We refer to our article on page 1 in the evening edition of the Providence Journal, which was written by a public spirit who has given much thought to this subject.

In all cases of a personal nature, it is not in the interest of the individual to have the facts brought to light. The case must be one of public interest, where the public must be protected.

The question of the time of peace, is one that all must consider. It is not in the interest of the individual to have the facts brought to light.

INDEPENDENT

Is Not

The cheapest and best newspaper this side of the Rocky Mountains; it is not so high in price as the Independent, but it is so much cheaper than the Independent, that it is much cheaper than the Independent, that it is much cheaper than the Independent. It is not so high in price as the Independent, but it is so much cheaper than the Independent, that it is much cheaper than the Independent, that it is much cheaper than the Independent. It is not so high in price as the Independent, but it is so much cheaper than the Independent, that it is much cheaper than the Independent, that it is much cheaper than the Independent.

And Yet

The INDEPENDENT is worth every penny that it costs; it gives value for value received and the mental food that it deals in must be proved.

For

If it catered to:

Vice and immorality.

To literary trashiness, to a quantity and not a quality,

It would be actually dear at any price!

Those who have read the INDEPENDENT for twenty ears will tell you that it does its level best to advocate right and wrong and opposite.

It won’t always please you; it can’t always please you any more than you can always please yourself.

If you are not a reader of the INDEPENDENT, you are no friend of your country.

And, give it its due, intelligent trials! Then your judgment will tell you about it.

If you are a reader, ask your friend or neighbor to do as you are doing.

You can certainly never have anything for doing a good thing.

The INDEPENDENT believes in honest goods, honest money, honest purposes, and honest action.
