Stagg's Granddaughter

Enrolls in Junior Class

by Jean Heron '51

No doubt you too have heard the rumor that Amoni Stagg's granddaughter has arrived as a Ursinus student. True. Barbara Stagg, a junior, has transferred from Northwestern College in order to pursue studies in the physical education group.

Barbara's illustrious grandfather, at 88, is known as the "Old Man of the Gridiron." Now assisting his son as coach at Susquehanna, Amoni Stagg is widely known and revered for his success in developing championship teams at Chicago University and College of the Pacific. Selected on Walter Camp's first All-American team in 1889 at Yale, he has played, coached, and invented football all his life.

True to her family tradition, Barb is quite an athlete. From her days in Selinsgrove high school she had participated in sports—hockey, basketball, and tennis. Her greatest prowess lies in the latter. This is proven by the fact that she was the first girl in thirty-three years to play on the men's tennis team at Susquehanna.

Talent Runs in Family

It seems that talent runs true in the family. Herb's grandmother participated in a woman's national tennis tournament; her father coaches tennis at a summer resort at Como, Minn., and her brother, Amoni Stagg III, plays on the football team at Northwestern State University.

In answer to the question, "How do you like Ursinus?" Barb exclaimed, "I love it!" But when they think of Ursinus, they think, "It's wonderful!" While she is enrolled, Barb would like to take part in cheerleading, the musical organizations, and the tennis club.

James Herbsleb, instructor in economics, has accepted the position of faculty advisor of the local honor fraternity for social sciences, Pi Gamma Mu and the announcement made this week by Russ Mack '51, president of the Ursinus chapter, Sigma, of Pennsylvania.

Herbsleb, a graduate of the College of the Pacific and Temple University, joined the Ursinus faculty last year.

Tentative plans for the fraternity include the acceptance of new members in the fall. A dinner and an outside speaker are planned for the formal initiation ceremony.

ATTENTION!

Full time students who wish to postpone their entrance into the armed forces should request of their local boards postponement of induction and not deferment. It is the student’s obligation to file in the Registrar’s office his name, local board number and its location. If you have not yet registered with your local board it is your responsibility to report your board number and location to the Registrar’s office as soon as you register. Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 2...THE BLOW FISH

By the poor place! He’s been making all those trick cigarette tests you’ve been reading about! He’s taken one puff of this brand — one sniff of that. A quick inhale of cigarette smoke — and he’s still confused! Seriously, isn’t the sensible way to test a cigarette to smoke pack after pack, day after day?

That’s the test Camel asks you to make — the 30-Day Mildness Test. Smoke Camels and only Camels — regularly for 30 days. Your “T-Zone” — (T for Throat and T for Taste) — is the real proving ground for any cigarette. After you’ve tried Camels as your regular smoke, you’ll know why...

“Shucks—I blew in when I should’ve blown out!”

More People Smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

Grizzlies Drop Second Game Beside Fine Quarterbacking by Glick; Fishek and Glock Score; Young, Fuench Suffer Injuries

by Roy Findler 31

Ursinus helped Haverford open their 1950 season at Wagner field on Saturday, but the Fords ungratefully handed their guests a 20-12 defeat. The Ursinus boys got off to a very good start in the books, and the Mainliners handled the sphere as if it were radioactive, but the Bears counterattacked by dissipating most of their scoring chances.

In the absence of Don Young, who departed early with a shoulder separation, from Glick came a mighty good game. He passed for one three-pointer, and later crossed the goal line with a pass play nullified and a penalty imposed for a forward-passer. Bob Davis suffered torn cartilages when he was laid low by a blocker on Brind's touchdown point in the second period. He will be out the rest of the season. Steve Murch also was sidelined.

Bears Muff Chances

In the first quarter opportunity knocked twice for Ursinus when Haverford lost the ball on bad quarter center, but twice the Bears were lacking. The second time it happened, Fishek got hold of the ball, and Bob Davis carried from the 25 to the 16. Fishek put the ball in the shade.幼儿 run 翼, but then Haverford retaliated with a 7-2 pass. Gibson稳步推进 to the goal, but the Fords ungratefully handed their guests a 6-0 change nullified and a penalty imposed. Again it was last down when Glick flipped for a first and goal, but Sharpe was just off, but Fischer gained a yardage of his own to make it 10-0.

Along with "Theater-in-the-Round", Musical Circuses and a revival of the Charleston, this summer saw the Champagne Hour at New York's Place d'Albert present literary readings as the chief attraction. Not only has the idle club-chat of the upstairs clubs given way to intensions of Shakespeare and Dickens, but Ursinus has initiated its own program of readings too... sans champagne.
