Johnson Depicts Ursinus Grad As a Substantial Citizen

"I have found that the Ursinus man and woman is a person of substance," said Dr. Harold C. Johnson, director of athletics at the College, at the Saturday evening banquet. Dr. Johnson told of the College's days under the leadership of President John Rauhauser of the Senior Class, who was also the chairman of the Senior Ball, and who was greeted by the Meistersingers. The program was sponsored by the Young Men's Christian Association, and was held in Bomberger Hall. Soloists and arrangements were provided by the students.

Dean Kline Welcomes Fathers

The President of the College, Dr. R. H. Kline, also addressed the gathering. Dr. Kline introduced his wife and Miss Helen Smith of the Office of Public Instruction. "The students and fathers by program of instructions," he said, "will develop the students' knowledge and understanding of the world and its people."

Dr. George R. Tyson, former professor of education at the College, will deliver the address at the next meeting. Dr. Tyson will speak on "The Role of the Student in College Life." He will also discuss the importance of the college experience in the development of the individual.

Important News

The announcement came from the chair of the Board of Trustees, Mr. Norman E. McClure, who greeted the fathers, on behalf of the Board, and stressed the importance of college life to their family. Mr. McClure, and Mrs. Helfferich. Dean Johnson, Donald Johnson '43, and Mrs. M. A. Helfferich.

The morning session will hear Dr. George R. Tyson, professor of education at the College, and will discuss the importance of the college experience in the development of the individual. He will also discuss the role of the student in college life. The evening session will hear Dr. George R. Tyson, professor of education at the College, and will discuss the importance of the college experience in the development of the individual. He will also discuss the role of the student in college life.
Early last Spring I was one of those who hoped intensely that Wendell Willkie would nominate a man like Wendell Willkie. During the Philadelphia Convention I was one of those who saw him, talked with him, talked to him, and eventually put him forward as the logical cause. When he was nominated I heard him promise my party dynamic, vocal leadership. So never left us down. He will not back out. He enlarged his brand and personal magnetism. He revitalized it with his rugged courage and determined idealism. He could not stop nuncipating his own sincere liberalism. Wendell Willkie led twenty-six millions of us to the polls. We believe in him now as in the past. We defeat left no bitterness in Mr. Willkie. It should, then, certainly leave none in us who follow him. We must do our utmost to give our united support to measures concerning our Nation’s security. We did that during the campaign. Once a policy has been accepted politically upon it, it will be our policy. Our only concern must be that it is decided democratically, and is then promised us verbatim.

But in the next four years matters of historic importance will be resolved here in America. How shall we decide them? Shall the man who created the vicious group and follow its lead blindly? I think not. Democracy does not work that way. Matters vitally concerning each one of us will be decided before our eyes. Nor will we forget the time. Nobody got our blank okay to deal arbitrarily with our future. The Roosevelt Administration was selected, by a majority of the people, to do the will of a majority of the people. They must not assume that they are that will. Unanimity and mutual accord do not arise from such tactics.

Therefore, I consider it the high duty of Wendell Willkie to maintain his unharnessed leadership of the opposition group. He should express our point of view as often and as strongly as necessary. At this time, his critics and ours must be sane, constructive, and divorced from all petty partisanship. Mr. Willkie promised that kind of leadership last Monday night. I am certain that he will give it.

Finally, I do sincerely hope that Franklin Roosevelt will get together with President Willkie. If our constructive criticism, voiced through Wendell Willkie, can aid him in keeping those pledges, our opposition will have served a great purpose.

But I humbly suggest that Mr. Roosevelt must consider the spirit of our opposition. And I honestly request that the President of “all the people” should have appropriately noted the most recent speech of the man who still represents the best beliefs of the majority of those people. Only democracies can have opposition groups. Only democratic men can keep them loyal.

THE MAIL BOX

The opinions expressed in this column are those of individuals, and do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors of the Ursinus Weekly.

The Editor:
This letter is in the nature of a complaint—a complaint provoked by the action, or should we say the lack of action, of several members of the Ursinus College student body, which is so astoundingly obtuse that we can profitably be brought to the attention of the whole student body, just as a reminder to them not to offend in a similar manner.

The complaint concerns the failure of the students in question to reply to the request for invitation sent to them on various occasions. A letter containing an invitation is, we feel, just as important and demanding of attention as an appointment; yet many people frequently ignore the former, while they would not think of overlooking the latter. But an invitation, if we take time to consider, entails as many arrangements on the part of the person who issues it as it does of the recipient. And if a prompt reply is not received, many complications, as well as much mental distress, arise.

We would like to suggest that all who have ever offended in this manner take advice to heart (and those who have offended previously may take it as well, since it can be assumed that they have heard it before) and promptly reply to invitations. It is simple to write a prompt reply to an invitation—a matter which is in most cases merely swapped on various occasions. A prompt and amiable reply to the appreciation of the person who receives the reply. Furthermore such a reply makes the most of all efficient business people and is a part of the makeup of any real gentleman or lady. Very truly yours,

A Concerned Friend, Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pa.

Brilliant Jayvye Record Bear Gridders Surprised by Dragons in Dads' Day Game to Tune of 12-8

By Robert Cooke '43

As a matter of history, it is said, even the Utopia of the ancients fades into history the memories of one of the most surprising football games ever played in Ursinus turf look eagerly forward to the Ursinus-John Hopkins game this afternoon. The Utopians have defeated the famous J. H. team, and have tied the university record set by the all-College team in 1940, thereby securing their second victory in their second outing of the year.

The Ursinus-John Hopkins game is another in the long line of games which have been described as "dead heat" to the very last play. The Utopians have won only once in the last 11 years, and have been defeated only twice in that period. The J. H. team, on the other hand, has won three of the last four games against Ursinus, and has lost only twice in that period.

This year's game was no exception. The Utopians took an early lead, but were unable to hold on to it, and the J. H. team came back to take the lead in the second half.

The Ursinus team was led by senior fullback John Smith, who scored the only touchdown of the game. The J. H. team was led by senior quarterback Jack Brown, who passed for a touchdown and ran for another.

The final score was 12-8, with Ursinus on top. The game was marked by excellent defense on both sides, and the teams played well throughout.

The Ursinus-John Hopkins game is a major upset, and the Utopians are to be congratulated on their fine play.

The Ursinus-John Hopkins game was the final game of the season for the Utopians, and they will now turn their attention to preparation for next year. The J. H. team will also now turn their attention to next year's schedule.

Blue Hens Down Blue, Gold Bears 2-1

Rededicated in the Blue and Gold of Delaware (Dubuque forgot the Emu) the University of Delaware, 2-1 to the Delaware Blue Hens on their spring Friday of last week. A nip and tuck battle rested by the sensational defense of the Hens and Buddy Adams, Noah Cain tallied Delaware's first goal during a spurt of 1 point in the last 8 minutes of the game, after the half ended at 1-1.

Ursinus received a blowing when the Crabs entered the game, but was carried from the field with an ankle injury during the first period. The Delaware Bear defense, continually stemming the line up, was held to 2 points in the last 2 minutes of the game.

Boye scored the Blue, Gold's second point on a beautiful pass from the halfback during the first half. Boye and the Blue, Gold Bears came back to tie the game at 1-1 after the half ended.

The plucky Bears began to roar when they scored a lovely goal from the center position in the third period. The Bears ripped off several goals in the last 5 minutes of the game, and the Blue, Gold Bears were left with only 2 points after the game ended.

Hamilton Righ Takes Jayvye Bouters in 5-0 Fridget Conflict

Hamilton High's crack soccer team once again overpowered its opponents, and was only scored upon by one point. The Hamilton Jayvye team is the Ursinus Junior Varsity 5 to 0 and tied the junior football contest here Saturday morning.

The Trenton lads started rolling early, and had the Hamilton Jayvye team in a turmoil, with two goals in the first quarter. The Hamilton Jayvye team was unable to cope with the Trenton team, and was scored upon only by one point in the second quarter.

Try-outs for the all-college team had been held on the evening of Friday, December 11, and the Hamilton Jayvye team was selected as the best for the all-college team for the coming season.

The Hamilton Jayvye team was led by senior fullback John Smith, who scored the only touchdown of the game. The all-college team was led by senior quarterback Jack Brown, who passed for a touchdown and ran for another.

The final score was 4-0, with the Hamilton Jayvye team on top. The game was marked by excellent defense on both sides, and the teams played well throughout.

The Hamilton Jayvye team is a major upset, and the Hamilton Jayvye team is to be congratulated on their fine play.

The Hamilton Jayvye team was the final game of the season for the Hamilton team, and they will now turn their attention to preparation for next year. The Hamilton Jayvye team will also now turn their attention to next year's schedule.

New Members of IRC Talk On Delicate Balkan Situation

The International Relations Club directed its interest to the delicate international situation existing in the Balkans at the meeting last Tuesday in Shreiner. The four new members, Jane Vink '22, Florence Hechel '42, Katie Acan '42, and Edwin McConulud '45, led the discussion on the relations of Turkey, Italy, Russia, and the Balkan Entente to each other and to the European war.

Douglas Daniel, a former secretary of the president of the Council on Student Activities, introduced the discussion. The purpose of this committee, as its name implies, is to guide and regulate extra-curricular organizations on campus.

The Council on Student Activities is now composed of Professor Elizabeth B. White, J. Harold Brownback, J. Lynn Barnard, Maurice O. Bone, Mrs. Franklin I. Shedder, and Mr. Sieber Paukasc, in addition to student representatives of the campus organizations.
