Call a halt on needless NERVE STRAIN

ERIUGREY
Swift, graceful, and remarkably wise, ancient Egyptian and Greek royalty stipped them as a symbol of nobility. Distinctive lines and poised bearing can be found on Egyptian carvings dating to 3100 B.C. Racing has made this breed popular in the U.S.

It's thrilling to watch the flashing greyhound in full flight. But it's important to note that when the race is over the rats — as the greyhound above is doing now — the dog returns instinctively! Life as it is today leads us to ignore difficulties. We carry on despite increasing tension, strain. Be kind to your nerves if you want them to keep you. Pause a while, now and then. LET UP — LIGHT UP A CAMEL! Let the frequent enjoyment of Camel's mild, ripe tobaccos help you take life more calmly, pleasantly, profitably!

They know how pleasant life can be when they
"LET UP — LIGHT UP A CAMEL"

"A THOUSANDTH OF AN INCH is important in my work," says Charles Dietrich, iron grinder. "I've got to be absolutely accurate, so I've got to concentrate. Naturally, my nerves would be on the spot if I didn't pause now and then. I let up—light up a Camel. Camels comfort my nerves."

TRAP-SHOOTING CHAMPION of North America (Women's Clay Targets), Mrs. Leila Hall, says: "Holding a shooting title four years straight puts plenty of pressure on the nerves. I give my nerves frequent rests, especially during matches. I let up—light up a Camel—glad! Camels are so soothing!"

Bears End Victoryless Campaign As Franklin and Marshall Wins Final 40-2

By Carlton Davis

A disappointing Ursinus eleven ended a tragic football season by being hopelessly outclassed by powerful Franklin and Marshall team in the first of a series of five games to be played on Turkey Day in Lancaster. Paced by Captain Samuel Rooder, who scored 28 points, the Diplomats rolled a 40-2 score over the faltering Bears. Playing before 3,000 shivering football fans, F and M quickly scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, to take a 13-0 advantage a lead which they never relinquished.

Scoring their first touchdown on the sixth play of the game, F and M went on to score at least once in every period, and not once did the Bears seriously threaten to score on the Lancaster foe.

Medics Blocks Kick

A beautiful coffin corner kick by Bill Power, however, set the stage for a Bear safety. Standing on his own forty yard marker, Power booted one out on the one yard line. Rooder, standing in the end zone, attempted to kick back, but George Medick, stellar Bear center, blocked the kick, the ball rolling in the end-zone for an automatic safety.

Starting from the Ursinus forty yard stripe, F and M began its first series of downs on a high. The march was climaxied by a twenty yard gallop by Abbie Appling who received a lateral pass from Rooder. Rooder's attempted conversion failed and the Diplomats led 6-0. A short time later another sustained forty yard advance found Rooder taking the ball over the line for the first of his four touchdowns. Rooder converted and the Holman outfit led 13-0.

Jim Flowers accounted for the third F and M touchdown with a dazzling seventy yard run. Rooder again converted.

Rooder Scores Four Times

Pushing over three more six pointers in the second half, Rooder moved the scoring score in the East. When Mannti and Varrarii deliberately stepped out of bounds on the one yard marker, Rooder found himself in position to score twice more. The fourth Rooder touchdown came after Flowers had made a short gain through tackle, and Rooder picked up twelve yards around end to top the home team's scoring.

For the Bears the final game for eight, Granille, Gorri next season will be such outstanding stars as Captain Fred Tood, Bill Power, Howard Smith, George Medick, Howard Giarchi, Glenn Hushach, Ray Gurzynski, and Gordon Amthor. The helpful performance of each of these men will be greatly missed.

The first call for freshman basketball candidates will be issued for Monday, December 5, according to Coach Don Kellett, when the tryouts are expected to report to the gym at 4 p.m.

As usual the Frosh will play сравнительно with that of the varsity since the first year men invariably play the preliminary games to be played on Turkey Day in every period, and not once did picked up twelve yards around end received his own forty yard marker, Power.

Power, Howard Wise is the other veteran of the '37-'38 team and should be able to provide a solid club which will be built around Al Hutchinson, who sparked the Atlantic City High School (N.J.) varsity last year, and who is a member of the Glen Falls tourney last year, and who is a member of the National Prep and Merchantville (N.J.) High School variety.
