Feud Program Brings New Entertainment

The radio program broadcast at the last Saturday evening brought something new to the entertainment to the campus.

The program opened with a take-off of "Portico Faces Life." The character of the program was made by Virginia Howells '47, as Portia, Richard Howells '47, as Portia, and George Grohs '46, as the hero, the present peace problem there, and the other side. The picture, "Shubert's Serenade," will be in the entertainment at the University of Pennsylvania, and the other entertainment will be presented by the Junior Advisory Board.

Dr. Winburn Thomas Addresses Group
On the future plans for the "Y" Weekend centered on the theme "Will Christian Youth Lose the Peace," considered the problem of maintaining the peace. The peace is right. The new occupation, the "Shubert's Serenade," will be in the entertainment at the University of Pennsylvania, and the other entertainment will be presented by the Junior Advisory Board.

The Newman Club Play, "Eve's Fantasy" from the Episcopal Church of Evanston, continued the discussion on friendship and marriage at the Jan. 27, 1946 meeting of the Canterbury Club. The students and pedestrians are invited to the presentation of the play, "Eve's Fantasy," which is being held at the University of Pennsylvania, and the other entertainment will be presented by the Junior Advisory Board.

Our friend Bob Geist seems to be playing the angles these days—some of the angles that—Joan W. and Jane N.

It didn't take Ken Rentihart long to find a place for himself at Ursinus. He has been quite a delightful change for the student body. When he brought to the college last week. It has been quite sometime since the sport editors have had to write about him. He has been quite a delightful change for the student body.

Charmaine has been accused of making eyes at you. She may find out that she isn't so much a charmer as a flirt.

Dustily and definitionally we saw that the Y.W.C.A. had won the basketball game at Wednesday night. Miss Mary and Miss Hilda attended for a few days.

Here 'n there at the Dance Tues-night—Shirt Friday and Jere Selvatar, fine looking fellows. Dick Gross and Jere Marge and Sam, Jimmy and Ed and Betty Cottrell and Bill, it looks like a section of last years good times—

A couple of "off and on" two-somers are: John and Jan and Jan, Vera and Jose.

"Last Weekend"—not for Timker when they met Betty Jane at party when Marty's around.

Friday nights radio show was quite thrilling. Those who tuned in were loved with more along that line—anything can happen, and it did, for the top of a prog. We all think it was a piece of work. Dick Gress as a violinist and David Pratts as a double Tony Russell, and for one moment we felt like we had the hat around. The boys let it go. They pay you to listen.

The Hot Box

With this issue of the Weekly, Bobby Keene and Harlan Durfee '48, the sports section editor, will bring this section to your attention. It has been quite sometime since the sport editors have had to write about him. His name has been quite frequently mentioned in the news. He has been quite a delightful change for the student body.

Caught Elliot Lawrence's won­nerful impression of a doctor twice every. Really sensational. We look for that spirit to go on living. Boys and girls! Our readers at this time member the last two Navy Balls we will agree on this point. This section provides a terrific treat for both boys and girls. Mr. Brown's monkeys in the hole Peter Reds play costs a lot.

While in New York heard Woody Herman is going to take over the Theatre who are as sensational as ever. Their latest record, "Mood Indigo," and "Sippin' at the Open End" prove that they are still on top of their game. That's the way to do it.

About 45 new veterans enrolled in the acc­re­credited Penn­state Newl­an­ Felden began Dec. 4. This brings the number of ex-servicemen martialed in Temple to approximately 750. Most of the former military veterans are registered in the School of Business and Public Administration. The veterans were tested by the College Entrance Examination Board on all academic subjects.

The winner attended the college of his own choice. Each scholarship consisted of full tuition and a minimum of $25 per month of the school year and a one­time payment of $250 for the first year.

The 1946 winners will be announced about April 2, 1946.

Basketball Teams Give Four Victories to Ursinus

Poole Tails 15 to Set Face as Bears Nose Out Haverford College Quintet 47-46

Withstand a desperate Haverfords and a valiant Ursinus' Bears outdistanced a 47-46 triumph over the Foxes Saturday night on the home court. The Bears easily swept to an 11 point advantage in the first three periods but in the last casto Haverford crept closer and closer until the score was finally knotted at 41-41. Dave Bahney's conversion of a foul goal snapped the score to Ursinus' favor, but Wagner of Haverford quickly whirled in a shot and a lay-up to give the Foxes a 44-43 lead, the first and only time in the game that they headed the Bears. Then, with less than a minute to go, Bob Poole matched Wagner's efforts by blasting in a two pointer, and converting a foul goal on the same play. Then with but seconds remaining, George Kennedy pushed in a tap-in to give the Bears a three point edge, but with four seconds remaining, Wagner hooked a beautiful shot into the net to put the Foxers one point behind, as the game ended.

Kennedy put the Bears into the lead after the opening whistle by making good on two foul shots, and with Bob Gratt and Poole leading the way, the Bears climbed to a 23-12 half-time lead.

High scorer for Ursinus was center Bob Poole who copped 15 off and the winner declared champions.

Ursinus Gains Sensational 83-59 Victory Over Strong League-Leading Delaware

Freeland bell tolled out the victory bugle early Sunday morning as the Ursinus girls 23-19, the first and only time this week any Ursinus team has been defeated. In scoring the fifteen point lead, Ursinus defeated Swarthmore 30-14 in the first quarter, scoring a total of 11 points on the cords with goals in the second half. Ursinus' Court Richardson and Bobi Geist dropped two quick goals in the last three minutes of the second half. Delaware, finding the winning margin a little tough through, was content to throw the ball into the court and thus failing miserably at the outset, they later found their "eyes" and slowly but surely away from Ursinus which had suddenly bogged down. At the end of the period the score was 16-9 in favor of Delaware. Fabio Geist made the first goal of the second half, Ursinus gained consistency at the outset, they were driven into the court and thus finding the winning margin impossible at the outset, they later found their "eyes" and slowly but surely away from Ursinus which had suddenly bogged down. At the end of the period the score was 16-9 in favor of Delaware. John Ulmer '49, who will play the part of Mr. North in the Curtain Club production opening Friday night.

Group II Selects Play

Group II of the Curtain Club, under the direction of Gladys Howard, have made the tentative plans for their play which will be presented to the entire group sometime in February. The play chosen is "Poor Aubrey," by George Kelly. The director and her assistant, Sue Bells, will make their final selection of the players in the near future.

Betsy Shumaker to Review Book

Betsy Shumaker '45, will present a review of Ben Luden Burman's "Rooster Crows for Day" tonight at the English Club meeting at the home of President Norman E. McClure.

This book is the first authentic novel of Equatorial Africa. The scenes are drawn through the eyes of Little Doc, a boy from Cotton Valley. Its young hero Yapi, who has helped to maintain or rebuild the educational centers of the war-devastated lands in Asia, and in Europe.

Do you think Mr. Ulmer is ever going to allow a cherry pie in the face again? Maybe so, as long as Janie Neagle isn't behind it!!

Harlan Durfee displayed the latest in footwork--a short "is it or isn't it" tie. . . Quite a "cut-up" isn't he?

Times are tougher than we thought up here when you have to work for food the way Dwight and Ruth did up there on the stage--and all for a cookie which they would have gotten for lunch any or every day next week.

Ask Don Faller who's the sweetest gal in Brodbeck. It's "Claire" enough to hit him!

Lucky Benny Martindale whose fiance Bob is in the states again. Lots of fun, Benny!!

Drew Courtenay and Joan Ludwig's chemistry equation in Bio class reacted unexpectedly and went to completion in the form of a trip to the Dean for both-College was fun kids, wasn't it?
