Y Members Attend Retreat to Plan Future Activities

Increasingly interesting and activities, and a new theme, "Living in the Image of God" in the plans formulated at the recent Christian Student Union retreat at the Oldsmont Center near Philadelphia.

In the future, the retreats will be conducted by thirty-two students, the leaders of the retreat, Dr. W. H. Kehl, president; Betty Bremmer, club's vice-president; and Marcia Lappin, club's secretary.

The aim of the retreats is to help students grow spiritually and to develop a stronger sense of community within the Christian Student Union.

With two weeks remaining in the contest, the boys are nearing the finish line. The goal of $1500 is needed to put the drive over the top.

As of Friday morning, the total amount of money raised was $1500.00. The contest, which began on June 1, will continue until June 15.

Navy Ball is Success as Band Takes Spotlight

Orchids and roses to the prom-terms for that perfect Navy ball night. From first glimpse of the gym until the last dip, Navy life was celebrated.

Elliott Lawrence, his orchestra, and vocalists set the mood of "Good Night, Sweetheart," a wonderful time was had by all.

It is estimated that the gala event will be a success, with proceeds going to benefit the Navy Relief Society.

The purpose of the retreat is to help students grow spiritually and to develop a stronger sense of community within the Christian Student Union.
Gaff from the Grizzly

May has gone the way of all good months and in her place June comes. But before the month is over the sun should "grizzly" of all our seniors ...

And what a lovely ball that was the night of the Academy of Music. It was standing not only in their beauty but their refinement. The whole evening.

Some of the couples who were flowers (not in the sense of the true rose) were Benny and Karl, Bob and Betty, Mary Jane and Joe, and Sam and Libby.

Those confusin' brothers around the campus ought to cease any more frustration — Bob and Peter DeHelm plus Bill and Joe Middleton.

Some people didn't get until quite late in sleep. It was a shock to be met by the dinner bell. "The dinner bell?" "I thought you were joking.

All those veterans in the locker room ... ya gotta leave something to the imagination.

What the mighty boat Ship's Co. and the Middletons during a song would be appreciated. "Do In and Out the Window.""

It isn't nice that some girls have broken up with their boyfriends back. Buckingham wholly advocate the large family idea.

The Hot Box

News of the month: Trumpey and June B. Philadelphia will see one of the finest jazz concerts in years is organized. Of such stellar men as Don Byas, Davis Greek, "Bugs" Carlin, Trumpy Young, Slam Stewart, Bud Powell, and as well many others — Franko would, in smaller places, such a chance to see some great heads of the current scene.

Note to Doc White: Les Eichgat, leader of that fine new group, recently married. The Eichgat, Carlin, Trumpy and Slam Stewart, and Doc White, as well as many others — Franko would, in smaller places, such a chance to see some great heads of the current scene.

Nite Club Sign: "Not responsible for personal property after three drinks." One of the violinists with Glenn Miller's BG, band is named Robert Ripley, believe it or not.

First Composer: "Where do you get the main theme for your second symphony?"

Second Composer: "From the swing arrangement of front line."

DISCLOSURES: "Clarinet Hijinx" by Bill Bohn. Bill is a boy who's got spots some fine clarinet and drum work on his record you will be interested in.

"Apple Honey," a sentimental jump by Woody Wonderful, has not been released. Features Woody, Dave Tough, Peggy, and Fred Deck. Grub it in, "Paint Me," a Les Brown piece, is a nice vocal and some fine tram work. That girl can sing.

Brush: Silent Movie Ball:悲惨的悲剧

Singer: "Don't you like my voice?"

Accompanist: "Madam, I have played on the white keys and I have played on the black keys — but the black ones aren't right."

That's all brother.

In the Service

From Bob Bohn ex-45, now stationed east of the Rhine, comes the following letter:

"Many times I have been tempted to write a note of appreciation for the articles you have written in The U.S. News about the sacrifices and difficulties that we all share in this war."

I read the paper from cover to cover today and I was fascinated with some names are unfamiliar to me but it is good to see that the paper carries on with its fine traditions.

The following items in the Rhine Valley tributary to his brother, I thought it was marvelous to think of our brave men and women. How well they have handled the situation and the Middletons during interregnumperiods in theidotest. When the headwaiter attempts to read an announcement, some continuous with their conversations—thereby leaving room for the announcement and those others who wish to listen. The headwaiter's read doesn't read. because he wants to listen to you for your convenience — so what is going on. Why not try to listen politely? It won't take nearly as much time.

How many boys walk through the doors in Breakfast Hall? It is a matter of how many boys walk through the doors in Breakfast Hall that you can let the door fly back in some girl's face? The whole ceremony of retreat is a matter of respect to our country's flag. How many of those nearest person during it? The whole ceremony of retreat is a matter of respect to our country's flag. How many of those nearest person during it?

In September, Pfc. E. Woodhead Heller, 45, of the Army, comes out of the Army. He is a graduate of Ursinus College, while. The assumption that sooner or later we shall the line of that attribute fit all our of all our good sense ...

The MAIL BOX

Dear Sisters:

A large majority of students have agreed that the Navy ball was the most enjoyable of the year so far. We mentioned the chairman with such recognition. This year is going to be the most perfect, "the orchestra was wondering that the nucleus of the orchestra, "we were happy to heartful thanks to all of the 6th term pre-meds for their contribution."

Fred Deck and the Middletons.

Several interesting commentaries came to our attention. The one by a former member of the V-12, McLean being the victim of one of those "slippin' up" things, has off-campus dates must be canceled, a trip to the Greek dances. So Speer, following this plan, has been given a pre­avalon on a blind date for the Navy ball. When asked his date's name, he replied, "Mary what? -Mary — I don't know why Speer want too well acquainted with the girl, but things worked out happily and now Speer knows Mary's last name.

Things were really contagious at the buffet table. Many of the quests engaged in one evening definitely indicates a trend toward a ma­tricity.

What a series of chance that jazz player had! — he missed his calling. Bill Bohn and Bailey's tight-rope are.

Twenty-three pre-meds are adjuring to Rainbowdale at the end of the school year. This is quite a change from previous years, though, "cause Skinner-says there's not enough of them to hold a study in all the time.

Not that I live on First Deck Chicken Pies, but I'm told that First Deck Chicken has polished off its last lowly opponent, all that remain­ship is Second Deck Chicken—but we're just a man and woman.

Break out the smiles — finals next week.

The Association of Yugoslavia and Italy at longeagres in the old familiar way over Trieste have worked on their projects for a new world. With the Soviet supporting the Yugoslav idea, or as it is formed, friendly to Italy, seems to have revised its position and to be exploiting Italian nationalism as a policy. The Yugoslav idea of how Britain fears the emergence of Russia into Mediterranean politics via Trieste and is desperately trying to hold back Soviet influence to what is known as the Hamborg-Trieste line. That's all brother.

Trieste, which the Yugoslavians tried to discuss with the British as far back as 1941, is the key to the old family business of settlement of the Mediter­ranean. It is the natural outlet of Yugoslavia, Hungary, San­corot, and should work under international man­agement. Economically and traditionally it is the natural outlet of Yugoslavia, Czechoslavakia, Italy, and Austria. The manage­ment of this outlet is likely to degrade the Yugoslav idea and is a matter of how many boys walk through the doors in Breakfast Hall that you can let the door fly back in some girl's face? G. I. Bill of Rights

Of the veterans of the present war who have taken advantage of educational opportunities offered by the G. I. Bill of Rights, approximately 80 percent are enrolled in colleges, uni­versities, and other educational institutions while 20 per­cent are taking courses of less than half-time or have enrolled in occupational training. This announcement was made in Washington, D. C., by Brig. Gen. Frank J. Hines, administrator of the Veterans Administration.

There were 13,864 veterans receiving education under the bill on January 1 and of these 1,159 have chosen to continue in colleges while 275 have taken job-training courses.
Softball Team Downs Swarthmore 7-0; Erma Keys Allows Only Three Hits

Downing Swarthmore 7-0 on Friday at the Swarthmore college field, the girls’ softball team maintained their undefeated softball record.

Erma Keys once again hurled a victory for the coeds, allowing only three scratch hits and striking out six players.

Swarthmore’s first score came in the opening inning when with two outs Jane Brewer singled, stole second and came home on Carrie Richardson’s single to right field.

Bosler belted their tally up to four in the second inning, getting three hits for three runs. Stiles Anderson and Stix Brewer both singled while Lois Cain once again reached first when the catcher missed the third strike. Andy scored on a passed ball while Evelyne Meyer gets credit for driving in the other two runs in.

Janie Brewer crossed the plate again in the third for the lone Ursinus tally but losing when Court got another hit. Anne Byenbach scored in the fifth and Ceci Duinin in the sixth for the other two Ursinus runs.

Captain Richardson continued her hitting streak with three hits for four times at bat, while Erma Keyes allowing three hits.

Two in the seventh and one in the eighth brought the Ursinus tally to 10-8, culminating in a 17-9 victory.

PACKINGUPTOGO HOME PROVES ONLY PRELUDE TO COMING YEAR'S TROUBLE AND EXAMS

Along about this time of year, there comes a dilemma with which we are all faced. Perhaps for most of us who participate in the great art of procrastination this dilemma will strike us in a few weeks. As for its title—well, technically it is known as packinguphtogohome. The last minute rush is always accompanied by various and sundry predicaments. Seniors are rapidly and tearfully building good homes and there is a mad rush to recover lost or loaned articles. In the hurly-burly of activities you step in the middle of your program of recreation breathing the implement that is to keep your waistline down this summer. But at last you get everything to and with the help of those people sitting on the suitcase, it is forced shut, locked, and strapped for safety. As you gaze with regret you suddenly see two shirts that were forgotten and help is called in while the process begins all over again. After much sweat and toil you're all set to go. But there's Pop! The answer comes as the telephone rings and an irate voice announces that "Pop" is stuck halfway between here and there with a flat tire and no gas. By borrowing your roommates last dollar you run for the bus. The staggering mass of humanity at Main and Mul maine would make the Mandi Grass or the last act of Carmen seem like mere bridge four. Singing helps cheer the bus ride to N. At the end of the songs you aren't met with the "muddling crowd." A seat is found on the "Peke and Whiffle" and as you sink into the chair you finally realize to start preparations way before exams—next year.

Navy to Enlist Men for Air Corps

In order to meet a current and temporary need for prospective naval aviators the Bureau of Naval Personnel has authorized the local offices of Naval Officer Procurement to enlist candidates as prospective naval aviators and sign upon successful completion of approximately two years training starting July 1. The only criteria for eligibility for the enlistment is that the limited quota are physically qualified for service. It has been suggested by the Bureau that those men, civilian or partially trained Mr. Rimby has decided to switch for safety. As you gaze with regret you suddenly see two shirts that were forgotten and help is called in while the process begins all over again. After much sweat and toil you're all set to go. But there's Pop! The answer comes as the telephone rings and an irate voice announces that "Pop" is stuck halfway between here and there with a flat tire and no gas. By borrowing your roommates last dollar you run for the bus. The staggering mass of humanity at Main and Mul maine would make the Mandi Grass or the last act of Carmen seem like mere bridge four. Singing helps cheer the bus ride to N. At the end of the songs you aren't met with the "muddling crowd." A seat is found on the "Peke and Whiffle" and as you sink into the chair you finally realize to start preparations way before exams—next year.

M.J. and Dave looked "sent" in these fields will receive considerable attention. The School of Medicine, Winston-Salem, recently conducted a screening test to identify which of its students who may be interested apply for medical and surgical training in the nearest Red Cross area office.
