Enrollment Is Highest in History as Veterans Return Under G.I. Bill of Rights

New Group Includes Freshmen, Part-Times & Advanced Students

The Ursinus campus is becoming more like that of pre-war days as veterans return to continue their education. Many students have already made the move to campus and commence their education under the GI Bill. This fall's enrollment for the spring term reached a total of 1,582 students, the highest in the history of the college. Of this number, 582 are veterans. In 1940, only 24 women were in the total enrollment.

A total of 45 new students have started classes this semester. Of the 35 veterans, 10 are women and 25 are men. The total enrollment for spring is expected to be around 1,600 students.

Four men, including two from Valley Forge Military College, have been admitted as special students. There are also 7 students who are attending college part-time.

The former Ursinus students are: Amanda B. Lewis, Reading, Pa.; Robert Bohn, Beverly, N. J.; John Burkhart, Penn., N. J.; John Dillman, Reading, Pa.; Paul Detleff, Lansdale; Richard Egan, Loveland, Ohio; Carl E. Hames, Carl Drobilka, Girard; Frederick Schellhase, Hulmeville, Pa.; Thomas Henry, Red Hill; Larry Hertz, Haddonfield; David Langis, Trenton, N. J.; Joseph Newlin, Philadelphia; William O'Neill, Frackville; Henry Pfeiffer, Carlisle, Pa.; Frank DeNardo, Norristown; Lewis Ross, Bridgeport, Del.; Donna Schellhase, Girlsville, Pa.; Richard Westenre, Upper Darby; Robert Yorke, N. J.; and several others.

Mr. John Jacob, a social worker for Delaware County Children's Aid Society is a graduate of West Chester University and has received his Master of Arts degree from the University of Pennsylvania. He feels it would be a member of his family, have been accepted into the United States. The problem of discrimination remains an important one.

A graduate of Baptist Institue, and a member of the faculty of the Institute, was chosen as the president of the Institute. The president's residence is one of the most important positions in the Institute.

Lawanda Jacobs and Miltie Matsumoto, social workers, were married last Saturday night in Bordertown, N. J., and will make their home in Philadelphia. The couple was engaged and conducted by Barbara Dickson, director of the Institute of Religious and Racial Equality.

The Institute of Religious and Racial Equality is located on the campus of Ursinus College. It was founded to promote understanding and cooperation among people of different religious and racial backgrounds. The Institute conducts workshops, seminars, and conferences to foster dialogue and education on issues related to religion and race.

Cooperation is Keynote

The Ursinus glee club was forced to take on its appearance of pre-war days as 31 more veterans have returned to the college this semester, helping the total enrollment to 129. The student body as a whole looks toward this year's activities with promise, for most of these vets broke out, many activities were forced into the background for one reason or another. Today the glee club is back in full swing and this semester the responsibility of some activities has rested upon a certain group of individuals.

This group of returning veterans learned the purpose of teamwork while in service and they should be able to give that need to boost the larger of which it is a part. In the past semester these veterans have earned the interest of a certain group of individuals. The rest have been content to gripe about one situation or another. If the campus B.V. doesn't get back to normal, this complaining must be turned into cooperation and work by all.

Mermaids Open Season

With Win Over Temple

The Ursinus swimming team opened their season with a 12-1 victory over the Temple mermaids on Monday, February 18 at Conwell pool, Philadelphia. The Bears took first place in four of the six events and added three second and two third places for their points.

Bob Stangaule accounted for a first place in the fifty-yard breaststroke with the winning time of 37.6 seconds while Dusty Brooks follow-led her for a second.

The other top spot for Ursinus in individual competition went to Mimi Keesh in the low board diving with Balee Secor coming in third.

Ursinus took the honors in both the 75 yard medley relay and the 100 yard freestyle relay. Betty Walton, Sue Spanouge and Sue Booser were the winning combination. The score was 30-13, Temple scored 9-3 lead. In the last few minutes of the game Ursinus put on a scoring spree on baskets by Winnie, 12 scored first on a lay-up and Erma banked in two more. The Owlettes were an

The Urisinu girls went down to their second defeat of the year at the hands of Temple on Tuesday, Feb. 19, by a 32-28 score on the home court.

The undefeated Owlettes quickly took the lead when their rangy forward, Ginnie Boles outscored one in after which Bugs Calland scored Ursinus’ only point of the quarter on a foul shot. Temple picked up four more counters before the end of the quarter to give them a 6-1 edge.

In the second period Erma Keys and Jane Broch won the diving title and Bugs and Buta but the time was good for two points on an overhead pivot shot. Another Ursinus score came on beautiful passing. Bugs made a spot pass to Jane Broch cutting from the other side of the court who put the ball through the hoop for a counter. Chestnut Hill could only squeeze through onefield goal in that quarter and gave the Collegville girls a 9-3 lead.

Ursinus continued to score, but Chestnut Hill was deadly on one-hand shots from the side and cut down the visitor’s lead to 26-23 at the third quarter ended.

Erma Keys, Janie and Bugs were given the scoring assignments for that final crucial period. Janie scored first on a lay-up and Erma made a free throw to make the Ursinus score 39, but never to be the decided Chestnut Hill scored on a spot shot for a 29-25 score. The final score game, Chestnut Hill put too much pressure on an Ursinus pass to give their forward gutter, Jeanie with her usual fast shifting tacticment went to mini Keesh in the low board diving with Balee Secor coming in third.

Drexel Tallies One in Final Period as Bears Win Clash 37-33

In their last league start of the season, February 19, the Bears rallied to topple Drexel, 37-33, on the Engineer's court. In beating Drexel, Ursinus gained its seventh straight victory, and ninth win out of ten contests in league play. Drexel jumped off to a fast start and piled up an early six point advantage, leading at the quarter 19-11. Holding their lead, the Engineers paced by Mason and Dostal, left the court at halftime with an 18-15 advantage.

The Bears finally gained the lead for the first time in the game late in the third period when Bob Gerst's three field goals paced Ursinus into a 22-21 lead, and with Gerst and George Kennedy each scoring another goal, the Bears limited Drexel to one basket during the last quarter, and won 37-33.

Leading the Bears in scoring was Gerst with 13 counts, while Kennedy sank three field goals and two free shots for eight points. Mason led Drexel with ten.

All Stars Defeat Champions:
Amadeo High Scorer for Victors

In the preliminary games before the Bears-Susquehanna contest, the men's intramural "all star" five defeated Curtis' First Deck team, the intramural league champions, 39-32.

Jose Amadeo, Hal Fishman, Art Barger, Vance Garner, and Ed Hashimoto started for the all stars, and with Amadeo and Fishman setting the pace they built up an early lead, coasting to a 24-16 lead at halftime. Frank Everett and Herb Hallinger kept First Deck within range by sinking goals later in the half.

Soon after the second half started, all the stars placed another squad on the floor with Bob Schreiber and Charlie Angiulii at forwards, Harlan Darrell, center and Jerry Cotler and Bill韦ber at guards, and Demetrio kept the early all star lead, and won going away.

Amadeo was high scorer for the victors, netting 19, while Hallinger led First Deck with 9.

SusquehannaSwamped
By Fast Scoring Bears

Completing their regular season with their eighth straight victory, Ursinus dropped Susquehanna, 59-39, Friday night, February 22.

Coach Emil Messkamer started his second team, with the exception of Bob Gerst, and this quartet racked up a 15-9 lead before Fellows dropped in the first Susquehanna goal. The Bears let up a bit in the third quarter after leading 39-19 at halftime, and late in the third quarter Susquehanna drove to within nine points of the Bears, which was the closest they came to the Bears after the first few minutes. Bob Poole and Craig poured in baskets during the fourth quarter, and ran the count to 56-33, as the final whistle blew.
