6-12-1890

Providence Independent, V. 16, Thursday, June 12, 1890, [Whole Number: 782]

Providence Independent
In the course of which some person

There’s to be a dance out in the old

Now he has to avoid the hard task

I say, "It’s something to get ahead o’

Aunt Betsey thought that music was

But Delia, don’t you see? And Delia, she’s dretful fond o’

Delia’s been a good, dutiful gal all her

A Good Joke.
Newspaper text, unformatted.
From PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT.
June 1, 1890.

The New Deal.

The new deal will be a distinct advantage, equal opportunity in work, and a return to prosperity.

Protests to Washington.

Protests have been made to the Secretary of the Interior, expressing dissatisfaction with the recent appointments to federal positions.

Agricultural Progress.

The agricultural progress in the state has been remarkable, with increases in crop yields and livestock numbers.

Local News.

Various local news items, including school events, sports results, and community activities.

---

From PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT.
June 5, 1890.

Children's Day.

A national children's day was celebrated with various events, including a parade and a ceremony at the state capitol.

Railway Accidents.

Several railway accidents were reported, with injuries to passengers and workers.

Local News.

Further local news items, including social events, community activities, and updates on local personalities.

---

From PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT.
June 10, 1890.

Funeral.

The funeral of a prominent local figure was held, with services at the local church and a procession through the town.

Local News.

Various local news items, including events, activities, and updates on local individuals.

---

From PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT.
June 15, 1890.

The Horse Deal.

A large horse deal was concluded, with horses being transported to various destinations.

Local News.

Additional local news items, including events, activities, and updates on local individuals.

---

From PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT.
June 20, 1890.

The New Deal.

Further comments on the new deal, emphasizing equal opportunity and prosperity.

Local News.

Further local news items, including events, activities, and updates on local individuals.

---

From PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT.
June 25, 1890.

The New Deal.

Extended discussion on the new deal, its benefits, and how it will impact the local community.

Local News.

Final local news items, including events, activities, and updates on local individuals.
Lame Horses will be treated at the Infirmary if whips, blankets, horse covers, fly nets, will receive prompt attention. The best material used.
your purchases. Repairing attended to in person or by mail free of charge. Send or in Philadelphia. The best establishment in town.
the market. Also Harrison's Rough and Ready grapes. Soil should be dry, light, deep around it. Trees must not be set close and composted with muck. This, fertilizer is one which we have no hesitancy in trial.