WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Dec. 18, 1852.

... The party is not disposed to yield an inch to the advocates of the division of the Union, and the feeling is that the two sides, the North and the South, are quite as far apart as ever. ...
The best idea of a Sabbath day's entertainment is found in this locality. At the Cherry Tree School, graduation at the Cherry Tree School was at 9:00 a.m. every Sabbath. It was a grand sight, and the public was invited to attend. The following was published in the York Gazette.

A CONTRACT DEED.

To be executed on the 1st day of January, 1893, by the undersigned, Wm. Brown, for the sum of $10,000 dollars, to be paid in three equal installments, to the order of the said Wm. Brown.

J. W. Johnson, Attorney.

The following transactions have been published in the York Gazette.

The new Coroner, Milton R. Kurtz, has charge of the York Coroner's Office. He is a leading member of the Evangelical church. He will be increased from time to time to meet the exigencies of the people.
