Ursinus Girls Give To War Fund Drive

Women Average More Than Dollar Per Person

You can be there—You can give! That is the plea of the National War fund, and Ursinus women, eager to be there, and eager to give, have donated an average of more than one dollar per person to this great cause. The Women's student Government association sponsored the drive on campus.

Although the contributors cannot be there in person, their money will visit every USO club, every refuge center, every feeding station, and every other area of human need met by the National War fund. Both civilian and Navy students at Ursinus realize this fact, and that is why they responded so willingly to Mr. Joel Francis' request for support to the drive.

The campaign was carried on through dormitory competition on a percentage basis, and a captain was appointed in each dorm to have charge of canvassing.

Lynnwood had the distinction of being the first dorm to reach the 100% mark in its donations, while Glenwood was the first whose contributions were over 100%.

The dorm contributions are:

Dormitory	No. of girls	Total
Highland	16	6.81
944	15	8.50
Fircroft	17	17.00
Lynnwood	12	12.00
612	14	14.00
Shreiner	29	30.50
South	21	21.00
Hobson	17	12.50
Maples	30	30.00
Duhring	9	8.00
Clamer	25	25.00
Glenwood	24	25.00
Day Study	25	25.00

Campus organizations also contributed to the cause, the combined Y's and the Women's Student council each giving $25, and sororities contributing $41.85.

Although the dollar which was contributed means little to the giver, it will mean entertainment for fighting men, food for starving Greeks, medical supplies to gallant Russians, much needed as—

Red Cross Requests Blood Donations

Will you give a pint of blood to save a soldier's life? The students of Ursinus and residents of Collegeville will have this opportunity on Thursday, December 16.

If you are between the ages of 21 and 60 and in normal good health, the Red Cross Blood Donor service will be glad to have your blood as the need is urgent! This blood, made into plasma, works its miracle of lifesaving right at the battle front or on a storm-tossed destroyer.

For the first donation each volunteer receives a bronze lapel pin; for the third, a silver pin. Students are urged to volunteer early in the week so that a schedule of appointments might be made. If students have preferences in regard to time, they will be honored as much as possible. Failure to keep an appointment may prevent another person from donating unless a notice is given immediately.

The Women's Student Government association is handling the arrangements. Margie Gelpke '46, and Winifred Clark '46, are co-chairmen. The time will be announced later.

Jane Kircher Becomes New I R C President

Jane Kircher '44, was elected president of the International Relations club at the recent reorganization meeting of the group. Other new officers are Betty Jane Cassett '45, vice-president; Inge Benda '44, secretary-treasurer, and Peggy Brunner '46, program chairman.

Sophomores, upperclassmen and V-12 students who wish to become IRC members may hand applications to club officers tonight. New members will be entertained at a reception December 14.

The club will meet the first and third Tuesdays of each month, beginning tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in Shreiner.

The following books were recently presented to the IRC by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, which sends the club books yearly:

R. B. Mowart, Preston Slosson, History of the English-Speaking Peoples.

R. M. McIver, Toward An Abid—

Freshmen Revel at Annual Banquet In Freeland Hall—Without Sophomores

by Richard Clover '45

Warning to all freshman men: Do YOU want to marry that girl who sat across from you at the freshman banquet? If not, please leave college immediately! On the other hand, if she seemed nice, and was beautiful (nearly all Ursinus girls are, of course), stick around, kid, and you'll probably marry the dame. Look at Dr. Brownback, for instance. From what we saw, he certainly didn't get a bad deal.

Warning to all freshman women: Be careful, girls; you could see as well as we could last Friday night that there were many more girls than boys. So, if you decide to marry the fellow across the table (that is, the one who sat opposite you), be very certain that your dream boy hasn't been doing too much stray dreaming himself. Remember—he had plenty to dream about.

After counting credits in the reg-

WSGA To Have War Stamp Booth

As a part of the program to revive interest in the sale of war bonds and stamps, the Women's Student Government association will have erected by tomorrow a booth in the Supply store where students may buy bonds and stamps after lunch and dinner.

Civil Service Seeks Over 100 Draftsmen

Women Especially Desired For Federal Agencies Work

Over a hundred draftsmen are being sought by the U. S. Civil Service commission for work in Federal agencies that is necessary to the prosecution of the war. Entrance salaries range from $1,752 to $3,163 a year, including pay for the eight hours of overtime incorporated in the 48-hour federal workweek.

Draftsmen of all types are needed, particularly ship, electrical, and mechanical draftsmen, as well as topographic draftsmen. Agencies needing these types of personnel in the greatest numbers are the several bureaus of the Navy department, the Coast and Geodetic survey of the Department of Commerce, and the Geological survey of the Department of the Interior. The Treasury department and the War Production board utilize statistical draftsmen.

Qualified engineering draftsmen in any field are urged to apply. However, persons without previous experience in the fields where needs exist may be appointed and trained in the subject. Women are especially desired.

The need for draftsmen is greatest in Washington, D. C. However, draftsmen are also needed in all parts of the United States as well as its territories and possessions.

Interested persons may secure Announcement 283 and application forms from first- and second-class post offices; from Civil Service regional offices in regional headquarters' cities; or from the U. S. Civil

The Spanish club will elect a president at a meeting this week, the time of which will be announced. Anyone interested may attend.

President Glen Stuart '44, has announced her resignation. Other officers of the club at present are Helen Dean '44, vice-president, and Jean Featherer '45, secretary.

All meetings of the group are conducted in Spanish.

Jackie Loughead's Orchestra To Play At Senior Ball This Saturday Night

Curtain Club To Give Jupiter Laughs Next

Jupiter Laughs, by A. J. Cronin, has been chosen as the play to be given in January by the Curtain club. All members will be eligible for tryouts, which will be held as soon as the playbooks arrive.

New members of the club, as the result of the tryouts held last week, are as follows: Constance Johnson '46, Fritz Heimbach V-12, James Dull V-12, Carol Strode '47, Carolyn Howells '47, Charlene Taylor '47, Eileen Smith '44, Ethel Evans '45, Geraldine Kirkpatrick '47, James D. Preaskorn '45, Lois Wilson '47, Joan Wilmot '47, Beverly Cloud '45, Jeanne Loomis '47, Marjorie Coy '47, Virginia Haller '47, Robert Quay V-12, and Leonard Schwartzstein V-12.

Humorous monologues, stories in dialect, selections of poetry, and familiar quotations were either read or recited, and the hopefuls were judged on their posture, speech volume, clearness, tone quality, and stage presence. Upon completion of each selection, the newcomer took in hand a glass of water, carrying it from one side of the stage to the other, pouring the contents into an empty glass, and returning with the empty glass to the starting position. This was a test for posture and stage presence.

Y's TO ENTERTAIN STUDENTS AT TEA IN SHREINER HALL

Sunday afternoon will find the students en masse at Shreiner hall when the Y's entertain at a welcome tea.

With Navy and civilian students invited, Betty Jane Cassatt, social committee head, and Lois Ann Fairlie, of the program group, are sharing the responsibility.

Mrs. McClure, Mrs. Helferich, Miss Stahr, and Mrs. Sheeder will do the honors at the table while decorations are in charge of Justine Richards '46. Emma K. Hartman '44, heads the refreshment committee and Anne Styer '46, the entertainment.

The World Student Service fund drive originally scheduled for this week has been postponed until March.

John Swamley, youth secretary of the Fellowship of Reconciliation of the Society of Friends, spoke to a group of twenty-five interested students at the Sheeder home Friday evening. The talk on the peace after this war was followed by an animated discussion and refreshments.

DR. GEORGE HARTZELL SPEAKS TO STUDENTS AT VESPERS

With Dr. George W. Hartzell as the guest speaker, Vesper services were sponsored last evening at 6:30 p. m. by the combined Y's in Bomberger chapel.

Professor of German, Dr. Hartzell stressed the fact that when we judge others, we judge them by our own actions. And in so doing we often make virtues out of faults. Dr. Hartzell quoted John Greenleaf Whittier and Goethe.

Before the regular Vespers services, Grace Knopf '44, led the singing of hymns in the Bomberger chapel.

PHYS-EDDERS MEET TONIGHT

At the first meeting of the Physical Education club in Rec center at 7:00 p. m. tonight, four senior girls will discuss different phases of their experiences in physical education work.

Marion Bright will talk on teaching in a large high school and Julia Ludwick will tell about teaching in a medium-size high school. Mildred Halbruegge will give some of her experiences in play ground work and Jeanne Mathieu will discuss camping.

Members of the club include all students who are either majoring or minoring in physical education.

Dancers To Be Served Food At Intermission in Freeland

Students, V-12 men, and their guests will dance to the music of Jackie Loughead's orchestra at the Senior ball to be held in the Thompson-Gay gymnasium on Saturday, December 11, from 8:00 to 12:00 p. m.

No outside couples will be admitted. Students and V-12 men desiring to bring guests must obtain an invitation from the program committee which consists of co-chairmen Anna McDaniel and William Middleton V-12, and Mary Jane Lytle, Emily Greenawald, Jean Espenshade, and Margaret McKinney.

James Marshall, president of the senior class, announces an innovation in the form of food, probably a breakfast, to be served in the upper and lower dining rooms during intermission. Navy men may sit in either of the dining rooms. This plan of serving breakfast during intermission has worked out successfully at other eastern colleges for several years.

Tentative plans for decoration call for the scene of a hunting lodge. Members of the decoration committee include co-chairmen Jane Kircher and John Fitzgerald V-12, and Mary Eval, Betty Baberich, Mildred Halbruegge, Jessanne Ross, Richard Hart, and John Yost.

Jackie Loughead's thirteen piece orchestra from Chester was secured by co-chairmen Loraine Walton and Gene Massey V-12, and Leona Miller.

In the receiving line will be James Marshall, president of the senior class, and his guest, Dr. and Mrs. Norman E. McClure, Dean Whorten A. Kline, Dean of Women Camilla B. Stahr, Dr. and Mrs. George Hartzell, and Dr. and Mrs. J. Harold Brownback, chaperones.

HEAD COOK AT COLLEGE DIES AT HOME OF HEART ATTACK

Joseph Taphorn, head cook at Ursinus College for 11 years, died yesterday at his home in Evansburg at the age of 41.

He was recovering from a heart attack which had confined him to Norristown hospital for a month recently. He had been in ill health since last August.

A native of Germany, Mr. Taphorn served in the German army in World War I and suffered chest wounds.

Mr. Taphorn had resided in the men's dormitory until last March, when he married Anneliese Henneser and moved to Evansburg. His wife survives him.

Services will be held Thursday at 8:30 a. m. at the Fluehr Funeral home, Philadelphia, with requiem mass at 10 a. m. at St. Henry's church. Interment will be in Holy Sepulcher cemetery, Philadelphia.

BIG AND LITTLE SISTERS WILL ATTEND MOVIE FRIDAY

Big sisters and little sisters will get together as one big happy family Friday night. They will attend movies in Pfahler hall at 8:00 p. m. and return to Shreiner for refreshments. Y-sponsored, the affair is in charge of Lois Ann Fairlie '45, and Peggy McKinney '45.

What is a big sister? To a bewildered freshman, she is a veritable guardian angel. (Any connection with soph rulers is purely coincidental.) She helps her little sister to become acquainted with the college, its customs and rules.

Peg McKinney, chairman of the big sister committee, can tell you that the assigning of big-little sisters is not a matter of teaming up just any freshman with just any upperclassman. Freshman applications are studied and, insofar as possible, girls with some note of similarity in interests or personality form the duos.

POST-WAR EDUCATION

In order to provide for the education of our fighting men and women, the establishment of the U. S. Armed Forces institute at Madison, Wisconsin, as a central clearing house of information on college credit for military experience has been announced. At the request of any person in the armed forces or a person recently discharged from service, the institute will assemble all information on his—or her—service activities of an educational nature. It will also transmit such information to the school or college of the individual's choice.

Meanwhile, the nation's colleges have agreed on some basic points about post-war education. If the colleges have their way, servicemen and women returning to college campuses after the war will be granted scholarships to study anything from Medieval English to engineering, medicine or law. What the colleges have in mind is a broad educational program which would include liberal arts, and vocational, professional and refresher courses.

They are determined to avoid the mistake, made after the last war, of assuming that vocational education alone will be of value to returning military personnel.

The colleges further went on record as favoring some type of voluntary planning to gear their graduates to the needs of post-war industry. This could be done, they agreed, by relating their educational programs to the technical, supervisory and professional needs in their areas.

The colleges were also in favor of national surveys to obtain all possible information on country-wide potential employment needs. But they formed a solid block of opinion against government-established student quotas based on those needs.

Concerning the study of liberal arts today, The Washington Post printed the following opinion:

"For the present, no doubt, the liberal arts must remain subordinate to a variety of vocational training programs indispensable to the winning of the war. None of our great universities or colleges, however, has wholly done away with its teaching of the humanities or abandoned the intention of reviving this phase of its activities at the war's end. Changes in teaching methods may be expected. No doubt interest will be focused on new subjects as a consequence of our fresh awareness of the Orient, of Latin America and of the Soviet Union. But such changes can be counted upon to broaden, rather than narrow, the scope of our intellectual concern. To meet the problems of the post-war world, men will need above all else to cultivate a knowledge of themselves!

WSGA BACKS REAL DRIVE

Congratulations to the student body for making a real success of the National War fund drive!

And congratulations, WSGA! At last, an organization has put over a drive which everybody understood beforehand and was willing to help out. Captains of the various teams have a right to be proud in saying that their contributors gave without asking questions of why or what for.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

Can you imagine:

Jane Brusch without a smile;
 Margie Seitz without male trouble;
 Bill Shope without a line;
 John Trevaskis and Yem Williams;
 Breakfast in bed for the sailors.

Back to the Mines

Have you missed Lou George? We hear tell that Jane Thomas, for whom Lou bussed in the dining room, is really sad over his leaving school. So is the sophomore class who are minus a treasurer and a man!!

Beauty 'n the Beasts

Frosh Joan Wilmot mixes beauty 'n brains to the delight of her male admirers.

At the last weekly gym dance we noticed Jean Perry who really jitters when she bugs!

Sink or Swim

Leona Miller would make a gorgeous life guard for some swimming pool. (P.S.—Please bring own life preserver.)

Making History

We quote Dr. Carter when he explained the back work to those students who were absent. "Hill-billy songs by Carney, hymns by Marshall, Pistol-Packin' Mama by the class, and a good time was had by all."

Slower, Please

Someone will have to help us with the tempo when we sing hymns on Sunday evening before Vespers. We just couldn't get together last night.

In the Dining Room

Say, who does Roger bus for these days? We see him at so many different tables talking to so many different people—or would Betsy know the answer?

Government Employee

Nickey and the girls can't keep up with Courtenay Richardson any more. She must be the busiest girl on campus. This time, they saw her working in the Post Office.

THE MAIL BOX

Letter to the Editor:

The war has made a lot of changes on the ole homestead and campus traditions are being blitzed. But we're not here to bury a tradition; we're going to try to save one.

We refer to the feeling of unfriendliness on campus. The coeds say that the Navy boys are to blame, and the Navy boys say that the fault is the coeds. The only sailors who have that friendliness are the former Ursinus students who are now in the V-12 unit. At any rate, the article in the last Weekly about friendliness had no effect. We listened, but we didn't hear what it said.

We think that the solution is a hard one. Studies and Navy regulations limit our means. Those weekly Wednesday night dances are a start, but they are unsuccessful in bridging the gap of amnesty. They are too big, too formal, and the very atmosphere is artificial. They are not the solution.

What we need is a chummy atmosphere, a place where tired students can go to chew the rag and relax among girls and fellows, after a gruelling session with a physics or history chapter. There is such a place, but it, like the weekly gym dances, has been a failure so far. We refer to the new Supply store.

There is a typical college hang-out. A place to go when you're feeling low and need that "pause that refreshes," a little friendly atmosphere, and a bit of relaxation.

The Y should take this problem to heart. The spreading of friendship on campus is their true function. They could easily arrange for

On the Shelves

With this issue of The Weekly we begin, through the editor's kind cooperation, a regular column on books and library matters which we feel will be of real interest to the College family. We greatly appreciate this opportunity. A college library is the students' and faculty's library, and a medium is needed for bringing to your attention regularly, new acquisitions, projects and routines.

To all, and especially to those of you who have been with us only a little more than a month, we wish to say that we are here to serve you, and welcome questions at any time about matters upon which we can help you. Don't hesitate to drop into our offices in the west wing at any time that you need assistance; our doors are always open. A librarian is never too busy to be disturbed; his profession is one of service.

We wonder how many of you have paused to examine the exhibit of Chinese and American Indian objects in the new exhibit cabinet in the vestibule of the library? We plan to change these displays periodically, and thus bring before you some of the especially interesting objects and books in the library.

We invite your attention to the library regulations posted on the bulletin board. Regulations are kept at a minimum, and we expect your cooperation. A few have forgotten, recently, the regulation regarding seating. We bring this to your attention here.

A great many students, we believe, have not yet taken advantage of our rental collection service. This service makes available current books of interest (light and otherwise), and we commend it to your use. Other new books—many very readable—are placed on the "New Books" shelves near the circulation desk. These change constantly, and deserve your attention. Lists of recent accessions are available at all times on the tables near the door.

The Librarians.

The Head Waiter Says-

Upon returning from the metropolis last Wednesday at suppertime, the glad tidings were conveyed to me of the disappearance of certain silverware. At this news I experienced no end of bliss, for 'tis my duty to keep things running smoothly in the dining room. This, I thought, would speed up service considerably. Service, however, was not speeded up, there being no straws available at the time.

As the merry throng entered the dining room, I noticed that by some strange coincidence, certain students had brought complete sets of silverware with them. I passed this off, telling myself that they probably brought the utensils in case some of those on the table were dirty (no cracks, please).

There were three girls in the dining room who, I was certain, had nothing to do with the disappearance. One of them was stirring coffee with a knife, one was trying to consume a bowl of soup by lifting it to her mouth on a fork (hers was the last table finished), and the third had apparently cut her meat with her fingernails.

the installation of a juke-box in the supply store and regulate its use, so that it will not interfere with classes during the day. The Y could lend a hand to the hard-working students behind the Supply store's counters during evening rush hours and mix the crowd and cokes, too.

Or how about rec hall every night? In the old days, this was the best "get acquainted" spot on campus.

All we need is an opportunity to get started, to feel at home, and to adopt the true college spirit. Once we have this, then bring on the weekly dances and formal balls and watch the sailors and coeds step out!

A juke box in the supply store or rec hall every night is the solution. Sailors and coeds alike find time for a nightly dash to the Bakery, the Drug, and to Brad's. The idea is to get the students to mix at the same time and the same place.

Sincerely,
 Irene Sufas '46

Collegiate Review

Ohio State

Woolies may be the style this year, not for beauty's sake, but for more practical purposes on the Ohio State campus.

"All the buildings on campus will be kept under 70 degrees in temperature in compliance with President Bevis' request to save fuel," Paul H. Elleman, maintenance engineer, said recently in a warning to Ohio Staters.

Reasons for having more heat turned on will have to be pretty good to get results, he added.

It is doubtful that the coeds at Ohio State will go back to "grandma's day" and wear six or eight petticoats, a muff or even long underwear, but more slacks and flannel skirts may be expected to be seen on campus.

Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Professor Kurrelmeyer of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology complained recently about the illegibility of the papers turned in by his students and suggested that they use a typewriter to ease his deciphering task. During the next German quiz the quiet of the room was suddenly shattered by the pecking of a typewriter in the back of the room. It seems that one Oliver Selfridge was taking the professor at his word—literally!

Michigan

J. A. Foster, teacher at Michigan State, recently proved his domesticity to one English class. To fill the dead-pan silence following the words, "Are there any questions?" he explained in answer to questions about his dirty hands that he had peeled a bushel of peaches the night before.

Texas State College for Women

WCBT, Texas State College for Women's first private broadcasting station, is on the air from 5 to 6 p. m., Monday through Friday.

The station is operated by the Radio Work Shop players, technical radio class and the radio production class.

Because the only aim of the station is to please its student listeners, programs to be broadcast are designed specifically for students, based on answers to questionnaires distributed to the student body. Majority of students chose single unit dramatic programs with semi-classical music and campus newscasts second and third. Members of the radio production class are working out the programs, and every type of entertainment from movie reviews to dramatic productions will be presented.

As the college is operated completely on its own power plant and power lines are used as the station antenna, WCST will be heard only on the campus.

In the eyes of the Federal Communications commission, WCST is not considered a radio station and therefore doesn't require a license. Any transmitter that broadcasts for a very short distance, according to regulations of FCC, in the layman's language, is not considered a real broadcasting station. If it were, FCC would have to regulate wireless phonographs and remote-control-tuning devices which are really miniature transmitters that broadcast across the living room to the radio. Anything broadcasting less than 150 feet is safe from Federal interference.

SOCIETY NOTES

Kappa Delta Kappa sorority is getting the jump on Ol' St. Nicholas this Yuletide season and ringing in the holiday spirit with a Christmas party to be held at Rec center, Saturday evening, December 18. Irene Sufas '46, is in charge of the gala fete and guests are assured of a festive eve of dancing, games, refreshments, and an impromptu variety show.

If the girls of Lynnewood look gaunt with hunger, don't get excited. They are just getting in shape for a buffet dinner to be given for them by Mr. and Mrs. Franklin I. Sheeder at Lynnewood on Thursday evening.

G. Donald Wickerham '47, spent a few days at Trappe visiting Mrs. Peter Stevens. The newly elected prexy of the freshman class was escorted to and fro by a vanguard of distinguished sophomores. An enjoyable time was had by all.

It's Knauer or never for the frosh at 612, and tomorrow evening with Sally Secor '46, and other sophomores lending a hand, they will be formally ushered into the happy fold. Joy Harter '46, and Mary Bressler '46, will supply the much needed vitamins after a gruelling session with the big, bad sophomores.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley Smythe, of Elkins Park, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn Jane Smythe '47, to Ensign Eugene Francis Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sullivan, Lock Haven, Pa. Ensign Sullivan is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Miss Eleanor F. Snell Has Coached Successful Teams Here Twelve Years

Half-Time Pep-Talks Saved Many Games for Girls

Miss Eleanor F. Snell, head coach, advisor, and friend of the coeds at Ursinus college, has coached many Ursinus teams to victory over a period of 12 years as assistant professor of physical education.

Born in Lincoln, Nebraska, she attended the state university there and after graduating, she came east to take her graduate work at Columbia university. From there she was sent to Ursinus when the college put in an application for a physical education instructor.

Her vivid personality and vitality, her friendly understanding and subtle wit endear her to all the students who know her. Many games have been saved by Miss Snell's famous half-time pep-talks. Her teams in girls' sports have had a very good standing on the whole.

The most outstanding record is that of the tennis team which has not lost a match in four years. The softball squad, although organized only three years, has never lost a game. For the past two hockey seasons, the Ursinus eleven has reigned victorious and the varsity basketball sextette always produces good showings.

All of these excellent records can be credited to Miss Snell's ability as a coach. With her love of sports and her lasting patience, she has molded exceptional teams and individual players.

Collier's Team Tops Intramural List

All Navy Men Lead Civilians In Touch-Football Ratings

Intramural activities continued the past two weeks as Harry Collier's touch football eleven captured the league championship for the first round of games.

Collier's and Carney's teams battled to a 0-0 tie on a wind-blown field Monday.

The next afternoon the civilians held Schellhase to a scoreless tie, while Shope's and Miksch's elevens also both failed to score.

On Friday after the Thanksgiving holiday, the civilians led Miksch 6-0 at the half after McCausland scored on a long pass. The Navy men rallied in the second half, however, and won 12-6. Carney and Schellhase played a 0-0 contest, while Collier's men clinched the title with a 19-6 victory over Shope. Jack Miller, Hogan, and Trettin scored for the winners, while Paul Rickenback tallied for the losers.

In the final tussle of the first round last Monday Shope and Schellhase tied and Collier's outfit strengthened its hold on first place with a 6-0 win over Miksch. The civies came through with a 6-0 triumph over Carney.

The second round began on Friday with Miksch vanquishing Schellhase 6-0. Shope's crew romped over Carney 20-0, while Collier's champs defeated the civilians 12-0 in a rough contest.

Volleyball teams resumed play Thursday night with six games being played. Shope's team continued in its winning ways by taking a pair from the civies. Collier's A team scored a 2-1 win over Schellhase, while the latter's B team turned the tables with the same score. Carney and Miksch also split their games. Shope's team leads with 20 points with Collier close behind with 15 markers.

JAYVEES DOWN U. OF PENN

An undefeated Penn Jayvee eleven met its Waterloo, a week ago last Tuesday, when it played the Ursinus coeds on the Bears' field and lost, 3-0.

Although the Red and Blue fought every inch of the way, they were no match for Coach Nat Hoge-land's team, who turned in their best performance of the season. Sally Secor, heretofore unable to play because of an ankle injury, started the game as center forward and led her speedy quintette to the opponent's territory time and time again, to score three times.

The Ursinus backfield played a steady game. Their dodges and long clearing shots kept the ball up in Penn territory most of the time. Annette Dannehower, left half, and Captain Jane Kircher, left full, were excellent on defensive play.

Looking 'Em Over

By YANK

Flash! Ursinus athlete hits the headlines! The boys soccer season under the tutelage of Doc Baker might have had an abbreviated season, but it was long enough for one of his players to reap a little glory. Archie Simons, flashy member of the Bears forward line, has been mentioned by Philadelphia sports writers as a 1943 All-American. Since no formal team was announced this year, this is as great an honor as could be paid to him. Yesterday Archie got his first shot at big-time soccer when he played for the Philadelphia Nationals, a crack local team.

Bill Stern, Grantland Rice . . . or for that matter everybody and his god-child annually picks an All-American football team. It always seemed kind of silly to me, for unless one man could see every college in the country play every Saturday, no such team could be called authentic. However, since everybody does it, we may as well do likewise and toss a few straws in the ring. Out of the eleven men on the first team below, the local board of strategy has seen eight in action. We'll take the paper's word for the others, which include Graham, Agase, and Heywood.

First Team

- E John Yonker, Notre Dame
- T Mervin Pregulman, Michigan
- G Alex Agase, Purdue
- C Casimer Myslinski, Army
- G Patrick Filley, Notre Dame
- T Donald Whitmire, Navy
- E Ralph Heywood, Southern Calif.
- B Robert Odell, Pennsylvania
- B Creighton Miller, Notre Dame
- B Otto Graham, Northwestern
- B Bill Daley, Michigan

Second Team

- E Al Channel, Navy
- T John White, Notre Dame
- G Joe Briggs, Colorado
- C Herbert Coleman, Notre Dame
- G Andy Perko, Notre Dame
- T Art McCaffrey, College of Pacific
- E Bob Gantt, Duke
- B Steve Van Buren, Louisiana State
- B Bill Hoenschmeyer, Indiana
- B John Podesto, College of Pacific
- B Eddie Prokop, Georgia Tech

Any loud cries from the gallery concerning Angelo Bertelli of Notre Dame and Tony Butkovitch of Purdue can be answered by explaining that they left their respective colleges in mid-season and therefore weren't considered here.

Going on with our before-the-season look at some of the basketball candidates, we push two Navy boys to the fore this week.

Girls Defeat Swarthmore Hockey Team To Finish Undefeated, Untied Season

SOCCER MEN CLOSE SEASON WITH TWO WINS, ONE DEFEAT

Ursinus' soccer team closed the season with a record of two wins and one defeat, suffered at the hands of a powerful Penn eleven.

In the initial contest on October 23 the Bakermen came through with a 2-1 victory over Haverford for the first triumph over that college in twelve years. Dick Fink and Ted Marchese scored the goals.

The Bears went out of their class the following week to play Penn and lost 5-0, after holding the larger school scoreless the first half. Penn was just edged out for the Eastern intercollegiate crown, dropping a 1-0 turkey day tussle to Cornell.

In the finale Ursinus played its best game in vanquishing the Haverford Army Unit 4-2. Archie Simons scored twice, while Ted Marchese and Mazer each booted one in.

Transportation and scheduling difficulties prevented more games from being arranged. Dr. Baker considers this year's squad one of his strongest in many years and is looking forward to a bigger and better season next fall.

Pennsylvania Bows To Ursinus Coeds

The Ursinus varsity eleven defeated a hard-fighting Penn team Tuesday, November 23, 4-2, on the Bears' field, to covet their seventh consecutive victory this season.

Snow flurries and a wet surface hampered the players of both teams, but it was an open game with plenty of speed and fight. Captain Jeanne Mathieu led her forward line in one attack after another toward the Red and Blue goal. With evenly distributed play, Jeanne scored two goals, while Tink Harmer and Ann McDaniel each added one more.

Halfbacks Marion Bright and Mid Halbruegge confused the Penn players more than once with their perfected dodges and played an offensive as well as defensive game. Betty Bradway and Jan Shoemaker led the backfield interceptions to hold Penn at two tallies.

Goalkeeper Betty Kirlin, handicapped by sudden illness, stopped many difficult shots and cleared the ball out of dangerous territory.

Both Penn and Ursinus entered the fray with unusual vigor, since four members from each school have berths on the All-College hockey team.

strong as a defense player, where he uses his height well . . . the steady type of player, proficient as a guard to bring the ball up the floor and start the plays rolling . . . also good on rebounds.

Coeds Overcome Handicap Of Two Goals To Win 3-2

The powerful Ursinus eleven finished its second consecutive undefeated hockey season Saturday morning, November 27, when the Bears met Swarthmore's coeds and defeated them, 3-2.

Swarthmore gave the Ursinus lassies something to work for and the victory was well earned. During the first fifteen minutes of play, the Garnet gals charged through the Bear's backfield and drove the ball into the cage.

Again, with ten minutes left in the first half, Swarthmore fought their way down the field to tally another one. The score was then Swarthmore 2, Ursinus 0.

Snell's belles, with renewed energy reached enemy territory and captain Jeanne Mathieu's hard drive gave Ursinus its first goal. Immediately following, the Bears again broke away, outrunning and dodging Swarthmore's defense. Jeanne tallied the second goal to tie the score.

A few minutes before the whistle blew for half-time, Ann McDaniel received a pass and flicked the ball into the cage to break the tie and win the game for Ursinus.

In the second half the spirit of the game was increased, with Swarthmore determined to tie the score and Ursinus determined to keep its lead. Several times the ball was down near the Garnet's cage, but Ursinus lacked the push to tally again. The Bears' ever dependable backfield held Swarthmore's offense back and with clear, hard drives, kept the ball out of dangerous territory.

SECOND TEAM TIES GARNET

The Ursinus Jayvee hockey team tied a better Swarthmore eleven, 3-3, Saturday, November 27, on the latter's field.

Swarthmore kept the ball in the Bears' territory for a good part of the game, but more than once the Ursinus forward line broke through the Garnet's backfield. Sally Secor and Grace Nesbit shared scoring honors for Ursinus.

The Bears' backfield lacked its usual steadiness, but Betty Brown at right half and fullback Babs Baberich were outstanding for tackling and clearing the ball out of dangerous territory. Goalie Teddy Knopf saved many points for Ursinus with quick clearing kicks.

How many more days, Mummy?

"Tell me. How many more days before Daddy can come home?"

And mother doesn't know. So she answers the same way she's answered a hundred times . . .

"Not so many days . . . we hope. Daddy can't come home to us until the war is over. Until we win, you know."

Nobody can tell the thousands of bewildered little hearts when their Daddies will come home.

Nor the millions of other Americans when their husbands, or sons, or sweethearts will be back.

The tragic truth is that many of them will never see their loved ones again. Never. But this we do know . . .

Every minute by which the war can be shortened means fewer lives lost—fewer white crosses on a lonely hillside.

Your job is to put every dollar you can possibly dig up into War Bonds. The fighting equipment bought by your dollars will hasten the day of Victory . . . the day when the boys come marching home.

Don't slacken your Bond purchases while victory is within our grasp! Never let it be said that while the attack grows stronger on the fighting fronts, we at home failed to back it to the very limit of our ability.

Dig down deeper. Buy extra War Bonds. Help shorten the war by those vital minutes—or days, or months—which mean American lives saved!

Keep on Backing the Attack

The Gift of a War Bond at Christmas is one of the finest gifts you could give to anyone. It helps three ways, too. First, you aid your country just when help is most important. Just when we are pressing the attack home to the enemy. Second, you help the recipient by giving a gift that constantly increases in value. Third, you help yourself. There's nothing like that satisfied feeling that comes of giving such worthwhile gifts.

If you gave a baby bond as a gift to your family or to the members in the family last year why not increase the gift to the next largest denomination this year?

All this can help to bring the boys back home before we celebrate another holiday season.
