced snacks in Clement’s, Redner’s Warehouse Market, and Acme. Found that all three stores sell Doritos for the same price, $3.29. However Clement’s is rating a deal that gets you two bags for that price. At B& P popcorn is sold the cheapest at Redner’s at $1.49 for a 3-pack. It costs $1.99 at Clement’s and Acme doesn’t sell it. Acme’s generic brand of popcorn is sold in a 3-pack for $1.99 plus. You can buy two bags at Redner’s for the $2.97 and for $2.99 at Clement’s but Acme charges $3.29 for a bag. If you like Lay’s potato chips, Clement’s sells them for two for $2.99. Redner’s charges $1 more for two bags. Acme sells Lay’s at the most expensive price, $2.99 for one bag. If you’re looking for a snack that a little lower on the fatty scale, Goldfish may be a good bet. Redner’s sells two boxes for $5 and Clement’s offers them at $2.99 a box. For the health conscious, it would be protected. Snyder’s of Hanover pretzels cost $2.39 at Redner’s but $2.99 at Acme and Clement’s.

CAB Events

Kyle Keefe-Brown
Grizzly Staff Writer

Here are some new updates from the Campus Activities Board. Just a reminder, all meetings are held Wednesday nights at 8:00 PM in Watson Lower Lounge. Though there are meetings and discussions of topics and activities that are determined by the students of the University community. All CAB events are free to the University students and there are exceptions of concerts and the "Mr. Ursinus" pageant, in these cases proceeds will go to charity. According to members of CAB, "the aim of CAB is to provide a forum for the students of Ursinus to meet and make friends." The board plans and implements a wide range of events, including concerts, movies, and casino nights. CAB is offering more movies on Friday nights to students and faculty. CAB is always looking for people who want to make a positive change in their community and have fun while doing it! Currently, there are several events planned by CAB, such as Casino Night on October 30th, and Campus Activities Board hosts the fall concert.

The New Age of TGIF:

Edwin Skup
Grizzly Staff Writer

Quick trivia: Who was the character known for the famous quotes: “Did I do that?” and “Got any cheese?”

That’s right! It’s Steve Urkel from “Family Matters!” This character has become a pop culture icon over the years. His epitaph is "Bomberger Hall" on his gravestone. The character was known for his funny and over-the-top quotes that have become a part of pop culture.

ABC decided to mix things up with this new age TGIF. The Friday night lineup will include returning stars “George Lopez” and “Life with Bobs”, and two new shows. “Hope & Faith” is a comedy about a washed up soap star who returns to town to save his family. The star of the show will be Kelly Ripa, of “Regis and Kelly.” The show has a unique addition to TGIF: the comedy “Married to the Kelley,” starring Brooklyn Decker and Tyler Perry. Ten, a New Yorker who is transplant to Kansas with his new wife, Susan, and expects major culture shock when he meets her Midwestern family.

So let’s give ABC another chance. They had a hit with their first TGIF lineup, and with big names and returning veterans on their line-up, this could really be something special. We hope to have some real fun with this new lineup, especially the new shows. This is definitely a chance for the new lineup to prove itself. We’re excited to see how it turns out.

The Phillies headed into the final three games of the season with high expectations. They had already clinched the National League East title and were looking to secure the regular season championship as well. However, things did not go as planned.

The Phillies lost their last three games, including a crucial 6-1 loss to the New York Mets on the final day of the season. The loss eliminated them from contention for the NL East title, which went to the Atlanta Braves.

Despite the disappointing finish, the Phillies had a lot to be proud of. They had a talented lineup and a strong pitching staff, which helped them win 102 games during the regular season. They also had the best record in the NL East for the second straight year.

Manager Larry Bowa was pleased with the team's overall performance.

"We had a great season," Bowa said. "We had a lot of good things happen this year, and I'm proud of our guys."
