provision of news and views on the latest events. The newspaper also discusses the role of journalism in American society today and mentions the Jonah-in-the-whale story, which is likely a reference to a popular legend or event.

Another part of the text discusses the election of President Cleveland and his policies. It mentions the potential for a test to determine his popularity, and the legislation that he might support, such as the bill for the distribution of goods. The text also comments on the financial aspects of these decisions, discussing the balance between the needs of the government and the rights of citizens.

The text ends with a section about the benefits of the railroad and the importance of transportation for businesses and individuals. It concludes with a mention of the importance of maintaining a strong economy and the need for legislation that supports the growth and development of industries.
Last Saturday morning was quite a busy day at the offices of the Pennsylvania Turnpike. There was a meeting of the board of directors, and the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the turnpike be extended to New York.

Resolved, That a new bridge be built over the Delaware River.

Resolved, That the turnpike be widened to accommodate four lanes.

Resolved, That a new filling station be built every mile along the turnpike.

Resolved, That the tolls be increased.

Resolved, That the turnpike be closed to all vehicles on Sundays.

Resolved, That a new lawsuit be filed against the State of New Jersey for breach of contract.

Resolved, That the turnpike be opened to all vehicles at all times.

Resolved, That the turnpike be sold to the highest bidder.

Resolved, That the turnpike be sold to the lowest bidder.

Resolved, That the turnpike be sold to the fair bidder.

Resolved, That the turnpike be sold to the just bidder.

It's a fine day to do as you are doing.

Is it not a reader of the INDEPENDENT, become one, and give it a the fair, intelligent trial? Then your judgment will tell you all about it.

If you are a reader, ask your friend or neighbor to do as you are doing.

You can certainly never lose anything by doing a good thing.

The independent believes in honest goods, honest money, honest business in less time and at less cost than those remote from Washington.
