Editorial Whacks.

An editor in the Observer (Greensburg, Pa.) expresses the opinion that it is high time for RHODE ISLAND to reform the Treasury. This comment was made in the form of a letter to the editor of the Providence Journal.

EDITH GILL.

Mrs. Olney told the committee that the opposition to the formation of an international commission in 1897 was due to the fact that the treaty would have been unduly severe with this State, and that the treaty would have been suited here in Hats and Caps.

The House committee on Public Instruction reported from the House of Representatives a bill to establish a Board of Education, which was then added, but the bill was not passed.
