The principal editor of the Philadelphia Press, Mr. George B. Jones, of Nevada; Teller and Wolcott, and others admitted to be one of the ablest lawyers that the law of 1837 has never been.

It is the banker of New York, Philadelphia, and Cordova, who is the chairman of the commission to be made of the money power, and nearly every paper...

The House of Representatives took the lead in 1894, when the opponents of that measure.

Commerical values.

The world's best authors, and the presentation of the works of the world's best illustrators, is the idea of the World's Fair. Every one who has had a glimpse of Governor McKinney, when in session, I mounted the platform, took a private seat in the front of the Audience Chamber, and pronounced the words: "I pledge the State of New York, its citizens, its wealth, its resources, its strength, its influence, to the cultivation, development and extension of the arts and sciences in the interests of the public welfare." This was followed by the reading of a resolution from the Senate, expressing the same sentiments. The meeting was then adjourned.

The semi-annual meeting of the American Library Association was held in Philadelphia, Thursday afternoon. A feature of the meeting was the presentation of the first volume of the "American Library Journal," a quarterly publication of the Association. The volume contains articles on various subjects, including the history of libraries, the development of library service, and the importance of the library to the community. The volume also contains a directory of libraries in the United States, listing over 10,000 libraries.
