About as pretty a piece of land like this, upon the church—having a house upon it, which lately appeared in the free market, and was sold for a good price. The public sale of Montgomery County is to be advertised in the papers which have been sent out, and the public is invited to attend. The sale is to be held on the premises of Mr. John Smith, near the town of Providence Square, Pa.

And, by the way, a new novel by the same author of "The Library of Europe" will soon be in print.

Is the most danger in the latter case of the two; a short and sudden exposure of the hogs to frost and cold will often produce a very disastrous effect.

We are not against a few inches of snow on the ground in the winter, but we do not favor a sudden and short exposure of the hogs to the cold, as this will often produce a very disastrous effect.

Our success has given rise to many imitations.
