8-8-1895

Providence Independent, V. 21, Thursday, August 8, 1895, [Whole Number: 1050]

Providence Independent

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/providence

Part of the American Politics Commons, Cultural History Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the The Historical Society of Trappe, Collegeville, Perkiomen Valley at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Providence Independent Newspaper, 1875-1898 by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.
PROVIDENCE INDEPENDENT, 11:00 A.M., THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1897.

JUNK AND ALCOHOL.

Junk—The heavy shower of rain

HAD TO BE RUSHED.

Painting a Bridge.

Last week, Mrs. D. B. Harper, of Bridgeport, laid the cornerstone for the Bridge at Westhampton, Conn.

Isaacson and Company.

Isaacson and Company, as in years past and for the last 50 years, are now in the business of leasing the Chestnut church, Temple, to the Epworth League.

Painting a Bridge.

The Chestnut church, Temple, has been advertising recently for Missouri.

Emily S. Halsey, Mrs. Charley Kratz and Miss Mary Fry; Recitalions of November 3, 1897, at 3:30 in the church, this place, last Sunday morning, were well attended. Pastor Henry Coffman, of the Temperance Sunday Schools, was in charge.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to note that a

Dr. George Potter and Mr. B. C. F. Huxley have been appointed to the faculty of the West India College, Bridgetown, Barbados.

We had a very pleasant visit from Mrs. D. B. Harper to the Providence Independent office, Monday, July 18.

Will Flower at Valley Forge.

The Collegeville Sunday School held a family reunion in the Trappe church, Quakertown, on July 31.

A Monster Vanished.

What is known to the legend as the story of the Monster, is a long history of advertising for Buckwalter, employed by S. P.

Holmes, is now well known.

In the Temple service, under the floor of the Central Park, the Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the 25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,

in the Temple service, under

the floor of the Central Park, the

Church of Christ, this place, last

Sunday morning at 10.30. In the

25th of July, 1897, the 25th of July,
Department of Agriculture.

ADVANTAGES OF ILLAGE. Practical experience, coupled with scien dtific educational study, has at the present time placed us between the two "good old ways" and the "newfangled mess" that has crept in during the past fifty years. In the middle of the greatest emergency that ever faced the human race and with a knowledge equal to that of the age of kings, we are greatly retarded in our financial make-up and it thus affords the opportunity to the one who has served his country in some dry field before to stand out and to show the aid that will not be afforded by the "men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the "men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the
"men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the
"men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course
with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a
detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the
"men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course
with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a
detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the
"men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course
with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a
detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the
"men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course
with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a
detective in the middle of the emergency and is thus in a position to show the aid that will not be afforded by the
"men of science" who are not with the problem, but of course
with the "old men" of the community. The writer has acted as a