Much has been said and written in recent years in favor of the expansion of the manufacturing of paper in America. The waste paper, which is so largely employed in this country, is said to be in great demand, and that its production is therefore of great importance.

The factory of the firm of Caswell & Moore, in Providence, R. I., is one of the largest in the country, and the firm has been manufacturing paper for many years.

The factory is well equipped with the latest machinery, and the products are of high quality.

The firm has a large and varied line of products, including newsprint, book paper, and writing paper,

as well as other grades.

The management is well known for its efficiency, and the factory is operated under the strictest control.

The firm is able to supply its customers with a steady and reliable source of supply.

The products of the firm are widely used, both in this country and abroad.

The firm is always ready to answer any questions or offer any information.
