TRAPPED BY A WOMAN.

Allowing Experience of an amateur detective.

The history of Margaret Hoveman, "Miss Hoveman," as given by her an accomplished detective, will be read with interest and approval. The story of that woman, herself, a girl with an extraordinary degree of intelligence, is fraught with various events that will appeal to the most fastidious of amateurs. The most interesting and successful cases which Miss Hoveman has handled have been done in the highest class. The following is a selection of the most notable cases handled by Miss Hoveman.

"Miss Hoveman was asked to handle a certain case of domestic crime, and the woman in question was a noted domestic of a wealthy family. The domestic had been fired from her position because of her alleged theft of property. Miss Hoveman was able to prove the innocence of the domestic and she was reinstated in her position.

"Another case handled by Miss Hoveman was the case of a wealthy businesswoman who had been the victim of a series of thefts. Miss Hoveman was able to track down the thief and recover the stolen property.

"Miss Hoveman was also able to solve the case of a wealthy family who had been the victims of several burglaries. She was able to locate the burglar and recover the stolen property.

"Miss Hoveman has also handled several cases of blackmail, and in each case she was able to recover the stolen property and bring the perpetrator to justice.

"Miss Hoveman is a true woman detective, and her cases are a true inspiration to the amateur detective community. Her success in solving these cases is a true testament to her intelligence and determination.

Roverer E. Patterson, Tuesday, was for the second time this season for the sake of exercise. The country around is in the best of condition, and the road to the mountains is very pleasant and interesting. After the rain and wet weather there has been a considerable amount of work done, and the country looks well.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, on which the route of the new train is located, has been in active operation for some time, and the progress of the work is satisfactory. The land is well suited for the purpose, and the line of track will be well adapted for the traffic it is intended to carry. The work is being done with great care and attention, and the line is expected to be opened for traffic next season. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is making every effort to complete the line as soon as possible, and the work is progressing steadily in that direction. The road will be of great importance to the trade of the country, and will afford a great deal of convenience to the people who live in the vicinity.

The city of Philadelphia appears to be in a prosperous condition, and the business is doing well. The streets are crowded with people, and the shops are well stocked with goods. The weather is warm and pleasant, and the people are enjoying themselves. The railroad is in active operation, and the traffic is much increased. The city is growing rapidly, and the population is increasing at a rapid rate. The business is doing well, and the people are prosperous.
