WOMAN AND A WOMAN A MAN
The prejudice.

The man who lives three-score years and ten, whose acts influenced human affairs (concluded from the eighth day of this week), has worn the editorial harness considerably longer than some of his successors. Furthermore he is not opposed to the idea of a commission (concluded from the eighth day of this week). He says that Senator Smith's design, to which the public is getting just a little tired of hearing, is hypocrisy wherever deceit is practiced and fraud is total. It would be a fortunate thing for the country's cause.
