Cadet Fullback Scores Lone Touchdown Late in Final Quarter
On Short Plunge Following Fumble on Wet Field

"Figure out what 22 greased pigs will do in a mud wallow, and you will understand why P. M. C. had nothing but mud on its coat Sunday, when the explanation Jim Johnson gave for the outcome of the Turkey Day defeat of the Cadets was, if at the hands of P. M. C. as well as a result of the fourth quarter of the game at Chest.

Ursinus kicked off to P. M. C. and after an exchange of punts and a penalty on the Cadets, the ball came to rest on the opponents' five yard line. Redskins put the ball up to their own 40 and a little later a look at the ball at the same spot when Ursinus was unable to make a first down. Next time, the ball was able to advance the pigskin for any considerable yardage, so that the first period was largely a punting duel between the two backfield kickers.

Near the end of the period, Johnny Grimm crashed through the Cadet defense to score from the five yard line, and recover the sore on their 23 yard line. In the second period, when the scoreboard had not yet been broken, Wildinger intercepted a pass and raced 70 yards for a touchdown in the center of the field. Ursinus then proceeded to pound the tackles and center for a couple of first downs which brought them to the doorway to the five yard line. There they bumbled away the remainder of the period.

Here P. M. C. stiffened and two attempted fumbles failed for the Bears. The ball in short possession at this point, the Cadets took control and formed a strong line to crush the Riders on a long aerial which resulted in a punt that was halted when Wildinger intercepted the pass. After another couple of first downs, Ursinus was unable to cross the goal and had to kick.

Second Quarter

Taking advantage of the possession at this point, the Cadets took control and formed a strong line to crush the Riders on an aerial of the 30 yard line. On the long aerial which resulted in a punt that was halted when Wildinger intercepted the pass. After another couple of first downs, Ursinus was unable to cross the goal and had to kick.

Looking forward to an ambitious move, Ursinus planned the Glennie Club after the first half of the game. The offensive plan will establish a permanent wall of obedience on the first down in December. After that time period, they will have to wait until a vacancy occurs. These may be submitted to the committee and punctuality will be put into effect.

Five new selections have been added to the band already in rehearse. Among these are: "Joshua Fo Bt de Battle of Zurich," a spiritual; "Song of the Arv," by Richard Hough; "Yes Man," from the collection of Edmund Hall; "The Day of the Tiger," by Hugo; and Herbert's "Ne­

It is no secret that Ursinus College is facing the same question that faces every college administration: is it feasible to balance the current budget. Strict economy must be enforced and the budget must be pared at every conceivable point. To cut salaries, to decrease appropriations, to discontinue legitimate functions of the College, or to remove entirely functions which the College should rightfully perform, is serious and ought to be avoided. But to avoid this necessity requires the abandonment of revenues with which to carry on the work.

Obviously more harm than good would come to the institution if student fees were increased. What sources, then, remain? Two: larger alumni and income from increased endowments. For such funds we must go among alumni and friends of the College.

Therefore, the Weekly again advocates what it urged last May, namely, the publication of an Alumni Bulletin. The idea is not to普法 the University vigorously. (It is not the answer to the problems of the people. The alumni who cannot afford to give any substantial sum; but we do believe that there are alumni who could aid materially in strengthening the College treasury, and would do so if they were kept well-informed as to the progress and condition of the school. As we pointed out before, the Alumni Bulletin is no substitute for the Alumni Bulletin. So, again, we ask the Alumni Association to reconsider the matter at its earliest opportunity, for its publication need not entail the appointment of a permanent secretary. If the Alumni Association WILLS THAT IT BE DONE, SURELY THAT SAME WILL CAN FIND A WAY TO DO IT.

HERE'S WHY CAMEL'S MILDNESS APPEALS TO OUT-OF-DOORS PEOPLE

Henry Clay Foster, explorer, tiger hunter, and steady Camel smoker. He has struggled for many a weary mile through bush and jungle... faced many a tense moment when nerves were tested to the limit. Speaking of nerves and smoking, Foster says: "My idea of a mild cigarette is Camel. I've been in some tough spots, but Camels have never thrown my nerves off key, although I'm a steady Camel smoker and have been for years. Camels give me the mildness I want—better taste—the fragrance and aroma of choice tobaccos."

a P. M. C. player fell on an Ursinus fumble to give them the ball on the Bears' 32. Malinski got loose for what looked like a touchdown gallop until Jakomas nabbed him on the 19.

Fourth Period

Bonkowski kicked out from his own ten to the P. M. C. 32 from where McPadden returned it for ten yards. Malinski dashed around end to ten to the P. M. C. pick up on the first play. President and a bad pass from center resulted by P. M. C. of Bassman's tackling, which was for another tally. This rally

THE PROOF OF THE CIGARETTE IS IN THE SMOKING... AND IT ALWAYS WILL BE

Smokers—both men and women—want a cigarette to be mild—yet not flat or insipid. At the same time they want a cigarette that gives them taste—taste they can enjoy.

Chesterfields are outstanding for mildness—outstanding for better taste. You can find that out by smoking them.
