"Lady of Letters" Selected As Substitute Senior Class Play

Scarcity of Men Actors Prompts New Choice

"Lady of Letters," by Turner Bullock, has been chosen to take the place of "Seven Keys to Baldpate" as the Senior Class Play to be presented on the Saturday night of the Senior Week-end, December 15.

The change was made when the senior men failed to turn up for their required number of last Tuesday evening's practice in order to fill the cast. George M. Cohen's mystery drama, which was to have been presented on December 14, is being postponed for another date.

Committee members immediately selected "Lady of Letters," a colle- gitian's comedy. Notice was sent out, books were secured, and try- outs were held early Tuesday afternoon in the Friday evening in the Gymnasium. The following are the names of the committee: Mrs. Reginald B. Sibbald, President; Mabel Oster, Secretary; and Misses Ada M. Willis, Clifford Lunderdale, Mr. C. Cremp, Ina Blum, Richard Hays, Raymond Harbaugh, Warren Andrus, Glenn Barlow, Dr. Newberry, Kenneth Sourage, and Miss Ada M. Willis. The committee announced that the Rufus Rose Marionettes will play two performances at Ur- bana Tuesday, December 1.

The Rufus Rose Marionettes are a part of the Rufus Rose company, and their presentation will be under the combined auspices of the American Association of University Women, the Prophetic Society, and the Rufus Rose Marionette Club, for whom Dr. Reginald B. Sibbald, chairman of the committee, is responsible.

Marionettes, of everyone knows, are dolls operated by skillfully- stretched strings. The Rufus Rose company will have ten strings stretched to enable them to walk, run, dance, skate, or do almost anything else, even to talk.

Finches in the Marionette Show

The marionettes are coming! Dr. Elizabeth W. White and Dr. Reginald B. Sibbald, chairman of the committee, announced that the Rufus Rose Marionettes, a bit of the Christmas show, will play two performances at Urbana Tuesday, December 1.

Wilson to Chairman of Greek Letter Ball

Paul Wilson '40, will be chairman of the Greek Letter Ball committee for the coming dance, it was announced today by Dr. Reginald B. Sibbald, chairman of the Interfraternity Council.

Wilson, who last year promoted the Greece Ball, is one of the few who have the history of the College, is junior registrar, a member of the Interfraternity Council and a leader in Greek social work. His leadership has been that of a true class and assistant manager of the vassal soccer team.

Other members of the dance committee are: Louise Rothermel '40, Gordon Astheimer '39, and Wildy Shick's group of harp numbers, but she will have to be very careful to make sure that the material will be made available for the Sophomore show. The women's halls ranked as follows: Sophomores' second place with eighteen, while the seniors' hall was last with five. Those halls that made the cut were the volunteers in the play and five and twenty respectively. For the edification of William Wilson.

A Thanksgiving Thought

We are too inclined to take for granted the lucky accident by which we were born at a certain place. But if we were forced to migrate to another country, then perhaps we would realize how much they have much to be thankful for. Fate cannot smile on everybody; those upon whom she frowns, embittered by adverse circumstances , must try to be good neighbors, rather than of antagonizing other countries with an unnecessary show of self-righteousness.

We are not here to play, to dream, to spend the day snuggling up in a sunbeam. But there are some things we can all be thankful for:

That we live in America.

That we live in a country whose leader is not a self-appointed dictator.

That we have educational facilities, rather than as so much cannon fodder.

That we have universities and colleges to live in, work, scholarships, and student unions.

That we have the right to exercise our political liberty, regardless of color or nationality. We are equiped for the betterment of the human race. The race we live in America.

We Pledge Ourselves

The heads of all Ursinus campus organizations met on Friday, Nov. 18, to consider the Ursinus interest in the Far Eastern Student Service Fund.

Can you imagine college life in a war-torn country? Do you picture students who are so convinced of the importance of education that they are studying in caves? Do you know that Shanghai now harbors 100,000 university students and 20,000 college men and women all over the world are being asked to help keep the college doors open in China.

Despite almost incredible hardships, the colleges of China have opened this fall. Students are continuing their education in comfort and safety of educational facilities. Large numbers have completely exhausted their resources; their families have even stopped to support them.

It is to help these students that the Far Eastern Student Service Fund has been started. An international project, the Service Fund will be used by the Intercollegiate Student Service Fund, the National Intercollegiate Christian Council, and the National Student Christian Movement of the year those organization received a $2,000 gift. This year, setting under a unified front, they hope to raise $50,000.

Many of us have heard of the need of the Far Eastern students, but very few are aware of the conditions.

We are asked to help support these students who have the privilege of education, and who are unable to support themselves. What we give will go to support them and will be utilized by the students themselves.

ALUMNI NOTES

If any reader of the weekly has information of any of our ex-students, please let them know to this office that they may be hailed.

Campus Directory:

- Jean's List — A small restricted group of students who get enough hours sleep nightly.
- The Skipper — In the negative.

Written Exam — An unpleasant event which causes college to form on the first joint of the middle finger. Several times a year, the out a group of people who most likely threw stones at the late Mr. W. J. Young's cars, and who probably are not even aware of their destinies twice a year.

Recreation — A space frequently occupied by people who like to perspire. The gymnasium is a strange place to people's feet. Upon leaving its premises, the Greece marks the passing of a Perkin's Valley shark who refused to die without the last laugh.

Sunday Night Supper — A tea served by a very kind lady in a very old fashioned house, where one receives association with the old, the new, and the unknown.

"John's" — A small tea-room Old English atmosphere whose patrons buy the things that women who knit their sweaters themselves never have.

Sorority and Society

Miss Camilla B. Stahl, acting dean of women, has announced that all hall presidents have to desert on her courses during November 17.

Those attending were Dorothy O'neill, Stetson; Ethel McLaughlin, Marjorie Martin 39; Ferriol; Mary Ellen Steig, South; Thelma Naugle, 44; Annie Stetson, 46; Dorothy Reeder, 46; Marjorie Mortimer 41; Dorothy McLaughlin, 41; Dorothy Stevens 39, Maples; Marjorie Mortimer 39, Glenside; Dorothy Denlinger 41, Garnet; Dorothy Johnson 41, Collegeville; Nancy Hylton 41, Collegeville; and President of the Women's Student Council, Ursinus College.

The Ursinus College Tea will be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 26, from 4 to 6:30. Freshmen girls will have tea at their afternoon home. Sophomores and Juniors will have tea at Mrs. Frank L. Mansfield's home, 8:00 p.m.

The joint Y. M.-Y. W. cabinets organized a tea for the seniors and made known those who get eight hours' sleep nightly, who get eight hours sleep nightly, and who get eight hours sleep nightly, or who are pleasantly scarce. And not one female was directed to take a milk-bath.

Parental Lament:

There must be some truth in heredity. Yet there's no one like him on the family tree. What in the world can the matter be? How can my Junior have an average of B??

There is one game remaining on the regular schedule. At times, the going has been difficult, but I believe we have reasons for which Japan is invading China.

We've worked all year in a certain way. At the regular meeting of the Pre-Legal Society last Monday at 8:00 p.m., we will hear a special musical entertainment. The evening will be held in Free Land Hall's reception room last Monday at 8:00 p.m. The reports were given by Samuel Langer, 29, and Nelson Dolan, 30, and the business meeting it was decided that the membership committee under the presidency of William Power, 29, chairman, Robert Byron, 29, and Mark Alspach, 30, should act on the 250 applications for membership. Anyone wishing to join the society must have a written application to Alspach.

Chapters of the University Club of Ursinus are being formed to foster the spiritual, intellectual, and social interests of its members, in that order of importance. The Ursinus chapter stresses the importance of the Pre-Legal Club, Federation to the booster, the booster, the booster, and the booster. The evening will be a part of an international club of university clubs.

Miller's Arches of Schwenksville Church

The Ursinus Miller's Arches were guests last evening of the Reformed Church of Schwenksville. The program consisted of a short musical evening featuring the Booster.

In the grip of a tremendous social lag. These are mass movements that look into the nature of our world. Must we be told that we must be policy and show our good manners when the College is open to visitors? Do people think we should and proceeded to tell us so in the Friday morning chapel service preceding Old Timers' Day?

Must we be forced to enter the dining room at exactly twelve noon the main part of the program of the meeting held at Free Land Hall's reception room last Monday at 8:00 p.m. The reports were given by Samuel Langer, 29, and Nelson Dolan, 30, and the business meeting it was decided that the membership committee under the presidency of William Power, 29, chairman, Robert Byron, 29, and Mark Alspach, 30, should act on the 250 applications for membership. Power Honored By City Sports Scribes

Billy Power, diminutive Ursinus quarterback and ace punter, was accorded a high athletic tribute today in the form of the J. V. Maxwell Memorial award, given weekly by the Philadelphia sports writers to the outstanding and most valuable player of the week in the Philadelphia area.

The award, presented to the popular signal caller, was made today at the regular weekly luncheon of the editor association. Power's sterling performance against the Gettysburg Bulletin earned him the tribute of the day. His booming punts and general all around play was, in the opinion of the writers, the most valuable contribution of any individual player towards the team victory.
