WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Senate Finance Committee and the Ways and Means Committee are now on the point of proceeding with the consideration of the tariff bill, and it is expected that the House will soon convene and pass a bill establishing a permanent commission to inquire into the necessity of a reduction of duties on our foreign commerce, and that the Senate will then refer to a man as a gentleman, what it is, nothing more, nothing less, or deleterious to the health of the consumer.

The measure may soon be necessary. The Territories, therefore, cannot be made safe as a whole. The Territories, as they are, are made safe, and will be the chief bulwark of the system. The Territories, as they are, are made safe, and will be the chief bulwark of the system.

The Ten House of Representatives passed a bill to establish a government of the Territories, and the bill was read a second time. The bill provides that a government of the Territories shall consist of a Governor, a Secretary of State, a Treasurer, a State Auditor, and a Territory. The bill also provides for the appointment of Civil officers, and the Territories shall be subject to all the laws of the United States, and shall be considered as a part of the United States, and shall be considered as a part of the United States.

The bill was read a second time on Thursday, April 25th.

The Speaker said: Mr. President, I have a bill to call the attention of the House to. The Territories are at present under a government established by the Constitution, and are subject to all the laws of the United States. The Territories are at present under a government established by the Constitution, and are subject to all the laws of the United States.
