Urusins Girls Give For War Fund Drive

Women Average More Than Dollar Per Person

You can give—You can give!
That is the plea of the National War Fund Drive, and we urge you to be there, and eager to give. You have been asked an amount of more than one dollar per person to this great war effort. The Women's Student Government Association sponsored this request.

Although the contributors cannot all return to campus, every student will visit every UCU club, every Red Cross sub-station, every Tommy-Gay post-station, and every other area of human activity in which we have any fund. Both civilian and navy students at Ursinus realize this fact, and that is why they responded as willingly to Mr. Joel Francis' request for support to the drive.

The climax came through dormitory competition on a percentage basis, and a captain was selected in each dorm to have charge of canvassing. Lynnwood had the distinction of being the first dorm to reach the $1,000 mark, and Glenwood was the first whose canvassing was completed.

The dorm contributions are:

- Dumont's New Jersey Total
  - Highland 15
  - Eisele 61
  - Ives 444
  - Lynnwood 8
  - Oldinger 36
  - Shreiner 29
  - Columbia 12
  - Blythe 11
  - Maple 15
  - Malvern 26
  - Ritter 14
  - Glenwood 9

Campus organizations also contributed:
- Y's and the Women's Student Council each sag led its own percentage of $41.85.

Although the dollar which was contributed by each was small, it will mean entertainment for student groups, particularly the Greek, medical supplies to galley units, much needed.

Freshmen Revel at Annual Banquet in Freeland Hall—Without Sophomores

by Richard Clever '45

Warning to all freshmen men:

Do you want to marry that girl? Are you going to be the only one to freshman banquet? If not, please leave college immediately! On the other hand, if you are a true freshman, you're worth being married. Whether you're worth marrying or not is the question. From what we see, we believe you're worth marrying.

Warning to all freshmen women:

Be careful, girls, all is not as it seems. It's true that last Friday night there were many more girls than usual. It's true that many freshmen want to marry the fellow across the table, but that fellow is not yours. You are very, very certain that your companion has not been so much draydreaming himself. Remember he has another girl.

After counting eruptions in the registrar's office all afternoon, "Killer," Shirley Kiel, Betty Broadway, and Peggy Brunner '44, co-chairmen of the floor committee, wished to make a statement. It was Noted by freshman banquets somewhere.

Post-war Education

In order to provide for the education of our fighting men and women, the establishment of the U. S. Armed Forces Institute at Madison, Wisconsin, a central clearing house of information on college credit for military experience has been announced. At the request of any person, officer or soldier for- merly on active duty, discharge from service, the institute will assemble all information on his or her—service activities of an educational nature. It will also transmit such information to the school or college of the individual's choice.

Meanwhile, the nation's colleges have agreed on a broad educational program which would include liberal arts, and vocational, professional and refresher courses. They are determined to avoid the mistake, made after the Great War, of having that vocational education alone be of value to returning military personnel.

The colleges went on record as favoring some type of voluntary planning to gear their educational programs to the needs of the war. This could be done, they agreed, by relating their educational programs to the technical, supervisory and professional fields.

The colleges were also in favor of national campus plans. They were agreed on that state, country-wide potential employment needs. But they formed a solid block of opinion against government-established student quotas based on those needs.

Concerning the study of liberal arts today, The Washington Post printed the following opinion:

"For the present, no doubt, the liberal arts must remain subordinate to a variety of vocational training programs indispensable to the winning of the war. None of our great universities or colleges, however, has wholly done away with its teaching of the humanities or abandoned the intention of reviving such classes to be in the activities at the war's end. Changes in teaching methods are expected. We doubt earnestly will be focused on new subjects as a consequence of the world situation. The West, the Orient, Latin America and the Soviet Union. But such changes can be counted upon to broaden, rather than narrow, the curriculum. To meet the problems of the post-war world, men and women will have to cultivate a knowledge of themselves.

WSGA Backs Real Drive

Congratulations to the student body for making a real success of the National War Fund drive.

And congratulations, WSGA! At last, an organization was met with a body understood beforehand and was willing to help out. Captains of the various teams have a right to be proud in saying that their contributors gave without asking questions of why or what for.
Miss Eleanor F. Snell Has Coached Successful Teams Here Twelve Years

Half-Time Pep-Talks Saved Many Games for Girls

Miss Eleanor F. Snell, head coach, advisor, and friend of the coeds at Ursinus college, has coached many Ursinus women football teams. The period of 12 years as assistant professor of physical education.

Born in Princeton, New Jersey, she attended the state university there and afterward went on to take her graduate work at Columbia University. From there she was sent to Ursinus with every college put in an application for a physical education instructor.

Miss Snell is a sports woman, her friendly understanding and able wit endear her to all the students who know her. Many games have been saved by Miss Snell in the last two years.

All of these excellent records can be explained by the ability to coach as a coach. With her love of sports and the knowledge of her field, she has molded exceptional teams and individual players.

Grapplers Report

For First Practice

Stan Green Will Tutor Men
For Wrestling This Year

Wrestling practice began last week under the coaching of Stan Green, who was appointed for the purpose.

The teams will be supervised by Brian Green, who is well-known to Ursinus students as a wrestler for the varsity team a year ago. Although Stan showed a lot of fight in wrestling and, though ineligible last year, kept in contact with the sport. Now, as a senior, 4-year-old Stan has also been admitted to the wrestling squad for the current season.

Although this is a new type of training for the men, will be supervised by Dick Schellings, who is a regular former member of the 124-pounder at Merenberg academic school, and who has won the high school championship and in the Baltimore City tournament. Dick Schellings has retained his stature and is looking forward to his second year as a wrestler of this kind. Schellings is the son of the coach of the wrestling team and is an outstanding wrestler of the school.

The squad consists mostly of fresh men, and it is expected that this year's team weight class has at least one candodicted to win the expected weight class of 138 pounds.

The light weight class is expected to be strong, with such names as "Schmee" Levan, who is expert in the sport, and such men as Alm. In addition, there will work hard to learn the holds.

At 138 is Walt Hunt, lion of the team. He has shown by his performance in the past two years as one of the best wrestlers of the school. At 138 is Trettin, an experienced man, who has grown under his own control. He has been with the team for two years. The heavier weight divisions, 158, 175 and 215, should be strong also, with the loss of such good athletes as Dean "Checker" Quale and Jim "Smokey" Smyth. Both of these were outstanding in their class and will be missed.

The schedule to date is as fol-

JAYVEES DOWN U. OF. PENN

An undefeated Penn team met its Waterloo, a week ago last Tuesday, when it fought the Bears' field and lost, 3-2.

Although the Red and Blue fought every inch of the way, they were no match for the Nittany

Land team, who turned in their best performance of the season. Bell Secor, herefore unable to play with this season, started the game as center forward and led her speedy quintet to the victory and, in turn, to score three times.

The Ursinus backfield played a steady game. Their dodges and passes were a true Ursinus and kept the ball in Penn territory most of the time. Margaret Donnelly, full back, and Lillian C. John, left back, were excellent on defensive play.

Looking 'On Over

Flash! Ursinus athlete hits the headlines! The boys soccer season under the tutelage of Dick Baker might have had an abbreviated season, but it was long enough for one of his players to reap a little play. Archie Mimick, faculty member of the Bears forward line, has been mentioned by Philadelphia sports writers in a local AmERICAN. Since no formal team was announced this year, this is as great an honor as could be paid to him.

Bill Steed from Rice and Maine, and for that matter everybody and his post-childhood friend John Bannan, are a fine American football team. It always seemed knitted together by the history of one man who could see every college in the country play every Saturday, such team could be called as-thentic. However, somebody does it, we may as well do it ourselves and thus a few straw in the ring. Out of so many teams, the power players, the big time, the local board of strategy has seen eight in action. It will be the player's word for the others, which include Graham, Agase, and Heywood.

Collier's Team Tops Intramural List

All Navy Men Lead Citizens in Touch-Football outings

Intramural activities continued the past two weeks as Harry Collier's touch football eleven captured the league championship for the first round of games.

Collier's and Carney's teams battled a 6-6 tie on a wind-blown field Monday.

The next afternoon the civilians held Collier's to a scoreless when Shope's and Mimick's elevens also failed to score.

On Friday after the Thanksgiving holiday, the civilians led Miksch 6-4 at the half after McKean scored a long pass. The Navy men rallied in the second half, however, and won 12-6. Carney and Schellings played a 6-0 contest, while Collier's men climbed the title. The final count of the game over shape Jack Miller, Hogan, and Trettin scored for the winners, while Paul Richardson led the civilians with 20.

In the final toss of the first round last Monday Shope and Collier's teams faced each other in a 6-6 victory. The civilians came through with a 6-5-6 victory over Carney.

On Saturday afternoon with Van uitkaling Collier's offense strengthened its hold on first place. The civilians led Miksch 13-3 in a rough contest.

How many more days, Mummy?

"Tell me. How many more days before Daddy can come home?"

And mother doesn't know. She answers the same way she's answered a hundred times...

"Not so many days... we hope. Daddy can't come home to us until the war is over. Until we know,..."

Nobody can tell the thousands of bewildered little hearts when their Daddies will come home.

Nor the millions of other Americans when their husbands, or sons, or sweethearts will be back.

The tragic truth is that many of them will never see their loved ones again. Never.

But this we do know...

Every minute by which the war can be shortened means fewer lives lost—fewer white crosses on a lonely hillside.

Your job is to pay every dollar you can possibly dig up into War Bonds. The fighting equipment bought by your dollars will hasten the day of Victory... the day when the boys come marching home.

Don't slacken your Bond purchases while victory is within our grasp! Never let it be said that while the attack grows stronger on the fighting fronts, we at home failed to back it to the very limit of our ability.

Dig down deeper. Buy extra War Bonds. Help shorten the war by those vital minutes—days, or months—which mean American lives saved!

Keep on Backing the Attack

The Gift of a War Bond at Christmas is one of the finest gifts you could give to anyone. It helps three ways, too. First, you aid your country just when help is most important. Second, when we are pressing the attack home to the enemy. Second, you help the recipient by giving a gift that constantly increases in value. Third, you help yourself. There's nothing like that satisfying feeling that comes of giving such worthwhile gifts.

If you gave a baby bond as a gift to your family or to the members in the family last year why not increase the gift to the next largest denomination this year?

All this can help to bring the boys back home before we celebrate another holiday season.
