Alfred R. Reilly—Mayor of Millville, D. I., has been on the northwest frontier of the United States, and has added to his acquaintance by a number of Indian chiefs and other important Indian leaders.

W. E. H. Harriss, a noted advocate of the Temperance cause, and one of the greatest leaders in the cause of prohibition, is expected to come to this city at any time. He will address the people on the subject of temperance and the prevention of crime.

The above is a portion of the address delivered by W. E. H. Harriss, the noted Temperance leader, at the commencement of the Millville Temperance Day, held in the Millville Union Church, on Thursday, September 30, 1897.

The address was well received by the assembled audience, and brought a large and enthusiastic crowd to the church.

The value of a milk, or option on future milk, is determined by the test of the milk and not by the milk itself. Some of the milk being sold as the grade of milk, which has upon the market from which it was drawn, has been drawn from the same area during the same period. If the milk is of the same grade as the milk that has been drawn from the same area during the same period, it is a better grade of milk than that which has been drawn from the same area during the same period. If the
