Dorothy's Diamonds.

A woman in a black dress, with a white handkerchief tied near her eyes, was seated on the sand, under a shade tree, with a pencil and paper. She was writing a letter, and seemed to be in a state of excitement.

“Dear Mother,” she wrote, “I have some exciting news to tell you. I have found a diamond, worth a fortune! I am going to take it to the bank and have it appraised. I hope you will be pleased.

Dorothy.”

The letter was folded and put away in a pocketbook, which was then secured with a padlock.

The woman then arose, and walked away, leaving the pocketbook behind. The pocketbook contained a large diamond, worth several thousand dollars.

The woman had been auling around the streets of the city, picking up diamonds, and had finally discovered a large one, which she had taken to the bank for appraisal. She was very excited, and had written this letter to her mother, who lived in another state.

The woman then walked away, leaving the diamond behind. The diamond was found by the police, and turned over to the authorities. It was worth several thousand dollars, and was a valuable addition to the treasury of the city.

The Literary Society will meet at the meeting house in Norristown on Saturday, December 26. At the meeting Wednesday evening there will be read and discussed a letter from Mr. J. A. Smythe, near Hollow Valley, to the chairman of the board of the Literary Society, expressing the readiness of the neighborhood to contribute money and supplies for its aid in the support of the hospital at Norristown.

THANKSGIVING, DAY SERVICES.

The ladies of the Trinity Church, Wednesday afternoon, presented a beautiful arrangement of flowers, from which the pastor read with especial interest the 27th verse of the 118th chapter of the Psalms. Rev. Mr. Hibschman dwelt upon the liberality of the charitably disposed, and the solicitude of the charitable committee of the hospital for the welfare of the sick. Rev. Mr. Coxe said that they were always invited.

The Charity Hospital, Norristown, is in need of funds to enable it to meet its expenses for the year. The report is before the general board of the hospital, and the committee of ladies of the Trinity Church, next week, will have in charge the collection of funds for the hospital.

THANKS.

The Friends of Miss Sue Getty, who recently died, have been most attentive and kind. Miss Getty died Thursday evening, November 25, in the middle of February instead of by the middle of April, as reported.

ACCIDENTS.

Mr. William McFadden, of Yardley, was injured while at work on Saturday. While adjusting a belt on the engine at the Lederach home, Mr. McFadden was thrown into the air, and the engine which he was adjusting struck him. Mr. McFadden is expected to recover.

Mr. A. J. Trucksess, District Deputy Commissioner of Berks County, was at the hotel last week. He will remain in the city for the present, keeping up with the progress of the work, and will return to the county at the close of the session.

Mr. J. A. Smythe, near Hollow Valley, celebrated its first anniversary, Saturday. The old man uttered a "humph!" when Dr. William Brower, of Spring Garden, was introduced. The doctor was introduced by Mr. J. A. Smythe, who spoke of the hospitality of his neighborhood, and the love of the people to their neighbors. The doctor was introduced by Mr. J. A.
