Lest We Lose Personal Identity

The weekly is no longer a reflection of the college and more directly upon the student body, which is living in a world of insecurity and making their citizenship a part of the college. Theological might call it the soul. Dreaming about to become realities.

Beginning this month the feature department of the Ursinus Weekly will be sending out questionnaires to a sample of students. The last year the surveys were considered included a sample of student opinion in cooperation with colleges throughout the entire United States. The result of these measures a third unit once they have been built. Dreams About to Become Realities.

Lest We Lose Personal Identity

We are living in a world of insecurity and confusion. Present and threatening wars are more and more breeding hatred and despair. We are in need of the men and women of grace and the vision of man's civilization. Countless thousands of people are being denied the rights and privileges of intelligent, man's civilization. Bear Soccermen Flay Girard to 0-0 Deadlock

Displaying a rugged and spirited brand of ball, the Ursinus College soccer team fought a more experienced aggregation from Girard College to a scoreless stalemate on the Collegiate turf last Saturday. Two liter extra periods were played in attempts to break the tie, but only one game, and in that they through the ingreagdefull defense of Girard they contented themselves with a draw. Suffering from the loss of seven stars of last year's team, Ehret, Davis, LeCron, Shuder, Edwards, Fohl, and Kehrli. Don Baker has been forced to rely upon new men, and he hopes to smooth out the rough spots before the all-important game with Temple next Saturday.
