WASHINGTON LETTERS.

Washington, D.C., April 14, 1896.

My dear friend,

I have had a happy week of it. First own the question of foreign relations, which will be a hard problem for the Cabinet to solve. Here is the list of our foreign friends - our neighbors in the East, our friends in the South, and our friends in the West. I have heard that the Cabinet meeting was very long and difficult. The President said that he did not wish to have the Cabinet meeting again at once, but that he would like to have it again in a few weeks. The Cabinet was very much in favor of the President's policy. They all agreed that it was the best policy for the country.

Yours truly,
